IN SENATE

January 19, 2022

Introduced by Sens. PALUMBO, JORDAN -- read twice and ordered printed, and when printed to be committed to the Committee on Children and Families

AN ACT to amend the criminal procedure law, in relation to allowing lifetime orders of protection in certain cases

The People of the State of New York, represented in Senate and Assembly, do enact as follows:

1 Section 1. The opening paragraph of subdivision 5 of section 530.12 of 2 the criminal procedure law, as amended by chapter 240 of the laws of 3 2015, is amended to read as follows:

4 Upon sentencing on a conviction for any crime or violation between 5 spouses, between a parent and child, or between members of the same 6 family or household as defined in subdivision one of section 530.11 of 7 this article, the court may in addition to any other disposition,
8 including a conditional discharge or youthful offender adjudication,
9 enter an order of protection. Where a temporary order of protection was 10 issued, the court shall state on the record the reasons for issuing or 11 not issuing an order of protection. The duration of such an order shall 12 be fixed by the court and: (A) in the case of a felony conviction, shall 13 not exceed the greater of: (i) eight years from the date of such 14 sentencing[~~, except where the sentence is or includes a sentence of~~ 15 ~~probation on a conviction for a felony sexual assault, as provided in~~ 16 ~~subparagraph (iii) of paragraph (a) of subdivision three of section~~ 17 ~~65.00 of the penal law, in which case, ten years from the date of such~~ 18 ~~sentencing~~], or (ii) eight years from the date of the expiration of the 19 maximum term of an indeterminate or the term of a determinate sentence 20 of imprisonment actually imposed, or (iii) the lifetime of the defendant 21 or the victim, whichever is shorter, in the case of a conviction for any 22 felony under article one hundred twenty, one hundred twenty-five, one 23 hundred thirty, one hundred thirty-five or two hundred sixty-three or 24 section 255.25, 255.26 or 255.27 of the penal law, or an attempt to 25 commit any felony under such articles or sections; or (B) in the case of 26 a conviction for a class A misdemeanor, shall not exceed the greater of: 27 (i) five years from the date of such sentencing, except where the

1 sentence is or includes a sentence of probation on a conviction for a 2 misdemeanor sexual assault, as provided in subparagraph (ii) of para-3 graph (b) of subdivision three of section 65.00 of the penal law, in 4 which case, six years from the date of such sentencing, or (ii) five 5 years from the date of the expiration of the maximum term of a definite 6 or intermittent term actually imposed; or (C) in the case of a 7 conviction for any other offense, shall not exceed the greater of: (i) 8 two years from the date of sentencing, or (ii) two years from the date 9 of the expiration of the maximum term of a definite or intermittent term 10 actually imposed. For purposes of determining the duration of an order 11 of protection entered pursuant to this subdivision, a conviction shall 12 be deemed to include a conviction that has been replaced by a youthful 13 offender adjudication. In addition to any other conditions, such an 14 order may require the defendant:

15 § 2. The opening paragraph of subdivision 5 of section 530.12 of the 16 criminal procedure law, as amended by chapter 9 of the laws of 2011, is 17 amended to read as follows:

18 Upon sentencing on a conviction for any crime or violation between 19 spouses, between a parent and child, or between members of the same 20 family or household as defined in subdivision one of section 530.11 of 21 this article, the court may in addition to any other disposition,
22 including a conditional discharge or youthful offender adjudication,
23 enter an order of protection. Where a temporary order of protection was 24 issued, the court shall state on the record the reasons for issuing or 25 not issuing an order of protection. The duration of such an order shall 26 be fixed by the court and, in the case of a felony conviction, shall not 27 exceed the greater of: (i) five years from the date of such sentencing, 28 or (ii) three years from the date of the expiration of the maximum term 29 of an indeterminate sentence of imprisonment actually imposed, or (iii) 30 the lifetime of the defendant or the victim, whichever is shorter, in 31 the case of a conviction for any felony under article one hundred twen-32 ty, one hundred twenty-five, one hundred thirty, one hundred thirty-five 33 or two hundred sixty-three or section 255.25, 255.26 or 255.27 of the 34 penal law, or an attempt to commit any felony under such articles or 35 sections; or in the case of a conviction for a class A misdemeanor, 36 shall not exceed three years from the date of such sentencing; or in the 37 case of a conviction for any other offense, shall not exceed one year 38 from the date of sentencing. For purposes of determining the duration of 39 an order of protection entered pursuant to this subdivision, a 40 conviction shall be deemed to include a conviction that has been 41 replaced by a youthful offender adjudication. In addition to any other 42 conditions, such an order may require the defendant:

