Section 1. The education law is amended by adding a new section 210-d to read as follows:

§ 210-d. Registration of curricula. Notwithstanding any law, rule or regulation to the contrary, any new curriculum or program of study offered by any not-for-profit college or university chartered by the regents or incorporated by special act of the legislature that does not require a master plan amendment pursuant to section two hundred thirty-seven of this part, or charter amendment pursuant to section two hundred sixteen of this part, or lead to professional licensure; and that is approved by the state university board of trustees, the city university board of trustees, or the trustees or governing body of any other not-for-profit college or university chartered by the regents which (1) has maintained a physical presence in New York state for the immediately preceding ten years and has been operated continuously by the same governing body during the same immediately preceding ten year period and
(2) is accredited and has continued in accreditation by the Middle States Commission on Higher Education ("MSCHE") or the department for the immediately preceding ten years, shall be deemed authorized for temporary operation pending program approval forty-five days after certification by the department of submission of a completed application for program approval. As used in this section, "authorized for temporary operation pending program approval" means a college or university may operate the curriculum or program of study on a contingent basis during the remainder of the department's program review process, including but not limited to accepting admission of students into the program, charging applicable tuition and fees, and providing the educational programing to students. Any college or university operating a program authorized for temporary operation pending program approval must disclose this status and its meaning to potential students in writing. If the academic program being operated on a temporary basis is ultimately disapproved by the department, the college or university operating such program shall immediately cease operation of the program and refund all monies paid by students to attend such programs. If the college or university is placed on probation or has its accreditation terminated by MSCHE, such college or university shall notify the regents in writing no later than thirty days after receiving notice of its probationary status or loss of accreditation by the MSCHE. Any college or university which has its accreditation placed on probation or terminated by the MSCHE or the department shall be subject to the commissioner's program approval and may not operate a curriculum or program of study under the authority of this section until it has been removed from probation or regained accreditation by MSCHE or the department, and shall further remain so restricted until it has continued without probation for a period of not less than six years. If a college or university subject to this section intends to offer or institute an additional degree or program which constitutes a substantive change, as defined and determined by MSCHE, then the college or university shall provide the commissioner with copies of any reports or other documents filed with MSCHE as part of MSCHE's substantive change review process and shall inform the commissioner when the substantive change is approved. Any such college or university that does not satisfy all of the provisions of this section shall comply with the procedures and criteria established by the regents and commissioner for academic program approval. Nothing in this section shall be deemed to limit the department's existing authority to investigate a complaint concerning the institution, or any program offered, including the authority to deregister the program.

§ 2. This act shall take effect July 1, 2022.

PART K

Section 1. Section 1503 of the business corporation law is amended by adding a new paragraph (h) to read as follows:

(h) Any firm established for the business purpose of incorporating as a professional service corporation formed to lawfully engage in the practice of public accountancy, as such practice is respectively defined under article one hundred forty-nine of the education law shall be required to show (1) that a simple majority of the ownership of the firm, in terms of financial interests, and voting rights held by the firm's owners, belongs to individuals licensed to practice public accountancy in some state, and (2) that all shareholders of a professional service corporation whose principal place of business is in this state, hold a valid license issued under section seventy-four hundred four of the education law. For purposes of this paragraph, "financial interest" means capital stock, capital accounts, capital contributions, capital interest, or interest in undistributed earnings of a business entity. Although firms may include non-licensee owners, the firm and its owners must comply with rules promulgated by the state board of regents. Notwithstanding the foregoing, a firm incorporated under this section may not have non-licensee owners if the firm's name includes the words "certified public accountant," or "certified public accountants," or the abbreviations "CPA" or "CPAs". Each non-licensee owner of a firm that is incorporated under this section shall be a natural person who actively participates in the business of the firm or its affiliated entities. For purposes of this paragraph, "actively participate" means to provide services to clients or to otherwise individually take part in the day-to-day business or management of the firm. Such a firm shall have attached to its certificate of incorporation a certificate or certificates demonstrating the firm's compliance with this paragraph, in lieu of the certificate or certificates required by subparagraph (ii) of paragraph (b) of this section.

§ 2. Section 1507 of the business corporation law is amended by adding a new paragraph (c) to read as follows:

(c) Any firm established for the business purpose of incorporating as a professional service corporation pursuant to paragraph (h) of section fifteen hundred three of this article may issue shares to individuals who are authorized by law to practice in this state the profession which such corporation is authorized to practice and who are or have been engaged in the practice of such profession in such corporation or a predecessor entity, or who will engage in the practice of such profession in such corporation within thirty days of the date such shares are issued and may also issue shares to employees of the corporation not licensed as certified public accountants, provided that:

(i) at least fifty-one percent of the outstanding shares of stock of the corporation are owned by certified public accountants,
(ii) at least fifty-one percent of the directors are certified public accountants,
(iii) at least fifty-one percent of the officers are certified public accountants,
(iv) the president, the chairperson of the board of directors and the chief executive officer or officers are certified public accountants.

No shareholder of a firm established for the business purpose of incorporating as a professional service corporation pursuant to paragraph (h) of section fifteen hundred three of this article shall enter into a voting trust agreement, proxy or any other type of agreement vesting in another person, other than another shareholder of the same corporation, the authority to exercise voting power of any or all of his or her shares. All shares issued, agreements made or proxies granted in violation of this section shall be void.

(c) The directors and officers of any firm established for the business purpose of incorporating as a professional service corporation pursuant to paragraph (h) of section fifteen hundred three of this article may include individuals who are not licensed to practice public accountancy, provided however that at least fifty-one percent of the directors, at least fifty-one percent of the officers and the president, the chairperson of the board of directors and the chief executive officer or officers are authorized by law to practice in any state the profession which such corporation is authorized to practice, and are either shareholders of such corporation or engaged in the practice of their professions in such corporation.

