AN ACT to amend the insurance law, in relation to insurance for victims of a hate crime

The People of the State of New York, represented in Senate and Assembly, do enact as follows:

- 1 Section 1. The insurance law is amended by adding a new section 3114 2 to read as follows:
- § 3114. Hate crimes; coverage refusal. (a) For purposes of this section, "insured" means a current policyholder or a person or entity that is covered under an insurance policy.
- 6 (b) This section shall apply to policies of insurance if the insured 7 or proposed insured is:
- 8 1. an individual;
- 9 2. a religious organization;
- 10 3. an educational organization; or
- 11 4. any other nonprofit organization that is organized and operated for 12 religious, charitable or educational purposes.
- 13 (c) An insurer issuing policies subject to this section shall not
- 14 cancel, refuse to issue, refuse to renew, or increase the premium of a
- 15 policy solely on the basis that one or more claims have been made
- 16 against any policy during the preceding sixty months for a loss that is
- 17 the result of a hate crime as defined pursuant to article four hundred
- 18 eighty-five of the penal law committed against the person or property
- 19 insured if the insured provides evidence to the insurer that the act
- 20 causing such loss is identified as a hate crime on a police report.
- 21 (d) An insurer may cancel, refuse to renew, increase the premium of,
- 22 or change the terms or benefits of an insurance policy due to other
- 23 factors that are not prohibited by this section.
- 24 § 2. This act shall take effect immediately.
