Introduced by Sens. BORRELLO, RATH -- read twice and ordered printed, and when printed to be committed to the Committee on Judiciary

AN ACT to amend the real property law, in relation to excluding certain real property conveyances from the written notice requirement

The People of the State of New York, represented in Senate and Assembly, do enact as follows:

Section 1. Section 291 of the real property law, as amended by chapter 641 of the laws of 2019, is amended to read as follows:

§ 291. Recording of conveyances. A conveyance of real property, within 3 4 the state, on being duly acknowledged by the person executing the same, or proved as required by this chapter, and such acknowledgment or proof 5 б duly certified when required by this chapter, may be recorded in the 7 office of the clerk of the county where such real property is situated, and such county clerk or city registrar where applicable shall, upon the 8 request of any party, on tender of the lawful fees therefor, record the 9 10 same in said office. Every such conveyance not so recorded is void as 11 against any person who subsequently purchases or acquires by exchange or 12 contracts to purchase or acquire by exchange, the same real property or 13 any portion thereof, or acquires by assignment the rent to accrue there-14 from as provided in section two hundred ninety-four-a of this article, 15 in good faith and for a valuable consideration, from the same vendor or 16 assignor, his distributees or devisees, and whose conveyance, contract 17 or assignment is first duly recorded, and is void as against the lien 18 upon the same real property or any portion thereof arising from payments made upon the execution of or pursuant to the terms of a contract with 19 the same vendor, his distributees or devisees, if such contract is made 20 in good faith and is first duly recorded. Notwithstanding the forego-21 ing, any increase in the principal balance of a mortgage lien by virtue 22 23 of the addition thereto of unpaid interest in accordance with the terms 24 of the mortgage shall retain the priority of the original mortgage lien 25 as so increased provided that any such mortgage instrument sets forth 26 its terms of repayment. The clerk of the county or city registrar where 27 such conveyance of residential real property is recorded and maintained 28 shall mail a written notice of such conveyance to the owner of record.

EXPLANATION--Matter in italics (underscored) is new; matter in brackets [-] is old law to be omitted.