§ 4. Section 1509 of the business corporation law, as amended by chapter 550 of the laws of 2011, is amended to read as follows:

§ 1509. Disqualification of shareholders, directors, officers and employees.

If any shareholder, director, officer or employee of a professional service corporation, including a design professional service corporation, who has been rendering professional service to the public becomes legally disqualified to practice his or her profession within this state, he or she shall sever all employment with, and financial interests (other than interests as a creditor) in, such corporation forthwith or as otherwise provided in section 1510 of this article. All provisions of law regulating the rendering of professional services by a person elected or appointed to a public office shall be applicable to a shareholder, director, officer and employee of such corporation in the same manner and to the same extent as if fully set forth herein. Such legal disqualification to practice his or her profession within this state shall be deemed to constitute an irrevocable offer by the disqualified shareholder to sell his or her shares to the corporation, pursuant to the provisions of section 1510 of this article or of the certificate of incorporation, by-laws or agreement among the corporation and all shareholders, whichever is applicable. Compliance with the terms of such offer shall be specifically enforceable in the courts of this state. A professional service corporation’s failure to enforce compliance with this provision shall constitute a ground for forfeiture of its certificate of incorporation and its dissolution.

§ 5. Paragraph (a) of section 1511 of the business corporation law, as amended by chapter 550 of the laws of 2011, is amended and a new paragraph (c) is added to read as follows:

(a) No shareholder of a professional service corporation [or], including a design professional service corporation, may sell or transfer his or her shares in such corporation except to another individual who is eligible to have shares issued to him or her by such corporation or except in trust to another individual who would be eligible to receive shares if he or she were employed by the corporation. Nothing herein contained shall be construed to prohibit the transfer of shares by operation of law or by court decree. No transferee of shares by operation of law or court decree may vote the shares for any purpose whatsoever except with respect to corporate action under sections 909 and 1001 of this chapter. The restriction in the preceding sentence shall not apply, however, where such transferee would be eligible to have shares issued to him or her if he or she were an employee of the corporation and, if there are other shareholders, a majority of such other shareholders shall fail to redeem the shares so transferred, pursuant to section 1510 of this article, within sixty days of receiving written notice of such transfer. Any sale or transfer, except by operation of law or court decree or except for a corporation having only one shareholder, may be made only after the same shall have been approved by the board of directors, or at a shareholders' meeting specially called for such purpose by such proportion, not less than a majority, of the outstanding shares as may be provided in the certificate of incorporation or in the by-laws of such professional service corporation. At such shareholders' meeting the shares held by the shareholder proposing to sell or transfer his or her shares may not be voted or counted for any purpose, unless all shareholders consent that such shares be voted or counted. The certificate of incorporation or the by-laws of the professional service corporation, or the professional service corporation and the shareholders by private agreement, may provide, in lieu of or in addition to the foregoing provisions, for the alienation of shares and may require the redemption or purchase of such shares by such corporation at prices and in a manner specifically set forth therein. The existence of the restrictions on the sale or transfer of shares, as contained in this article and, if applicable, in the certificate of incorporation, by-laws, stock purchase or stock redemption agreement, shall be noted conspicuously on the face or back of every certificate for shares issued by a professional service corporation. Any sale or transfer in violation of such restrictions shall be void.

(c) A firm established for the business purpose of incorporating as a professional service corporation pursuant to paragraph (h) of section fifteen hundred three of this article, shall purchase or redeem the shares of a non-licensed professional shareholder in the case of his or her termination of employment within thirty days after such termination. A firm established for the business purpose of incorporating as a professional service corporation pursuant to paragraph (h) of section fifteen hundred three of this article, shall not be required to purchase or redeem the shares of a terminated non-licensed professional shareholder if such shares, within thirty days after such termination, are sold or transferred to another employee of the corporation pursuant to this article.

(c) Each firm established for the business purpose of incorporating as a professional service corporation pursuant to paragraph (h) of section fifteen hundred three of this article shall, at least once every three years on or before the date prescribed by the licensing authority, furnish a statement to the licensing authority listing the names and residence addresses of each shareholder, director and officer of such corporation and certify as the date of certification and at all times over the entire three year period that:

(i) at least fifty-one percent of the outstanding shares of stock of the corporation are and were owned by certified public accountants,
(ii) at least fifty-one percent of the directors are and were certified public accountants,
(iii) at least fifty-one percent of the officers are and were certified public accountants,
(iv) the president, the chairperson of the board of directors and the chief executive officer or officers are and were certified public accountants.

The statement shall be signed by the president or any certified public accountant vice-president and attested to by the secretary or any assistant secretary of the corporation.

A social services district shall guarantee child care assistance to families in receipt of public assistance with children under thirteen years of age when such child care assistance is necessary for a parent or caretaker relative to engage in work or participate in work activities pursuant to the provisions of title nine-B of article five of this chapter. Child care assistance shall continue to be guaranteed for such a family for a period of twelve months after the month in which the family's eligibility for public assistance has terminated or ended when such child care is necessary in order to enable the parent or caretaker relative to engage in work, provided that the family's public assistance has been terminated as a result of an increase in the hours of or income from employment or increased income from child support payments or because the family voluntarily ended assistance; that the family received public assistance in at least three of the six months preceding the month in which eligibility for such assistance terminated or ended or provided that such family has received child care assistance under subdivision four of this section; and that the family's income does not exceed two hundred twenty-five percent of the state income standard effective October sixteen, two thousand twenty-two, two hundred sixty percent of the state income standard effective April first, two thousand twenty-three, or three hundred percent of the state income standard.

