AN ACT to amend the executive law, in relation to requiring the office of children and family services to submit an annual report about juvenile recidivism and cost of juvenile incarceration

The People of the State of New York, represented in Senate and Assembly, do enact as follows:

Section 1. The executive law is amended by adding a new section 501-i to read as follows:

§ 501-i. Annual report. 1. The office of children and family services shall complete and submit a report to the governor, the speaker of the assembly, the temporary president of the senate, and the minority leaders of the assembly and senate, with the first report due February first, two thousand twenty-three and annually thereafter. Such report shall contain the following information:

(a) the recidivism rate for juvenile delinquents, juvenile offenders, youthful offenders and adolescent offenders, and the sentence imposed on each such offender for each new case against such offender;

(b) the age, race, and socioeconomic status of incarcerated youth;

(c) the annual cost of placement for youth who have been adjudicated as juvenile delinquents, juvenile offenders, youthful offenders and adolescent offenders, disaggregated by type of facility; and

(d) the duration of time that youth are held pretrial and the annual cost of pretrial detention for juvenile delinquents, juvenile offenders, youthful offenders and adolescent offenders.

2. The report required pursuant to subdivision one of this section shall be published on the office of children and family services' website no later than February first of each year.

§ 2. This act shall take effect immediately.

EXPLANATION--Matter in italics (underscored) is new; matter in brackets [-] is old law to be omitted.
