1 2. For any felony, an authorized sentence includes a sentence other
2 than incarceration or a definite sentence of imprisonment. The court may
3 fix such authorized sentence for one year or less.

4 3. (a) Before imposing a sentence of imprisonment, the court shall
5 conduct a hearing to determine whether the presumption against incarcer-
6 ation has been overcome.

7 (i) In order to overcome the presumption against incarceration, the 8 prosecutor must show, by clear and convincing evidence, that there are
9 no means to address the unlawful behavior and promote community safety
10 other than imprisonment.

11 (ii) At the hearing the court shall consider oral and written argu-
12 ments, take testimony from witnesses offered by either party, and

20 (iv) If the court finds that the presumption has been overcome, it
21 shall proceed to impose the minimum term of imprisonment necessary to 22 achieve the goals of sentencing.

23 (v) If a hearing is not held or the presumption has not been overcome
24 the court shall impose a non-incarceratory sentence unless the hearing
25 has been waived pursuant to subdivision five of this section.

26 (vi) A defendant shall not be required to pay for any part of the cost
27 of their sentence.

28 (vii) Upon request of the defendant, the court shall conduct the hear-
29 ing promptly after the rendering of a guilty verdict or the entry of a
30 guilty plea.

31 (b) In considering whether the presumption against incarceration has 32 been overcome and, where relevant, what the appropriate incarceratory
33 sentence should be, the court shall consider the following:

34 (i) the unique harms of imprisonment, including interruption of 35 defendant's connections to family, employment, needed public benefits,
36 healthcare, and housing;

37 (ii) the financial cost of incarceration to the state and/or locali-
38 ties;

39 (iii) any mitigating circumstances that bear on the manner in which 40 the crime was committed; and

41 (iv) the history, character and condition of the defendant, including,
42 but not limited to:

(11) the factors set forth in subdivision one of section 60.12 of this title.

(c) The court shall not consider or draw any negative inference from a defendant's silence or failure to express remorse.

4. If a defendant testifies at the hearing, such testimony shall not be admissible in any subsequent proceeding.

5. A defendant may knowingly and voluntarily waive their rights under this section.

§ 3. Subdivision 1 of section 380.50 of the criminal procedure law, as amended by chapter 307 of the laws of 1992, is amended to read as follows:

1. The court shall impose sentence in accordance with the procedures set forth in section 60.03 of the penal law. At the time of pronouncing sentence, the court must accord the prosecutor an opportunity to make a statement with respect to any matter relevant to the question of sentence. The court must then accord counsel for the defendant an opportunity to speak on behalf of the defendant. The defendant also has the right to make a statement personally in his or her own behalf, and before pronouncing sentence the court must ask the defendant whether he or she wishes to make such a statement.

§ 4. Paragraph (a) of subdivision 3 of section 390.30 of the criminal procedure law, as added by chapter 14 of the laws of 1985, is amended to read as follows:

(a) The report of the pre-sentence investigation must contain an analysis of as much of the information gathered in the investigation as the agency that conducted the investigation deems relevant to the question of sentence. The report must also include any other ~~[information]~~ information that the court directs to be included and the material required by paragraph (b) of this subdivision which shall be considered part of the report. The defendant shall be given an opportunity to challenge or correct any fact or conclusion in the pre-sentence report or memorandum prior to the court's pronouncement of sentence and no later than at the hearing conducted in accordance with subdivision three of section 60.03 of the penal law. In its discretion, the court may except from disclosure a part or parts of the report or memoranda which are not relevant to a proper sentence, or a diagnostic opinion which might seriously disrupt a program of rehabilitation, or sources of information which have been obtained on a promise of confidentiality, or any other portion thereof, disclosure of which would not be in the interest of justice. In all cases where a part or parts of the report or memoranda are not disclosed, the court shall state for the record that a part or parts of the report or memoranda have been excepted and the reasons for its action. The action of the court excepting information from disclosure shall be subject to appellate review. The pre-sentence report shall be made available by the court for examination and copying in connection with any appeal in the case, including an appeal under this subdivision. Upon written request, the court shall make a copy of the presentence report, other than a part or parts of the report redacted by the court pursuant to this paragraph, available to the defendant for use before the parole board for release consideration or an appeal of a parole board determination or an application for resentencing pursuant to section 440.46 or 440.47 of this chapter. ~~[In his or her written request to the court the defendant shall affirm that he or she anticipates an appearance before the parole board or intends to file an administrative appeal of a parole board determination or meets the eligibility criteria for and intends to file a motion for resentencing pursuant to 440.46 of this chapter or has received notification from the court which received his or her request to apply for resentencing pursuant to section 440.47 of this chapter confirming that he or she is eligible to submit an application for resentencing pursuant to section 440.47 of this chapter.]~~ The court shall respond to the defendant's written request within twenty days from receipt of the defendant's written request.