4 the child and a district shall not move a child from an existing provider unless the participant consents to such move.
4. (a) Local social services districts shall guarantee applicants who 7 would otherwise be eligible for, or are recipients of, public assistance 8 benefits and who are employed, the option to choose to receive continuing child day care subsidies in lieu of public assistance benefits, for 9 such period of time as the recipient continues to be eligible for public assistance. For the purposes of this subdivision, an eligible applicant 10 for, or recipient of, public assistance benefits and who is employed includes a person whose gross earnings equal, or are greater than, the required number of work hours times the state minimum wage. Recipients

PART Q

Section 1. Paragraph (a) of subdivision 3 of section 259-i of the executive law is amended by adding a new subparagraph (ix) to read as follows:

(ix) Notwithstanding any other provisions of this paragraph, an officer who takes into custody pursuant to a warrant authorized by this section a juvenile offender or adolescent offender under the age of twenty-one, or any other defendant under the age of eighteen, shall take such person and have them detained in a place certified by the office of children and family services as a secure or specialized secure detention facility, as appropriate, except that a person paroled, conditionally released, or released to post-release supervision from a secure facility operated by the office of children and family services may also be held in such a facility. If a person sixteen years of age or older and under the age of eighteen who is charged with a class A felony, a violent felony offense, or a felony involving the use or possession of a firearm taken into custody pursuant to this section is unable to be lodged in such a facility, the officer having custody of such person or other appropriate official must petition the sentencing court for approval to lodge the person in a local correctional facility. The court shall hold a hearing at which it determines whether it would be in the interest of justice for the violator to be held in such a facility, considering (A) the age of the alleged violator, (B) the physical and mental maturity of the alleged violator, (C) the present mental state of the alleged violator, including whether the alleged violator presents an imminent risk of harm to self or others, (D) the nature and circumstances of the alleged offense, (E) the alleged violator's history of prior delinquent or criminal acts, (F) the relative ability of the available local correctional and detention facilities to not only meet the specific needs of the alleged violator but also to protect the safety of the public as well as other detained youth, and (G) any other relevant factor. If the court finds that it would be in the interest of justice for the alleged violator to be lodged in a local correctional facility, the court must issue a written order so indicating, and shall hold a hearing at least once every thirty days to determine if such lodging continues to be in the interest of justice. No alleged violator to whom the provisions of this subparagraph apply may be detained in a local correctional facility for longer than one hundred eighty days unless the violator waives such limitation or the court finds good cause for such continued detention. No alleged violator under the age of eighteen to whom the provisions of this section apply may have sight or sound contact with adults incarcерated in the local correctional facility. No alleged violator over the age of eighteen shall be permitted to have sight or sound contact with an incarcerated adult without a hearing as set forth in this subparagraph. Nothing in this subparagraph shall be construed to permit the solitary confinement, disciplinary isolation, or punitive segregation of such alleged violator. The hearing provided for by this subdivision is not required for youth to be detained in an adult jail or lockup, with sight and sound separation from adult inmates, when the youth is detained in an adult jail or lockup for a period not to exceed six hours for processing or release, while awaiting transfer to a juvenile facility, or while awaiting a court appearance; or the youth is awaiting an initial court appearance that will occur within forty-eight hours of being taken into custody (excluding Saturdays, Sundays, and legal holidays) and either conditions of distance to be traveled or the lack of highway, road, or transportation do not allow for court appearances within forty-eight hours (excluding Saturdays, Sundays, and legal holidays) so that a delay, not to exceed an additional forty-eight hours, is excusable, or conditions of safety exist (such as severe, adverse, life-threatening weather) that do not allow for reasonably safe travel, in which case the time for an appearance may be delayed until twenty-four hours after the time that such conditions allow for reasonably safe travel.

§ 2. Subdivisions 3, 4 and 5 of section 508 of the executive law, subdivision 3 as amended by section 82 of part WWW of chapter 59 of the laws of 2017 and subdivisions 4 and 5 as amended by section 97 of subpart B of part C of chapter 62 of the laws of 2011, are amended to read as follows:

3. The office of children and family services shall report in writing to the sentencing court and district attorney, not less than once every six months during the period of confinement, on the status, adjustment, programs and progress of the offender.

4. The office of children and family services may apply to the sentencing court for permission to transfer a youth not less than sixteen nor more than twenty-one years of age to the department of corrections and community supervision if the commissioner of the office certifies to the commissioner of corrections and community supervision that there is no substantial likelihood that the youth will benefit from the programs offered by office facilities.

5. The office of children and family services may transfer an offender not less than eighteen nor more than twenty-one years of age to the department of corrections and community supervision if the commissioner of the office certifies to the commissioner of corrections and community supervision that there is no substantial likelihood that the youth will benefit from the programs offered by office facilities. (a) Upon receiving an application pursuant to subdivision four of this section, the court shall hold a hearing to determine whether it would be in the interest of justice for the youth to be transferred to the custody of the department of corrections and community supervision.
(b) If the court finds that it would be in the interest of justice for the youth to be transferred to the custody of the department of corrections and community supervision, the court shall issue a written order so stating and transferring the youth.

§ 3. Section 210.10 of the criminal procedure law is amended by adding a new subdivision 7 to read as follows:

7. Notwithstanding the provisions of subdivisions two, three, or six of this section, when a police officer takes into custody pursuant to a warrant issued by the superior court a defendant alleged to be a juvenile offender or adolescent offender under the age of twenty-one, or any other defendant under the age of eighteen, if a court in which the warrant is returnable is not available, the executing or delegating officer shall not bring the defendant to the local correctional facility of the county in which such court sits and shall bring the defendant before the accessible magistrate, if any, designated by the appellate division of the supreme court in the applicable department. If such accessible magistrate is not available, the officer shall take to and lodge the defendant in a place certified by the office of children and family services as a secure or specialized secure detention facility.

