IN SENATE

February 28, 2022

Introduced by Sen. SKOUFIS -- read twice and ordered printed, and when printed to be committed to the Committee on Agriculture

AN ACT to amend the agriculture and markets law, in relation to authorizing the delivery of liquefied petroleum gas in times of emergency

The People of the State of New York, represented in Senate and Assembly, do enact as follows:

1	Section 1. Section 192-e of the agriculture and markets law is amended
2	by adding two new subdivisions 6-a and 6-b to read as follows:
3	6-a. a. Definitions. For the purposes of this subdivision:
4	(i) "liquefied petroleum gas tank" shall mean a cylinder, container or
5	receptacle, fixed in place, that is intended to be used to store lique-
6	fied petroleum gas for the purpose of heating, or generating electric
7	power, for a residential customer;
8	(ii) "qualifying emergency" shall mean:
9	(A) a federal, state or local state of emergency has been declared, or
10	federal or state authorities have granted a waiver from hours-of-opera-
11	tions limitations affecting liquefied petroleum gas deliveries; or
12	(B) severe weather or any other similar circumstance exist that may
13	result in an individual being placed in imminent danger of death or
14	injury, or may result in a building structure and/or its fixtures being
15	at risk of significant damage due to lack of residential heat caused by
16	the lack of sufficient liquified petroleum gas to produce residential
17	heat;
18	(iii) "regular supplier" shall mean a person, firm, limited liability
19	company or corporation that owns a liquefied petroleum gas tank and
20	that, pursuant to a current contract, has agreed to supply liquefied
21	petroleum gas to such tank for use by a residential customer or the
22	customer's agent or agents; and
23	(iv) "temporary emergency supplier" shall mean a person, firm, limited
24	liability company or corporation that fills, refills or otherwise deliv-
25	ers liquefied petroleum gas into a liquefied petroleum gas tank it does
26	not own, where such tank is subject to an existing contract between a
27	regular supplier and their customer.

EXPLANATION--Matter in italics (underscored) is new; matter in brackets [-] is old law to be omitted.

b. Notwithstanding any other law, rule or regulation to the contrary, 1 when a qualifying emergency is in effect, a residential customer who has 2 a contract with a regular supplier to fill a liquefied petroleum gas 3 4 tank reasonably believes the amount of liquefied petroleum gas in their 5 tank will be insufficient to meet the customer's heating needs, the 6 customer shall make a good faith effort to procure delivery of liquefied 7 petroleum gas from such regular supplier. If the regular supplier is 8 unable to make a scheduled delivery or fulfill the customer's good faith 9 request, directly or through another supplier, for delivery within twen-10 ty-four hours, the customer may arrange to have a temporary emergency 11 supplier fill, refill or otherwise deliver liquefied petroleum gas into 12 such liquefied petroleum gas tank, provided that the temporary emergency supplier ensures that such tank, and the devices and pipelines operated 13 14 in connection with such tank, have been inspected and certified as 15 required by law and all applicable regulations. c. When a temporary emergency supplier delivers liquefied petroleum 16

17 gas to a residential customer pursuant to this subdivision, neither such 18 temporary emergency supplier nor such customer's regular supplier may 19 charge any penalty or fee in addition to any filling, refilling or 20 delivery fees that are usually charged to other customers in the course 21 of business under circumstances when paragraph b of this subdivision is 22 not applicable.

d. Any contract executed subsequent to the effective date of this
subdivision for the supply of liquefied petroleum gas to a residential
customer shall include provisions relating to delivery and fees pursuant
to paragraphs b and c of this subdivision if applicable.

e. Nothing in this subdivision shall be deemed to restrict a liquefied petroleum gas customer who owns a liquefied petroleum gas tank from procuring such gas from any supplier.

30 6-b. The commissioner, in cooperation with the department of law, 31 shall develop a "propane consumer bill of rights" consistent with this 32 section to address the rights of consumers who enter into contracts for 33 the provision and delivery of liquefied petroleum gas, including the 34 right of customers to purchase liquefied petroleum gas from temporary suppliers pursuant to subdivision six-a of this section. Such bill of 35 36 rights shall be provided by every regular supplier of liquefied petrole-37 um gas to the consumer when a contract is executed, and then annually 38 while a contract remains in effect and the department shall post such 39 bill of rights on its website.

40 The commissioner of agriculture and markets shall develop regu-S 2. lations consistent with subdivisions six-a and six-b of section 192-e of 41 42 the agriculture and markets law for the implementation thereof includ-43 ing, but not limited to, the responsibilities of temporary emergency 44 suppliers and regular suppliers for the safe inspection, testing and 45 filling of liquefied petroleum gas tanks, and any devices and pipelines 46 operated in connection with such tanks, pursuant to such subdivisions 47 and the need for appropriate liability insurance coverage for such 48 suppliers.

49 § 3. This act shall take effect on the one hundred twentieth day after it shall have become a law; provided, however that the provisions of 50 51 this act shall take effect immediately upon the occurrence of a qualify-52 ing emergency for any customer residing within the geographic limits of such qualifying emergency as declared by federal, state or local author-53 54 ities or as otherwise determined by federal or state authorities or the 55 commissioner; and provided that the commissioner of agriculture and 56 markets shall notify the legislative bill drafting commission upon the
