STATE OF NEW YORK

8084

IN SENATE

January 25, 2022

Introduced by Sens. HINCHEY, KRUEGER -- read twice and ordered printed, and when printed to be committed to the Committee on Agriculture

AN ACT to amend the agriculture and markets law and the cannabis law, in relation to providing a conditional adult-use cultivator license and a conditional adult-use processor license

The People of the State of New York, represented in Senate and Assembly, do enact as follows:

- Section 1. Section 520 of the agriculture and markets law is amended 2 by adding a new subdivision 3 to read as follows:
- 3. The department shall collaborate and confer with the office of 4 cannabis management, including sharing any relevant documentation, regarding the establishment by the cannabis control board of conditional 6 adult-use cannabis cultivator licenses for previously authorized hemp growers, including but not limited to any terms imposed on such hemp growers as a condition of receiving such a conditional adult-use cannabis cultivator license.
- 10 § 2. The cannabis law is amended by adding a new section 68-c to read 11 as follows:
- 12 § 68-c. Conditional adult-use cultivator license. 1. A conditional adult-use cultivator license shall be subject to the same authorizations 13 14 and restrictions applied to any adult-use cultivator pursuant to section 15 sixty-eight of this article for the duration of the conditional period of the license, as well as to any new terms and conditions imposed by 16 the board and office. 17
- 2. To be eligible to apply for a conditional adult-use cultivator 18 19 license, a cultivator must:
- 20 (a) have held a valid industrial hemp grower authorization from the 21 department of agriculture and markets, as of December thirty-first, two thousand twenty-one, which authorized the growing of cannabinoid hemp, 23 and is in good standing with the department of agriculture and markets;
- (b) have grown and harvested hemp for at least two of the past four 24 25 years pursuant to that license and be able to provide proof, as defined 26 by the office, of the amount of hemp planted by the applicant during

27 each of the two years that hemp was grown; and

(c) as an individual applicant have an ownership interest of fifty-one percent or more, or as any other applicant have an ownership interest of fifty-one percent or more of the entity that is the licensee.

- 3. A conditional adult-use cultivator license shall authorize the cultivation of cannabis outdoors or in a greenhouse without the use of artificial lighting in the canopy area at any point in time. Artificial lighting is permissible only to maintain immature or vegetative mother plants. A conditional adult-use cultivator licensee may cultivate up to forty-three thousand five hundred sixty square feet of canopy outdoors or twenty-five thousand square feet of canopy in a greenhouse. A cultivator may cultivate both outdoors and in a greenhouse provided the canopy in a greenhouse is less than twenty-thousand square feet and the total canopy is equal to or less than thirty-thousand square feet.
- 4. A conditional adult-use cultivator licensee must comply with any environmental standards and requirements mandated by the office.
- 5. The cultivation of cannabis shall only be permitted within the same or an adjacent county in which the conditional adult-use cultivator licensee had previously been authorized by the department of agriculture and markets to grow hemp.
- 6. A conditional adult-use cultivator licensee shall have the authority to manufacture and distribute cannabis products provided that such final products shall be in the form of cannabis flower without holding an adult-use processor or distributor license established pursuant to sections sixty-nine and seventy-one of this article, until June first, two thousand twenty-three, provided that the licensee complies with all requirements for the manufacture and distribution of cannabis products as set out in by the board in regulations or in the terms and conditions of the conditional license. Following June first, two thousand twenty-three, any conditional adult-use cultivator seeking to manufacture and distribute cannabis products shall be required to apply for and receive a processor and distributor license to conduct this activity.
- 7. For the duration of the conditional period of the conditional adult-use cultivator license, the ownership or organizational structure of the entity that is the licensee shall not be amended, except pursuant to the provisions of subdivisions two, three and four of section sixtyseven of this article.
  - 8. The office shall set out specific terms and conditions setting out requirements necessary to be awarded and maintain a conditional adultuse cultivator license, including but not limited to the requirement that a licensee agrees to participate in a social equity mentorship program and an environmental sustainability program.
  - 9. The board shall establish a non-refundable application and license fee, in a manner consistent with section sixty-three of this article, for the conditional adult-use cultivator license. The license shall be valid for up to two years from the date of issuance of the license.
  - 10. A conditional adult-use cultivator license shall be deemed to have been surrendered to the board and a conditional adult-use cultivator licensee shall be deemed not to be in good standing, as determined in the discretion of the executive director in a written notice, effective upon delivery to the licensee at the licensee's last known address on file with the office, for reasons including but not limited to:
- 52 (a) failure to abide by all the terms and conditions of the condi-
  53 tional adult-use cultivator license;
- 54 (b) failure to adhere to all requirements set out in regulations and
  55 guidance, including those promulgated after receiving the conditional
  56 adult-use cultivator license;