§ 4. Subdivision 1 of section 510.15 of the criminal procedure law, as amended by chapter 813 of the laws of 2021, is amended and a new subdivision 3 is added to read as follows:

1. When a principal who is under the age of sixteen is committed to the custody of the sheriff the court must direct that the principal be taken to and lodged in a place certified by the office of children and family services as a juvenile detention facility for the reception of children. When a principal who (a) commencing October first, two thousand eighteen, is sixteen years of age; or (b) commencing October first, two thousand nineteen, is sixteen or seventeen years of age, is committed to the custody of the sheriff, the court must direct that the principal be taken to and lodged in a place certified by the office of children and family services in conjunction with the state commission of correction as a specialized secure juvenile detention facility for older youth. Where such a direction is made the sheriff shall deliver the principal in accordance therewith and such person shall although lodged and cared for in a juvenile detention facility continue to be deemed to be in the custody of the sheriff. No principal [under the age specified] to whom the provisions of this section may apply shall be detained in any prison, jail, lockup, or other place used for adults convicted of a crime or under arrest and charged with the commission of a crime [without the approval of the office of children and family services which shall consult with the commission of correction if the principal is sixteen years of age or older in the case of each principal and the statement of its reasons therefor] except as provided in subdivision three of this section; nor shall a principal under the age specified who is charged solely with a violation as defined in subdivision three of section 10.00 of the penal law be subject to detention. The sheriff shall not be liable for any acts done to or by such principal resulting from negligence in the detention of and care for such principal, when the principal is not in the actual custody of the sheriff.

3. (a) When a principal sixteen years of age or older charged with a class A felony, a violent felony offense, or a felony involving the use or possession of a firearm who is committed to the custody of the sheriff pursuant to this section is unable to be lodged in a detention facility because (1) the principal has committed violent acts while lodged in a detention facility that make continued lodging in the facility a threat to the safety of the principal or others or to the security of the facility, or (2) a lack of available and accessible detention bed capacity, the district attorney, sheriff or detention administering agency may petition the court for approval to temporarily lodge the principal in a local correctional facility, subject to the limitations set forth in section five hundred-p of the correction law.

(i) If the basis for the request is that the youth committed violent acts while lodged in a detention facility that make their continued lodging in a detention facility an imminent threat to others, or that there are no available detention beds statewide, such an application may be made by order to show cause and the court shall conduct a hearing immediately, subject to continuance where necessary, prior to issuing a securing order.

(ii) In all other instances, a motion for approval of a transfer of a youth to a local correctional facility must be made in writing and served at least eight days before the time at which the motion is noticed to be heard. If the motion is based upon the existence or occurrence of facts, the motion papers must contain sworn allegations thereof. Such sworn allegations may be based upon personal knowledge of the affiant or upon information and belief, provided that in the latter event the affiant must state the sources of such information and the grounds of such belief. The people may further submit documentary evidence supporting or tending to support the allegations of the moving papers. At least two days before the time the motion is noticed to be heard, the youth may file with the court, and in such case must serve a copy thereof upon the people, an answering affidavit denying or admitting any or all of the allegations of the moving papers, and may further submit documentary evidence refuting or tending to refute such allegations.

(iii) The parties shall have the right to present evidence, call witnesses, and request to continue the hearing to complete presentation of evidence.

(iv) The youth has a right to be present in person at such hearing.

(b) Notwithstanding any other provision of law to the contrary, the office of children and family services may, in its sole discretion, make available, upon such terms and conditions as it may deem appropriate, any part of a secure facility operated by the office for the care and maintenance of a principal defined in paragraph (a) of this subdivision, upon request by the sheriff or detention administering agency.

(c) The court shall hold a hearing at which it determines whether it would be in the interest of justice for the principal to be held in the local correctional facility, considering (i) the age of the principal, (ii) the physical and mental maturity of the principal, (iii) the present mental state of the principal, including whether the principal presents an imminent risk of harm to self or others, (iv) the nature and circumstances of the alleged offense, (v) the principal's history of prior delinquent or criminal acts, (vi) the relative ability of the available local correctional and juvenile detention facilities to not only meet the specific needs of the principal but also to protect the safety of the public as well as other detained youth, and (vii) any other relevant factor. The people shall have the burden of establishing that such transfer is in the interest of justice by a preponderance of the evidence.

(d) If the court finds that it would be in the interest of justice for the principal to be lodged in the local correctional facility pursuant to paragraph (c) of this subdivision, the court must issue a written order to that effect, and shall direct the sheriff to deliver the principal to such location.

(e) The court shall hold a hearing at least once every thirty days to determine if the principal's lodging in the local correctional facility continues to be in the interest of justice. No principal to whom the provisions of this section apply shall be detained in a local correctional facility for longer than one hundred eighty days unless the principal waives such limitation or the court finds good cause for such continued detention. No principal under the age of eighteen to whom the provisions of this section apply shall have sight or sound contact with adults incarcerated in the local correctional facility. No principal over the age of eighteen shall be permitted to have sight or sound contact with an incarcerated adult without a hearing as set forth in this subdivision. Nothing in this paragraph shall be construed to permit the solitary confinement, disciplinary isolation, or punitive segregation of such principal. During any period in which a principal to whom the provisions of this section applies is lodged in a local correctional facility, the detention administering agency shall remain responsible for assessing the health and wellbeing of the principal, consistent with regulations promulgated by the office of children and family services.

