AN ACT to amend the highway law, in relation to designating a portion of the state highway system as the "Ralph Calabrese Memorial Highway"

The People of the State of New York, represented in Senate and Assembly, do enact as follows:

Section 1. The highway law is amended by adding a new section 344-n to read as follows:

§ 344-n. Portion of the state highway system to be designated as the "Ralph Calabrese Memorial Highway". All that portion of the state highway system constituting state route 21 (E. Gibson Street), from its intersection with state route 332 (North Main Street) in the city of Canandaigua, county of Ontario, traveling in a northeasterly direction to its intersection with state route 488 in the town of Hopewell, county of Ontario, shall be designated and known as the "Ralph Calabrese Memorial Highway".

§ 2. The commissioner of transportation shall provide for the installation and maintenance of adequate signing of the state highway system as designated pursuant to section one of this act. However, to avoid confusion and to limit any possible disruption of commerce, the designation called for pursuant to section one of this act shall be one of ceremonial nature and the official name of such highway shall not be changed as a result of this act.

§ 3. This act shall take effect immediately.

EXPLANATION--Matter in italics (underscored) is new; matter in brackets [-] is old law to be omitted.