- (c) failure to submit information, records, or reports;
- (d) failure to correct deficiencies in accordance with an approved corrective action plan;
- (e) deviation from regulations, licensing terms, or standard operating procedures in a manner that the office determines may jeopardize health or safety of the public, or the quality of products grown or produced;
- (f) failure to provide office employees with access to the premises; and
- 9 (g) failure to begin operations within six months of the date of the 10 issuance of the license.
- 11 11. A licensee whose conditional adult-use cultivator license has been 12 deemed surrendered may within ten days of the delivery date of such notice appeal the determination of the executive director to the board 13 14 pursuant to subdivision eighteen of section ten of this chapter. The 15 board shall have sole discretion to determine the conduct of the appeal. Upon review by the board, the board shall issue a final written determi-16 17 nation which may then be reviewed pursuant to section one hundred thirty-five of this chapter and article seventy-eight of the civil practice 18 19 law and rules.
- 20 12. In the event that a conditional adult-use cultivator licensee 21 elects to cease operation of all permitted activities or to surrender 22 its license, the following provisions shall apply:
- 23 (a) the conditional adult-use cultivator licensee shall notify the 24 office in writing at least thirty days prior to the anticipated date of 25 closure;
  - (b) such written notice shall include a proposed plan for closure. The plan shall be subject to office approval and shall include timetables and describe the procedures and actions the licensee shall take to properly destroy or otherwise dispose of all the licensee's supply of cannabis and/or cannabis products; and
- 31 (c) the licensee or former licensee must maintain and make available 32 to the office all records related to the cultivation of cannabis for a 33 period of three years.
  - 13. No later than ninety days before the expiration of a conditional adult-use cultivator license, the office shall review the conditional adult-use cultivator licensee to determine whether they are in good standing with the office. Good standing shall include, but not be limited to, compliance with subdivision seven of this section. Any licensee found to be in good standing shall be eligible to apply for and receive an adult-use cultivation license, provided the licensee can meet all requirements of the new license. Such a licensee will receive an adult-use cultivator license for the size of canopy that they were licensed to grow pursuant to their conditional adult-use cultivator license or a larger size canopy as may be set out by the board in regulation. A licensee may not separately apply for any license type under this article permitting the cultivation of adult-use cannabis while holding a conditional adult-use cultivator license.
- 48 14. For the purposes of this section, the office has the authority to 49 define terms including but not limited to "greenhouse", "immature plant"
  50 and "canopy" as part of the terms and conditions of the conditional 51 adult-use cultivator license.
- 52 15. Nothing herein shall limit the authority, power, or other rights 53 or remedies of the board or office.
  - § 3. Section 69 of the cannabis law is amended to read as follows:
- 55 § 69. Adult-use processor license. 1. A processor's license shall 56 authorize the acquisition, possession, processing and sale of cannabis from the licensed premises of the adult-use cultivator by such licensee to duly licensed processors or distributors. A person holding an adult-use processor's license may apply for, and obtain, one distributor's license solely for the distribution of their own products.

- 2. For purposes of this section, processing shall include, but not be limited to, blending, extracting, infusing, packaging, labeling, branding and otherwise making or preparing cannabis products. Processing shall not include the cultivation of cannabis.
- 3. No processor shall be engaged in any other business on the premises to be licensed; except that a person issued an adult-use cannabis cultivator, processor, and/or distributor license or a processor who has also been issued a hemp grower license by the department of agriculture and markets or a cannabinoid hemp processor license under this chapter may hold and operate all issued licenses on the same premises.
- 4. No cannabis processor licensee may hold more than one cannabis processor license provided a single license may authorize processor activities at multiple locations, as set out in regulations by the board.
- 5. No adult-use cannabis processor shall have a direct or indirect interest, including by stock ownership, interlocking directors, mortgage or lien, personal or real property, management agreement, share parent companies or affiliated organizations or any other means, in any premises licensed as an adult-use cannabis retail dispensary or in any business licensed as an adult-use cannabis retail dispensary or in any registered organization registered pursuant to article three of this chapter.
- 6. Adult-use processor licensees are subject to minimum operating requirements as determined by the board in regulation.
- § 4. The cannabis law is amended by adding a new section 69-a to read as follows:
- § 69-a. Conditional adult-use processor license. 1. A conditional adult-use processor license shall be subject to the same authorizations and restrictions applied to any adult-use processor pursuant to section sixty-nine of this article for the duration of the conditional period of the license, as well as to any new terms and conditions imposed by the board and office.
- 2. To be eligible to apply for a conditional adult-use processor license, a processor must:
- (a) have applied for a cannabinoid hemp processor license pursuant to section ninety-two of this chapter before January first, two thousand twenty-two;
- (b) hold an active cannabinoid hemp processor license issued by the office; and
- (c) as an individual applicant have an ownership interest of fifty-one percent or more, or as any other applicant have an ownership interest of fifty-one percent or more of the entity that is the licensee.
- 3. A conditional adult-use processor license shall authorize the processing and manufacturing of cannabis products provided the licensee complies with all requirements for the processing and manufacture of cannabis products as set out by the board. A conditional adult-use processor licensee shall only perform extraction activities if authorized to under the licensee's cannabinoid hemp processor license and all extraction methods are subject to office approval.
- 4. A conditional adult-use processor licensee must comply with any environmental standards and requirements as mandated by the office.