43 § 3. The opening paragraph of subdivision 4 of section 530.13 of the 44 criminal procedure law, as amended by chapter 240 of the laws of 2015, 45 is amended to read as follows:

46 Upon sentencing on a conviction for any offense, where the court has 47 not issued an order of protection pursuant to section 530.12 of this 48 article, the court may, in addition to any other disposition, including 49 a conditional discharge or youthful offender adjudication, enter an 50 order of protection. Where a temporary order of protection was issued, 51 the court shall state on the record the reasons for issuing or not issu-52 ing an order of protection. The duration of such an order shall be fixed 53 by the court and; (A) in the case of a felony conviction, shall not 54 exceed the greater of: (i) eight years from the date of such sentenc-55 ing[~~, except where the sentence is or includes a sentence of probation~~ 56 ~~on a conviction for a felony sexual assault, as provided in subparagraph~~

~~(iii) of paragraph (a) of subdivision three of section 65.00 of the penal law, in which case, ten years from the date of such sentencing]~~, or (ii) eight years from the date of the expiration of the maximum term of an indeterminate or the term of a determinate sentence of imprisonment actually imposed, or (iii) the lifetime of the defendant or the victim, whichever is shorter, in the case of a conviction for any felony under article one hundred twenty, one hundred twenty-five, one hundred thirty, one hundred thirty-five or two hundred sixty-three or section 255.25, 255.26 or 255.27 of the penal law, or an attempt to commit any felony under such articles or sections; or (B) in the case of a conviction for a class A misdemeanor, shall not exceed the greater of: (i) five years from the date of such sentencing, except where the sentence is or includes a sentence of probation on a conviction for a misdemeanor sexual assault, as provided in subparagraph (ii) of paragraph (b) of subdivision three of section 65.00 of the penal law, in which case, six years from the date of such sentencing or (ii) five years from the date of the expiration of the maximum term of a definite or intermittent term actually imposed; or (C) in the case of a conviction for any other offense, shall not exceed the greater of: (i) two years from the date of sentencing, or (ii) two years from the date of the expiration of the maximum term of a definite or intermittent term actually imposed. For purposes of determining the duration of an order of protection entered pursuant to this subdivision, a conviction shall be deemed to include a conviction that has been replaced by a youthful offender adjudication. In addition to any other conditions such an order may require that the defendant:

§ 4. The opening paragraph of subdivision 4 of section 530.13 of the criminal procedure law, as amended by chapter 9 of the laws of 2011, is amended to read as follows:

Upon sentencing on a conviction for any offense, where the court has not issued an order of protection pursuant to section 530.12 of this article, the court may, in addition to any other disposition, including a conditional discharge or youthful offender adjudication, enter an order of protection. Where a temporary order of protection was issued, the court shall state on the record the reasons for issuing or not issuing an order of protection. The duration of such an order shall be fixed by the court and, in the case of a felony conviction, shall not exceed the greater of: (i) five years from the date of such sentencing, or (ii) three years from the date of the expiration of the maximum term of an indeterminate sentence of imprisonment actually imposed, or (iii) the lifetime of the defendant or the victim, whichever is shorter, in the case of a conviction for any felony under article one hundred twenty, one hundred twenty-five, one hundred thirty, one hundred thirty-five or two hundred sixty-three or section 255.25, 255.26 or 255.27 of the penal law, or an attempt to commit any felony under such articles or sections; or in the case of a conviction for a class A misdemeanor, shall not exceed three years from the date of such sentencing; or in the case of a conviction for any other offense, shall not exceed one year from the date of sentencing. For purposes of determining the duration of an order of protection entered pursuant to this subdivision, a conviction shall be deemed to include a conviction that has been replaced by a youthful offender adjudication. In addition to any other conditions such an order may require that the defendant:

§ 5. The criminal procedure law is amended by adding a new section 530.13-a to read as follows:

§ 530.13-a Lifetime orders of protection in certain cases.

1 1. (a) Notwithstanding any provision of law to the contrary, a victim 2 of any felony under article one hundred twenty, one hundred twenty-five, 3 one hundred thirty, or one hundred thirty-five or section 255.25, 255.26 4 or 255.27 of the penal law, or any attempt to commit any such felony 5 offense, may file a petition for a lifetime order of protection against 6 the offender who was convicted of such crime in accordance with the 7 procedures set forth in this section.