§ 70.00 Sentence of imprisonment for felony.

1. Indeterminate sentence. Except as provided in subdivisions three and four~~[, five and six]~~ of this section or section 70.80 of this article, ~~[a] the term of sentence [of imprisonment]~~ for a felony, other than a felony defined in article two hundred twenty or two hundred twenty-one of this chapter, shall be fixed by the court in accordance with section 60.03 of this title. If a court finds that sentence of imprisonment of more than one year is the minimum term of imprisonment necessary to achieve the goals of sentencing, the court shall impose an indeterminate sentence. When such a sentence is imposed, the court shall impose a maximum term in accordance with the provisions of subdivision two of this section ~~[and the minimum period of imprisonment shall be as provided in subdivision three of this section]~~. The minimum period shall be fixed by the court and specified in the sentence and shall be not less than one year nor more than one-third of the maximum term imposed, or the court may impose a definite sentence of imprisonment and fix a term of one year or less.

2. Maximum term of sentence. The maximum term of an indeterminate sentence shall be at least three years and the term shall be fixed as follows:

- (a) For a class A felony, the term shall be life imprisonment;
- (b) For a class B felony, the term shall be fixed by the court, and shall not exceed twenty-five years;
- (c) For a class C felony, the term shall be fixed by the court, and shall not exceed fifteen years;
- (d) For a class D felony, the term shall be fixed by the court, and shall not exceed seven years; and
- (e) For a class E felony, the term shall be fixed by the court, and shall not exceed four years.

3. ~~[Minimum period of imprisonment. The minimum period of imprisonment under an indeterminate sentence shall be at least one year and shall be fixed as follows:~~

~~(a) In the case of a class A felony, the minimum period shall be fixed by the court and specified in the sentence.~~

~~(i) For a class A-I felony, such minimum period shall not be less than fifteen years nor more than twenty-five years, provided, however, that (A) where a sentence, other than a sentence of death or life imprisonment without parole, is imposed upon a defendant convicted of murder in the first degree as defined in section 125.27 of this chapter such minimum period shall be not less than twenty years nor more than twenty-five years, and, (B) where a sentence is imposed upon a defendant convicted of murder in the second degree as defined in subdivision five of section 125.25 of this chapter or convicted of aggravated murder as defined in section 125.26 of this chapter, the sentence shall be life imprisonment without parole, and, (C) where a sentence is imposed upon a defendant convicted of attempted murder in the first degree as defined in article one hundred ten of this chapter and subparagraph (i), (ii) or (iii) of paragraph (a) of subdivision one and paragraph (b) of subdivision one of section 125.27 of this chapter or attempted aggravated murder as defined in article one hundred ten of this chapter and section 125.26 of this chapter such minimum period shall be not less than twenty years nor more than forty years.~~

~~(ii) For a class A-II felony, such minimum period shall not be less than three years nor more than eight years four months, except that for the class A-II felony of predatory sexual assault as defined in section 130.95 of this chapter or the class A-II felony of predatory sexual assault against a child as defined in section 130.96 of this chapter, such minimum period shall be not less than ten years nor more than twenty-five years.~~

~~(b) For any other felony, the minimum period shall be fixed by the court and specified in the sentence and shall be not less than one year nor more than one-third of the maximum term imposed.~~

~~4. Alternative definite sentence for class D and E felonies. When a person, other than a second or persistent felony offender, is sentenced for a class D or class E felony, and the court, having regard to the nature and circumstances of the crime and to the history and character of the defendant, is of the opinion that a sentence of imprisonment is necessary but that it would be unduly harsh to impose an indeterminate or determinate sentence, the court may impose a definite sentence of imprisonment and fix a term of one year or less.~~

~~5.]~~ Life imprisonment without parole. Notwithstanding any other provision of law, a defendant sentenced to life imprisonment without parole shall not be or become eligible for parole or conditional release. For purposes of commitment and custody, other than parole and conditional release, such sentence shall be deemed to be an indeterminate sentence. A defendant may be sentenced to life imprisonment without parole upon conviction for the crime of murder in the first degree as defined in section 125.27 of this chapter and in accordance with the procedures provided by law for imposing a sentence for such crime. A defendant who was eighteen years of age or older at the time of the commission of the crime must be sentenced to life imprisonment without parole upon conviction for the crime of terrorism as defined in section 490.25 of this chapter, where the specified offense the defendant committed is a class A-I felony; the crime of criminal possession of a chemical weapon or biological weapon in the first degree as defined in section 490.45 of this chapter; or the crime of criminal use of a chemical weapon or biological weapon in the first degree as defined in section 490.55 of this chapter; provided, however, that nothing in this subdivision shall preclude or prevent a sentence of death when the defendant is also convicted of the crime of murder in the first degree as defined in section 125.27 of this chapter. A defendant who was seventeen years of age or younger at the time of the commission of the crime may be sentenced, in accordance with law, to the applicable indeterminate sentence with a maximum term of life imprisonment. A defendant must be sentenced to life imprisonment without parole upon conviction for the crime of murder in the second degree as defined in subdivision five of section 125.25 of this chapter or for the crime of aggravated murder as defined in subdivision one of section 125.26 of this chapter. A defendant may be sentenced to life imprisonment without parole upon conviction for the crime of aggravated murder as defined in subdivision two of section 125.26 of this chapter.