(f) For any principal for whom a temporary jail placement has been approved under this subdivision, the detention-administering agency shall actively seek appropriate and available detention options. If the request was based on a lack of detention bed capacity, the detention administering agency or the office of children and family services shall inform the court upon bed capacity becoming available. Upon such notice, the court shall rescind the order approving transfer of the principal to the jail and issue an order directing the sheriff to transport the principal to a juvenile facility forthwith.

(g) The hearing provided for by this subdivision is not required for youth to be detained in an adult jail or lockup, with sight and sound separation from incarcerated adults, when:

(i) The youth is detained in an adult jail or lockup for a period not to exceed six hours for: processing or release, while awaiting transfer to a juvenile facility, or while awaiting a court appearance; or

(ii) The youth is awaiting an initial court appearance that will occur within forty-eight hours after being taken into custody (excluding Saturdays, Sundays, and legal holidays) and either: conditions of distance to be traveled or the lack of highway, road, or transportation do not allow for court appearances within forty-eight hours (excluding Saturdays, Sundays, and legal holidays) so that a brief (not to exceed an additional forty-eight hours) delay is excusable; or conditions of safety exist (such as severe, adverse, life threatening weather conditions) that do not allow for reasonably safe travel, in which case the time for an appearance may be delayed until twenty-four hours after the time that such conditions allow for reasonably safe travel.

§ 5. This act shall take effect immediately.

PART V

Section 1. The labor law is amended by adding a new section 202-m to median wage in New York state as determined and published on the department's website by the commissioner on or before the first of June of each year.

(b) "Prospective covered employee" shall mean an applicant or job candidate for employment for a job earning less than the median wage in New York state as determined and published by the commissioner.

(c) "Non-compete agreement" shall mean an agreement or contract that prohibits, discourages, or otherwise restricts an employee from obtaining employment in any specified geographic area, for a specific period of time, or with any particular employer or in any particular industry.

(d) "Employee" means any person employed for hire by an employer in any employment.

(e) "Employer" includes any person, corporation, limited liability company, or association employing any individual in any occupation, industry, trade, business or service. The term "employer" shall not include a governmental agency.

2. Prohibited non-compete agreements. No employer shall seek, demand, require, or accept a non-compete agreement with a covered employee or a prospective covered employee.

3. Limitations on permissible non-compete agreements. For all employees other than covered employees, no employer shall seek, require, demand or accept a non-compete agreement from any employee unless the non-compete agreement meets the following requirements:

(a) be strictly limited to be no more expansive than as required for the protection of the legitimate interest of the employer;
(b) not impose undue hardship on the employee;
(c) not be injurious to the public;
(d) be disclosed in a written offer of employment or in a written offer of a promotion at least ten days before the effective date of such employment or promotion;
(e) be written in the primary language identified by the employee; law with respect to a controversy arising in the state of New York.

4. This section shall not apply to:

(a) the enforcement of covenants not to disclose trade secrets;
(b) employees covered under section two hundred two-k of this article; and
(c) agreements between bona fide owners or partners of a business.

5. Upon the request of the commissioner or his or her designee, any contract or agreement described in this section shall be open for inspection and copies of which shall be provided by the employer to the commissioner promptly upon such request.

6. Any person who violates this section shall be civilly liable to a covered employee for damages, attorney's fees, and costs. Any provision of a contract that violates subdivision one, two, or three of this section shall be voidable by the employee, and if a provision is rendered void at the request of the employee, any matters arising there-from shall be adjudicated in the state of New York and New York law shall govern the dispute.

§ 2. The opening paragraph of subdivision 1 of section 218 of the labor law, as amended by chapter 2 of the laws of 2015, is amended to read as follows:

If the commissioner determines that an employer has violated a provision of article six (payment of wages), article nineteen (minimum wage act), article nineteen-A (minimum wage standards and protective labor practices for farm workers), section two hundred two-m (restrictions on employment), section two hundred twelve-a, section two hundred twelve-b, section one hundred sixty-one (day of rest) or section one hundred sixty-two (meal periods) of this chapter, or a rule or regulation promulgated thereunder, the commissioner shall issue to the employer an order directing compliance therewith, which shall describe particularly the nature of the alleged violation. A copy of such order shall be provided to any employee who has filed a complaint and any authorized representative of him or her. In addition to directing payment of wages, benefits or wage supplements found to be due, and liquidated damages in the amount of one hundred percent of unpaid wages, such order, if issued to an employer who previously has been found in violation of those provisions, rules or regulations, or to an employer whose violation is willful or egregious, shall direct payment to the commissioner of an additional sum as a civil penalty in an amount not to exceed double the total amount of wages, benefits, or wage supplements found to be due. In no case shall the order direct payment of an amount less than the total wages, benefits or wage supplements found by the commissioner to be due, plus the liquidated damages in the amount of one hundred percent of unpaid wages, the appropriate civil penalty, and interest at the rate of interest then in effect, as prescribed by the superintendent of financial services pursuant to section fourteen-a of the banking law per annum from the date of the underpayment to the date of the payment. Where the violation is for a reason other than the employer's failure to pay wages, benefits or wage supplements found to be due, the order shall direct payment to the commissioner of a civil penalty in an amount not to exceed one thousand dollars for a first violation, two thousand dollars for a second violation or three thousand dollars for a third or subsequent violation. In assessing the amount of the penalty, the commissioner shall give due consideration to the size of the employer's business, the good faith basis of the employer to believe that its conduct was in compliance with the law, the gravity of the violation, the history of previous violations and, in the case of wages, benefits or supplements violations, the failure to comply with recordkeeping or other non-wage requirements.
§ 3. Subdivision 1 of section 219 of the labor law, as amended by chapter 564 of the laws of 2010, the opening paragraph as further amended by part A of section 104 of chapter 62 of the laws of 2011, is amended to read as follows:

1. If the commissioner determines that an employer has failed to pay wages, benefits or wage supplements required pursuant to article six (payment of wages), section two hundred two-m (restrictions on employment), article nineteen (minimum wage act) or article nineteen-A (minimum wage standards and protective labor practices for farm workers) of this chapter, or a rule or regulation promulgated thereunder, the commissioner shall issue to the employer an order directing compliance therewith, which shall describe particularly the nature of the alleged violation. A copy of such order shall be provided to any employee who has filed a complaint and to his or her authorized representative. Such order shall direct payment of wages or supplements found to be due, liquidated damages in the amount of one hundred percent of unpaid wages, and interest at the rate of interest then in effect as prescribed by the superintendent of financial services pursuant to section fourteen-a of the banking law per annum from the date of the underpayment to the date of the payment.