8 (b) A petition for a lifetime order of protection pursuant to this 9 section may be filed by an unemancipated person under eighteen years of 10 age. Such petition shall be signed by one of the unemancipated person's 11 parents or guardians. The petition may also be signed by a caseworker at 12 a not-for-profit organization that receives funds from the office of 13 children and family services for family violence and child abuse 14 prevention and shelters; provided, however, that a petition signed by a 15 caseworker may not be filed against the unemancipated minor's parent or 16 legal guardian. In such case, unless the court finds that the action 17 would create a threat of serious harm to the minor, a copy of the peti-18 tion and notice of hearing shall also be served on the parents of the 19 minor child, or if the parents are not living together and jointly 20 caring for the child, upon the primary custodial parent. In cases before 21 the family court where the office of children and family services is a 22 party or where a guardian ad litem has been appointed for the child by 23 the family court, the petition may be filed by the office or the guardi-24 an ad litem.

25 2. Venue for a petition for a lifetime order of protection under this 26 section is in the county where the respondent resides or the county in 27 which the offense occurred. If the respondent is not a resident of this 28 state, the petition may be filed in the county where the petitioner 29 resides.

30 3. The court shall cause a copy of the petition and notice of the date 31 set for the hearing on such petition to be served upon the respondent at 32 least five days prior to the hearing. The notice shall advise the 33 respondent that he or she may be represented by counsel. In every case, 34 unless the court finds that the action would create a threat of serious 35 harm to the minor, when a petitioner is under eighteen years of age, a 36 copy of the petition, and notice of hearing shall also be served on the 37 parents of the minor child, or in the event that the parents are not 38 living together and jointly caring for the child, upon the primary resi-39 dential parent, pursuant to the requirements of this section.

40 4. At the hearing on the petition, the court shall, if the petitioner 41 has proved the respondent was convicted of any felony under article one 42 hundred twenty, one hundred twenty-five, one hundred thirty, one hundred 43 thirty-five or two hundred sixty-three of the penal law, or an attempt 44 to commit a felony under such articles and that the petitioner was the 45 victim of the offense, issue a lifetime order of protection that remains 46 in effect for the lifetime of the petitioner or the respondent whichever 47 is shorter. If the petitioner has not provided proof that respondent was 48 convicted of such an offense and that the petitioner was the victim of 49 the offense, the court shall dismiss the petition.

50 5. A lifetime order of protection granted under this section shall:

51 (a) prohibit the respondent from coming about the petitioner for any 52 purpose, from telephoning, contacting, or otherwise communicating with 53 the petitioner, directly or indirectly;

54 (b) include a statement of the maximum penalty that may be imposed 55 pursuant to subdivision seven of this section for violating such order; 56 and

1 (c) be valid and enforceable in any county of this state.

2 6. A lifetime order of protection is effective upon the date of iss-
3 ance and shall be served within one year of such date.

4 7. (a) Upon violation of a lifetime order of protection, the court may 5 hold the defendant in civil or criminal contempt and punish the defend-6 ant in accordance with the law.

7 (b) In addition to the authorized punishments for contempt of court, a 8 judge may assess any person who violates a lifetime order of protection 9 a civil penalty of fifty dollars. The judge may further order that any 10 support payment made pursuant to an order of protection or a court-ap-11 proved consent agreement be made under an income assignment to the clerk 12 of court. Upon collecting the civil penalty imposed by this subdivision, 13 the clerk shall, on a monthly basis, send the money to the state comp-14 troller who shall deposit it in the domestic violence awareness fund 15 pursuant to section ninety-seven-yyy of the state finance law as added 16 by chapter 634 of the laws of 2002.

17 8. An arrest for violation of a lifetime order of protection issued 18 pursuant to this section may be with or without warrant. A law enforce-19 ment officer shall arrest the respondent without a warrant if:

20 (a) the police officer or peace officer has proper jurisdiction over 21 the area in which the violation occurred;

22 (b) the police officer or peace officer has reasonable cause to 23 believe the respondent has violated or is in violation of a lifetime 24 order of protection; and 25 (c) the police officer or peace officer has verified whether a life-

26 time order of protection is in effect against the respondent. If neces-27 sary, the officer may verify the existence of a lifetime order of 28 protection by telephone or radio communication with the appropriate law 29 enforcement agency.

30 § 6. This act shall take effect immediately; provided that the amend-31 ments to the opening paragraph of subdivision 5 of section 530.12 of the 32 criminal procedure law made by section one of this act shall be subject 33 to the expiration and reversion of such paragraph pursuant to subdivi-34 sion d of section 74 of chapter 3 of the laws of 1995, as amended, when 35 upon such date the provisions of section two of this act shall take 36 effect; and provided further that the amendments to the opening para-37 graph of subdivision 4 of section 530.13 of the criminal procedure law 38 made by section three of this act shall be subject to the expiration and 39 reversion of such paragraph pursuant to subdivision d of section 74 of 40 chapter 3 of the laws of 1995, as amended, when upon such date the 41 provisions of section four of this act shall take effect.