~~[6.]~~ 4. Determinate sentence. [Except as provided in subdivision four of this section and subdivisions two and four of section 70.02, when]
When a person is sentenced as a violent felony offender pursuant to section 70.02 ~~[or as a second violent felony offender pursuant to section 70.04 or as a second felony offender on a conviction for a violent felony offense pursuant to section 70.06]~~ of this article, the sentence shall be fixed by the court in accordance with section 60.03 of this title. If a court finds that a sentence of imprisonment of more than one year is the minimum term of imprisonment necessary to achieve the goals of sentencing, the court must impose a determinate sentence of imprisonment in accordance with the provisions of such ~~[sections and such sentence shall include, as a part thereof, a period of post-release supervision in accordance with section 70.45]~~ section.

§ 7. Subdivision d of section 74 of chapter 3 of the laws of 1995, enacting the sentencing reform act of 1995, as amended by section 19 of part A of chapter 55 of the laws of 2021, is amended to read as follows:

§ 8. Subdivisions 2 and 4 of section 70.02 of the penal law are REPEALED and subdivision 3, as amended by chapter 765 of the laws of 2005, paragraphs (b) and (c) as amended by chapter 1 of the laws of 2013, is amended to read as follows:

~~[3.]~~ 2 Term of sentence. The term ~~[of a determinate sentence]~~ for a violent felony offense must be fixed by the court in accordance with section 60.03 of this title. If a court finds that a sentence of imprisonment of more than one year is the minimum term of imprisonment necessary to achieve the goals of sentencing, the court shall impose a determinate sentence as follows:

(a) For a class B felony, the term must be at least ~~[five years]~~ one year and must not exceed twenty-five years, provided, however, that the term ~~[must be]~~: (i) ~~[at least ten years and]~~ must not exceed thirty years where the sentence is for the crime of aggravated assault upon a police officer or peace officer as defined in section 120.11 of this chapter; and (ii) ~~[at least ten years and]~~ must not exceed thirty years where the sentence is for the crime of aggravated manslaughter in the first degree as defined in section 125.22 of this chapter;

(b) For a class C felony, the term must be at least ~~[three and one-half years]~~ one year and must not exceed fifteen years, provided, howev-

50 imposed by it is to run, the sentence shall run as follows:

51 (a) An indeterminate or determinate sentence shall run concurrently
52 with all other terms; and

53 (b) A definite sentence shall run concurrently with [~~any sentence~~
54 ~~imposed at the same time and shall be consecutive to any other term~~] all

~~2-a. When an indeterminate or determinate sentence of imprisonment is imposed pursuant to section 70.04, 70.06, 70.07, 70.08, 70.10, subdivision three or four of section 70.70, subdivision three or four of section 70.71 or subdivision five of section 70.80 of this article, or is imposed for a class A-I felony pursuant to section 70.00 of this article, and such person is subject to an undischarged indeterminate or determinate sentence of imprisonment imposed prior to the date on which the present crime was committed, the court must impose a sentence to run consecutively with respect to such undischarged sentence.~~

The defendant and the district attorney shall have an opportunity to present relevant information to assist the court in making this determination and the court may, in its discretion, conduct a hearing with respect to any issue bearing upon such determination. If the court determines that consecutive sentences should not be ordered, it shall make a statement on the record of the facts and circumstances upon which such determination is based.~~

~~2-c. When a person is convicted of bail jumping in the second degree as defined in section 215.56 or bail jumping in the first degree as defined in section 215.57 committed after arraignment and while released on recognizance or bail in connection with a pending indictment or information charging one or more felonies, at least one of which he is subsequently convicted, and if an indeterminate sentence of imprisonment is imposed in each case, such sentences shall run consecutively. Provided, however, that the court may, in the interest of justice, order a sentence to run concurrently in a situation where consecutive sentences are required by this subdivision if it finds mitigating circumstances that bear directly upon the manner in which the crime was committed. The defendant and the district attorney shall have an opportunity to present relevant information to assist the court in making this determination and the court may, in its discretion, conduct a hearing with respect to any issue bearing upon such determination. If the court determines that consecutive sentences should not be ordered, it shall make a statement on the record of the facts and circumstances upon which such determination is based.~~