At the discretion of the commissioner, the commissioner shall have full authority to provide for inclusion of an automatic fifteen percent additional amount of damages to come due and owing upon expiration of ninety days from an order to comply becoming final. The commissioner shall provide written notice to the employer in the order to comply of this additional damage.

§ 4. Section 340 of the general business law is amended by adding a new subdivision 7 to read as follows:

7. No employer shall enter into a restrictive employment agreement that prohibits or restricts any employer's ability to solicit or hire another employer's current or former employees. It shall be unlawful for any entity to enter into such a restrictive employment agreement or to enforce or threaten to enforce such a restrictive employment agreement. For purposes of this subdivision, the terms "employer" and "employee" shall have the same meanings as defined pursuant to section two of the labor law.

§ 5. Severability clause. If any clause, sentence, paragraph, subdivision, section or part of this act shall be adjudged by any court of competent jurisdiction to be invalid, such judgment shall not affect, impair, or invalidate the remainder thereof, but shall be confined in its operation to the clause, sentence, paragraph, subdivision, section or part thereof directly involved in the controversy in which such judgment shall have been rendered. It is hereby declared to be the intent of the legislature that this act would have been enacted even if such invalid provisions had not been included herein.

§ 6. This act shall take effect on the one hundred eightieth day after it shall have become a law.

PART W

Section 1. Subdivision 1 of section 198-a of the labor law, as amended by chapter 564 of the laws of 2010, is amended to read as follows:

1. Every employer who does not pay the wages of all of his employees in accordance with the provisions of this chapter, and the officers and agents of any corporation, partnership, or limited liability company who knowingly permit the corporation, partnership, or limited liability company to violate this chapter by failing to pay the wages of any of its employees in accordance with the provisions thereof, shall be guilty of a misdemeanor for the first offense and upon conviction therefor shall be fined not less than five hundred nor more than twenty thousand dollars or imprisoned for not more than one year, and, in the event that any second or subsequent offense occurs within six years of the date of conviction for a prior offense, shall be guilty of a felony for the second or subsequent offense, and upon conviction therefor, shall be fined not less than five hundred nor more than twenty thousand dollars or imprisoned for not more than one year plus one day, or punished by both such fine and imprisonment, for each such offense. An indictment of a person or corporation operating a steam surface railroad for an offense specified in this section may be found and tried in any county within the state in which such railroad ran at the time of such more than one employee; of a class E felony for failure to pay a single employee greater than one thousand dollars or greater than twenty-five thousand dollars to more than one employee; of a class D felony for employee. Further, a court may order restitution of wages in the amount of the underpayment and together with such amounts provided for by section two hundred eighteen of this chapter.

§ 2. Section 213 of the labor law, as amended by chapter 729 of the laws of 1980, is amended to read as follows: § 213. Violations of provisions of labor law; the rules, regulations or orders of the [industrial] commissioner and the [industrial] board [of appeals]. Any person who violates or does not comply with any provision of the labor law, any rule, regulation or lawful order of the [industrial] commissioner or the [industrial] board [of appeals], and the officers and agents of any corporation who knowingly permit the corporation to violate such provisions, are guilty of a class A misdemeanor and upon conviction shall be punished, [except as in this chapter or in the penal law otherwise provided, for a first offense by a fine of not more than one hundred dollars, provided, however, that if the first offense is a violation of a rule or provision for the protection of the safety or health of employees or persons lawfully frequenting a place to which this chapter applies, the punishment shall be a fine of not more than one hundred dollars or by imprisonment for not more than fifteen days or by both such fine and imprisonment;] in accordance with the penal law and, for a second [offense by a fine of not less than one hundred nor more than five hundred dollars, or by imprisonment for not more than thirty days or by both such fine and imprisonment; for a second offense by a fine of not less than three hundred dollars, or by imprisonment for not more than sixty days, or by both such fine and upon conviction shall be punished in accordance with the penal law. This section shall not apply to any person covered by section twenty-seven-a of this chapter.

§ 3. This act shall take effect immediately.
Section 1. Subdivision 1 of section 296 of the executive law, as amended by chapter 365 of the laws of 2015, paragraphs (a), (b), (c) and (d) as amended by chapter 8 of the laws of 2019, paragraph (h) as amended by chapter 161 of the laws of 2019, paragraph (a) as separately amended by chapter 176 of the laws of 2019, is amended to read as follows:

1. It shall be an unlawful discriminatory practice:

(a) For an employer or licensing agency, because of an individual's age, race, creed, color, national origin, sexual orientation, gender identity or expression, military status, sex, disability, predisposing genetic characteristics, familial status, marital status, or status as a victim of domestic violence, to refuse to hire or employ or to bar or to discharge from employment such individual or to discriminate against such individual in compensation or in terms, conditions or privileges of employment.

