

STATE OF NEW YORK

7712

IN SENATE

January 7, 2022

Introduced by Sen. RAMOS -- read twice and ordered printed, and when printed to be committed to the Committee on Rules

AN ACT to amend the social services law, in relation to written material provided to human trafficking victims regarding available social and legal services

The People of the State of New York, represented in Senate and Assembly, do enact as follows:

1 Section 1. Subdivision (c) of section 483-cc of the social services
2 law, as added by a chapter of the laws of 2021 amending the social 3 services law relating to advising human trafficking victims of the 4 availability of social and legal services, as proposed in legislative 5 bills numbers S. 924 and A. 3331, is amended to read as follows:

6 (c) Promptly upon an encounter with a person who reasonably appears to 7 a law enforcement agency or district attorney's office to be a human 8 trafficking victim, or a person who identifies himself or herself as a 9 human trafficking victim, such law enforcement agency or district attorney's 10 office shall advise such person of the availability of the 11 services of specific, established providers of social and legal services
12 to human trafficking victims. Each local department of social services 13 shall maintain and shall update, at least once annually, a list of 14 established providers of social and legal services to human trafficking 15 victims within the social services district, which shall be provided, at 16 least once annually, to law enforcement agencies and district attorney's 17 offices within the district. In order to communicate effectively with 18 such person, the law enforcement agency or district attorney's office 19 may provide such individual with a brochure or other written material, 20 including by informing the individual where such written materials are 21 available online, translated into the six most common non-English 22 languages spoken by individuals with limited English proficiency in the 23 state or in the applicable county, city, or town; provided, however, 24 where such person is not proficient in one of such languages, the law
25 enforcement agency or district attorney's office shall make reasonable 26 efforts to communicate effectively with such person, using an interpreter 27 or interpretation services, where practicable. Unless, after receiving ing such advice, the apparent victim expresses that he or she does not wish the presence of a representative of such an established provider of social or legal services, the law enforcement agency or district attorney's office shall offer to contact the appropriate provider or providers and ~~[request that a representative be provided. If the apparent victim does not wish the presence of such a representative, that expression by the apparent victim shall be documented by the agency or office official in writing or other recorded form]~~ connect such provider or providers with the apparent victim. Nothing in this subdivision shall affect any obligation such law enforcement agency or district attorney's office may have to provide any information or assistance to such person.

§ 2. This act shall take effect on the same date and in the same manner as a chapter of the laws of 2021 amending the social services law relating to advising human trafficking victims of the availability of social and legal services, as proposed in legislative bills numbers S. 924 and A. 3331, takes effect.
