- 27. A certificate of release or discharge from active duty which was issued by the United States government and delivered to the division, shall be forwarded to the appropriate local veterans' service agency, based upon the mailing address after separation noted on such certificate, within sixty days of receipt. Such transmission may be made electronically. Information contained in such certificates shall be 10 protected as personal confidential information under article six-A of 11 the public officers law against disclosure of confidential material, and 12 used only for information and assistance with regards to state benefits and entitlements under federal and state law.
 - § 2. Section 250 of the military law, as amended by chapter 298 of the laws of 2005, is amended to read as follows:
- § 250. Recording certificates of honorable discharge. Any certificate issued after April sixth, nineteen hundred seventeen, of the honorable separation from or service in the armed forces of the United States of any veteran, may be recorded in any one county, in the office of the county clerk, and when so recorded shall constitute notice to all public officials of the facts set forth therein. It shall be the duty of the 22 county clerk to record the certificate upon presentation thereof without the payment of any fee. For any purpose for which the original certif-24 icate may be required in the state of New York, a certified copy of the 25 record shall be deemed sufficient and shall be accepted in lieu thereof. 26 Notwithstanding any inconsistent provisions of law, it shall be the duty of the county clerk of each county, to furnish without charge to any veteran, or parent, spouse, dependent or child of the veteran, a certified copy of the certificate of the veteran so recorded in the office of the county clerk. No filed certificate or any information contained 5 therein, shall be disclosed to any person except the veteran or parent, spouse, dependent or child of the veteran, representative of the estate 7 of the deceased veteran, an authorized representative of a funeral firm, as defined in section thirty-four hundred of the public health law, 9 which assists with the burial of a veteran, or a public official, acting 10 within the scope of his or her employment, unless such disclosure is 11 authorized in writing by the veteran. The provisions of this section 12 also apply to the counties within the city of New York.

EXPLANATION--Matter in italics (underscored) is new; matter in brackets [-] is old law to be omitted.

- § 3. Section 79-g of the civil rights law is amended by adding a new subdivision c to read as follows:
- c. Notwithstanding any provision in this section to the contrary, such certificate shall be made available for public inspection and copying in accordance with the archival schedule adopted by the national archives and record administration (NARA) together with the United States department of defense (DOD), signed on July eighth, two thousand eight, making the official military personnel files permanent records of the United States. Such schedule mandates the legal transfer of such files from DOD ownership to NARA ownership sixty-two years after the service member's separation from the military.
- § 4. This act shall take effect immediately; provided, however, that section two of this act shall take effect on the one hundred eightieth day after it shall have become a law. Effective immediately, the addition, amendment and/or repeal of any rules or regulations necessary for the implementation of this act on its effective date are authorized to be made and completed on or before such effective date.