(c) For a labor organization, because of the age, race, creed, color, national origin, sexual orientation, gender identity or expression, military status, sex, disability, predisposing genetic characteristics, familial status, marital status, or status as a victim of domestic violence, to exclude or to expel from its membership such individual or to discriminate in any way against any of its members or against any employer or any individual employed by an employer.

(d) For any employer or employment agency to print or circulate or cause to be printed or circulated any statement, advertisement or publication, or to use any form of application for employment or to make any inquiry in connection with prospective employment, which expresses directly or indirectly, any limitation, specification or discrimination as to age, race, creed, color, national origin, sexual orientation, gender identity or expression, military status, sex, disability, predisposing genetic characteristics, familial status, marital status, or status as a victim of domestic violence, or any intent to make any such limitation, specification or discrimination, unless based upon a bona fide occupational qualification; provided, however, that neither this paragraph nor any provision of this chapter or other law shall be construed to prohibit the department of civil service or the department of personnel of any city containing more than one county from requesting information from applicants for civil service examinations concerning any of the aforementioned characteristics, other than sexual orientation, for the purpose of conducting studies to identify and resolve possible problems in recruitment and testing of members of minority groups to insure the fairest possible and equal opportunities for employment in the civil service for all persons, regardless of age, race, creed, color, national origin, sexual orientation or gender identity or expression, military status, sex, disability, predisposing genetic characteristics, familial status, or marital status.

(e) For any employer, labor organization or employment agency to discharge, expel or otherwise discriminate against any person because he or she has opposed any practices forbidden under this article or because he or she has filed a complaint, testified or assisted in any proceeding under this article.
(f) Nothing in this subdivision shall affect any restrictions upon the activities of persons licensed by the state liquor authority with respect to persons under twenty-one years of age.
(g) For an employer to compel an employee who is pregnant to take a leave of absence, unless the employee is prevented by such pregnancy from performing the activities involved in the job or occupation in a reasonable manner.
(h) For an employer, licensing agency, employment agency or labor organization to subject any individual to harassment because of an individual's age, race, creed, color, national origin, sexual orientation, gender identity or expression, military status, sex, disability, predisposing genetic characteristics, familial status, marital status, status as a victim of domestic violence [victim status], or because the individual has opposed any practices forbidden under this article or because the individual has filed a complaint, testified or assisted in any proceeding under this article, regardless of whether such harassment would be considered severe or pervasive under precedent applied to harassment claims. Such harassment is an unlawful discriminatory practice when it subjects an individual to inferior terms, conditions or privileges of employment because of the individual's membership in one or more of these protected categories. The fact that such individual did not make a complaint about the harassment to such employer, licensing agency, employment agency or labor organization shall not be determinative of whether such employer, licensing agency, employment agency or labor organization shall be liable. Nothing in this section shall imply that an employee must demonstrate the existence of an individual to whom the employee's treatment must be compared. It shall be an affirmative defense to liability under this subdivision that the harassing conduct does not rise above the level of what a reasonable victim of discrimination with the same protected characteristic or characteristics would consider petty slights or trivial inconveniences.
§ 2. Subdivision 1-a of section 296 of the executive law, as amended by chapter 365 of the laws of 2015, paragraphs (b), (c) and (d) as amended by chapter 8 of the laws of 2019, is amended to read as follows: 1-a. It shall be an unlawful discriminatory practice for an employer, labor organization, employment agency or any joint labor-management committee controlling apprentice training programs:
(a) To select persons for an apprentice training program registered with the state of New York on any basis other than their qualifications, as determined by objective criteria which permit review;
(b) To deny to or withhold from any person because of race, creed, color, national origin, sexual orientation, gender identity or expression, military status, sex, age, disability, familial status, [or] marital status, or status as a victim of domestic violence, the right to be admitted to or participate in a guidance program, an apprenticeship training program, on-the-job training program, executive training program, or other occupational training or retraining program;
(c) To discriminate against any person in his or her pursuit of such programs or to discriminate against such a person in the terms, conditions or privileges of such programs because of race, creed, color, national origin, sexual orientation, gender identity or expression, military status, sex, age, disability, familial status, marital status, or status as a victim of domestic violence;
(d) To print or circulate or cause to be printed or circulated any statement, advertisement or publication, or to use any form of application for such programs or to make any inquiry in connection with such program which expresses, directly or indirectly, any limitation, specification or discrimination as to race, creed, color, national origin, sexual orientation, gender identity or expression, military status, sex, age, disability, familial status, marital status, or status as a victim of domestic violence, or any intention to make any such limitation, specification or discrimination, unless based on a bona fide occupational qualification.

(a) It shall be an unlawful discriminatory practice for any person, being the owner, lessee, proprietor, manager, superintendent, agent or employee of any place of public accommodation, resort or amusement, because of the race, creed, color, national origin, sexual orientation, gender identity or expression, military status, sex, disability, marital status, or status as a victim of domestic violence, of any person, directly or indirectly, to refuse, withhold from or deny to such person any of the accommodations, advantages, facilities or privileges thereof, including the extension of credit, or, directly or indirectly, to publish, circulate, issue, display, post or mail any written or printed communication, notice or advertisement, to the effect that any of the accommodations, advantages, facilities and privileges of any such place shall be refused, withheld from or denied to any person on account of race, creed, color, national origin, sexual orientation, gender identity or expression, military status, sex, marital status, or having a disability is unwelcome, objectionable or not acceptable, desired or solicited.

tions, such as requiring co-obligors or reapplication upon marriage, are imposed upon an applicant or class of applicants in circumstances where similar requirements or conditions are not imposed upon other applicants of like overall credit worthiness.