5. The processing of cannabis shall only be permitted at the same location in which the conditional adult-use processor licensee is authorized to process hemp, unless expressly authorized by the office.

- 6. A conditional adult-use processor licensee shall have the authority to distribute cannabis products without holding an adult-use distributor license established pursuant to section seventy-one of this article until June first, two thousand twenty-three, provided that the licensee complies with all requirements for the distribution of cannabis products as set out by the office. After June first, two thousand twenty-three, any conditional processor seeking to distribute cannabis products shall be required to apply for and receive a distributor license to conduct this activity.
- 7. For the duration of the conditional period of the conditional adult-use processor license, the ownership or organizational structure of the entity that is the licensee shall not be amended, except pursuant to the provisions of subdivisions two, three and four of section sixtyseven of this article.
  - 8. The board shall establish a non-refundable application and license fee, in a manner consistent with section sixty-three of this article, for the conditional adult-use processor license. The license shall be valid for up to two years from the date of issuance of the license.
  - 9. A conditional adult-use processor license shall be deemed to have been surrendered to the board and a conditional adult-use processor licensee shall be deemed not to be in good standing, as determined in the discretion of the executive director in a written notice, effective upon delivery to the licensee at the licensee's last known address on file with the office, for reasons including but not limited to:
- 28 (a) failure to abide by all the terms and conditions of the condi-
  29 tional adult-use processor license;
- 30 (b) failure to adhere to all requirements set out in regulations and 31 guidance, including those promulgated after receiving the conditional 32 adult-use processor license;
  - (c) failure to submit information, records, or reports;
- 34 (d) failure to correct deficiencies in accordance with an approved 35 corrective action plan;
- (e) deviation from regulations, licensing terms, or standard operating procedures in a manner the office determines may jeopardize health or safety of the public, or the quality of products produced;
- 39 (f) failure to provide office employees with access to the premises; 40 and
- 41 (g) failure to begin operations within six months of the date of the 42 issuance of the license.
- 43 10. A licensee whose conditional adult-use processor license has been 44 deemed surrendered may within ten days of the delivery date of such 45 notice appeal the determination of the executive director to the board pursuant to subdivision eighteen of section ten of this chapter. The 46 47 board shall have sole discretion to determine the conduct of the appeal. Upon review by the board, the board shall issue a final written determi-48 nation which may then be reviewed pursuant to section one hundred thir-49 ty-five of this chapter and article seventy-eight of the civil practice 50 law and rules. 51
- 52 11. In the event that a conditional adult-use processor licensee 53 elects to cease operation of all permitted activities or to surrender 54 its license, the following provisions shall apply:

1 (a) the conditional adult-use processor licensee shall notify the
2 office in writing at least thirty days prior to the anticipated date of 3 closure;

- (b) such written notice shall include a proposed plan for closure. The plan shall be subject to office approval and shall include timetables and describe the procedures and actions the licensee shall take to properly destroy or otherwise dispose of all the licensee's supply of cannabis and/or cannabis products; and
- 9 (c) the licensee or former licensee must maintain and make available
  10 to the office all records related to the cultivation of cannabis for a 11 period of three years.
- 12 12. No later than ninety days before the expiration of a conditional adult-use processor license, the office shall review the conditional 13 adult-use processor licensee to determine whether they are in good 14 15 standing with the office. Good standing shall include, but not be limited to, compliance with subdivision seven of this section. Any licensee 16 17 found to be in good standing shall be eligible to apply for and receive an adult-use processor license, provided the licensee can meet all 18 requirements of the new license. 19
- 20 13. For the purposes of this section, the office has the authority to 21 define terms including but not limited to "extraction" and "canopy" as 22 part of the terms and conditions of the conditional adult-use processor 23 license.
- 24 14. Nothing in this section shall limit the authority, power, or other 25 rights or remedies of the board or office.
- 26 § 5. This act shall take effect immediately.