3. It shall not be considered discriminatory if credit differentiations or decisions are based upon factually supportable, objective differences in applicants' overall credit worthiness, which may include reference to such factors as current income, assets and prior credit history of such applicants, as well as reference to any other relevant factually supportable data; provided, however, that no creditor shall consider, in evaluating the credit worthiness of an applicant, aggregate statistics or assumptions relating to race, creed, color, national origin, sexual orientation, gender identity or expression, military

41. The term "citizenship or immigration status" means the citizenship of any person or the immigration status of any person who is not a citizen of the United States. Nothing in this article shall preclude verification of citizenship or immigration status where required by law, nor shall an adverse action based on verification of citizenship or immigration status be prohibited where such adverse action is required by law.

§ 2. Subdivision 1 of section 296 of the executive law, as amended by chapter 365 of the laws of 2015, paragraph (a) as separately amended by chapters 8 and 176 of the laws of 2019, paragraphs (b), (c) and (d) as amended by chapter 8 of the laws of 2019 and paragraph (h) as amended by chapter 161 of the laws of 2019, is amended to read as follows:

1. It shall be an unlawful discriminatory practice:
   (a) For an employer or licensing agency, because of an individual's age, race, creed, color, national origin, citizenship or immigration status, sexual orientation, gender identity or expression, military status, sex, disability, predisposing genetic characteristics, familial status, marital status, or status as a victim of domestic violence, to refuse to hire or employ or to bar or to discharge from employment such individual or to discriminate against such individual in compensation or in terms, conditions or privileges of employment.
   (c) For a labor organization, because of the age, race, creed, color, national origin, citizenship or immigration status, sexual orientation, gender identity or expression, military status, sex, disability, predisposing genetic characteristics, familial status, or marital status of any individual, to exclude or to expel from its membership such individual or to discriminate in any way against any of its members or against any employer or any individual employed by an employer.
   (d) For any employer or employment agency to print or circulate or cause to be printed or circulated any statement, advertisement or publication, or to use any form of application for employment or to make any inquiry in connection with prospective employment, which expresses directly or indirectly, any limitation, specification or discrimination as to age, race, creed, color, national origin, citizenship or immigration status, sexual orientation, gender identity or expression, military status, sex, disability, predisposing genetic characteristics, familial status, or marital status, or any intent to make any such limitation, specification or discrimination, unless based upon a bona fide occupational qualification; provided, however, that neither this paragraph nor any provision of this chapter or other law shall be construed to prohibit the department of civil service or the department of personnel of any city containing more than one county from requesting information from applicants for civil service examinations concerning any of the aforementioned characteristics, other than sexual orientation, for the purpose of conducting studies to identify and resolve possible problems in recruitment and testing of members of minority groups to insur
the fairest possible and equal opportunities for employment in the civil service for all persons, regardless of age, race, creed, color, national origin, citizenship or immigration status, sexual orientation or gender identity or expression, military status, sex, disability, predisposing genetic characteristics, familial status, or marital status.

(e) For any employer, labor organization or employment agency to discharge, expel or otherwise discriminate against any person because he or she has opposed any practices forbidden under this article or because he or she has filed a complaint, testified or assisted in any proceeding under this article.

(f) Nothing in this subdivision shall affect any restrictions upon the activities of persons licensed by the state liquor authority with respect to persons under twenty-one years of age.

(g) For an employer to compel an employee who is pregnant to take a leave of absence, unless the employee is prevented by such pregnancy from performing the activities involved in the job or occupation in a reasonable manner.

(h) For an employer, licensing agency, employment agency or labor organization to subject any individual to harassment because of an individual's age, race, creed, color, national origin, citizenship or immigration status, sexual orientation, gender identity or expression, military status, sex, disability, predisposing genetic characteristics, familial status, marital status, domestic violence victim status, or because the individual has opposed any practices forbidden under this article or because the individual has filed a complaint, testified or assisted in any proceeding under this article, regardless of whether such harassment would be considered severe or pervasive under precedent applied to harassment claims. Such harassment is an unlawful discriminatory practice when it subjects an individual to inferior terms, conditions or privileges of employment because of the individual's membership in one or more of these protected categories. The fact that such individual did not make a complaint about the harassment to such employer, licensing agency, employment agency or labor organization shall not be determinative of whether such employer, licensing agency, employment agency or labor organization shall be liable. Nothing in this section shall imply that an employee must demonstrate the existence of an individual to whom the employee's treatment must be compared. It shall be an affirmative defense to liability under this subdivision that the harassing conduct does not rise above the level of what a reasonable victim of discrimination with the same protected characteristic or characteristics would consider petty slights or trivial inconveniences.

§ 3. Subdivision 1-a of section 296 of the executive law, as amended by chapter 365 of the laws of 2015, paragraphs (b), (c) and (d) as amended by chapter 8 of the laws of 2019, is amended to read as follows:

(d) To print or circulate or cause to be printed or circulated any statement, advertisement or publication, or to use any form of application for such programs or to make any inquiry in connection with such program which expresses, directly or indirectly, any limitation, specification or discrimination as to race, creed, color, national origin, citizenship or immigration status, sexual orientation, gender identity or expression, military status, sex, age, disability, familial status or marital status, or any intention to make any such limitation, specification or discrimination, unless based on a bona fide occupational qualification.

The fiscal officer shall expeditiously conduct an investigation and hearing at the New York city office of administrative trials and hearings, shall determine the issues raised thereon and shall make and file an order in his or her office stating such determination and forthwith serve a copy of such order, either personally or by mail, together with notice of filing, upon the parties to such proceedings. The fiscal officer in such an investigation shall be deemed to be acting in a judicial capacity and shall have the right to issue subpoenas, administer oaths and examine witnesses. The enforcement of a subpoena issued under this paragraph shall be regulated by the civil practice law and rules.
