7. "IRA" shall mean a Roth IRA (individual retirement account). 8. "Participating employer" shall mean an employer that facilitates access to the program's payroll deduction IRA as provided for by this article for its employees who are enrollees in the program. "Participating individual" means any individual who enrolls in the 9. program independent of an employment relationship with an eligible employer, maintains an account in the program, and is not a participating employee. 10. "Payroll deduction IRA" shall mean an arrangement by which a participating employer facilitates access for enrollees to remit payroll deduction contributions to the program. [10.] 11. "Program" shall mean the New York state secure choice savings program. [11.] 12. "Wages" means any compensation within the meaning of section 219(f)(1) of the Internal Revenue Code that is received by an enrollee from a participating employer during the calendar year. § 2. Section 1301 of the general business law, as amended by chapter 452 of the laws of 2021, is amended to read as follows: § 1301. Program established. There is hereby established a retirement savings program in the form of an automatic enrollment payroll deduction IRA and a retirement savings program in the form of a personal IRA as established by the board for participating individuals, known as the New York state secure choice savings program. The general administration and responsibility for the proper operation of the program shall be administered by the board for the purpose of promoting greater retirement savings for private-sector employees and participating individuals in a convenient, low-cost, and portable manner. The board may delegate such authority and responsibility for the development and implementation of the program to the department of taxation and finance as the board deems proper. § 3. Section 1303 of the general business law, as added by section 2 of part X of chapter 55 of the laws of 2018, is amended to read as follows:

34 § 1303. Fiduciary duty. The board, the individual members of the board, the trustees, any other agents appointed or engaged by the board, 35 36 and all persons serving as program staff shall discharge their duties 37 with respect to the program solely in the interest of the program's 38 enrollees, participating individuals, and beneficiaries as follows:

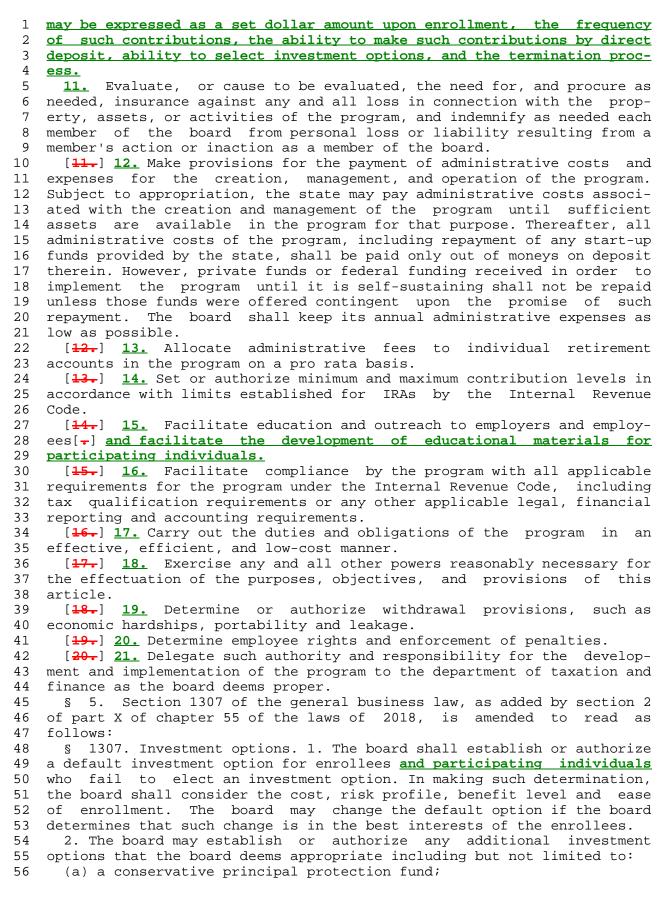

39 1. for the exclusive purposes of providing benefits to enrollees_ 40 participating individuals, and beneficiaries and defraying reasonable expenses of administering the program; 41

42 2. by investing with the care, skill, prudence, and diligence under 43 the prevailing circumstances that a prudent person acting in a like 44 capacity and familiar with those matters would use in the conduct of an 45 enterprise of a like character and with like aims; and

46 3. by using any contributions paid by participating individuals, 47 employees and employers remitting employees' own contributions into the 48 fund exclusively for the purpose of paying benefits to the enrollees of the program, for the cost of administration of the program, and for 49 investments made for the benefit of the program. 50

51 § 4. Section 1304 of the general business law, as added by section 2 of part X of chapter 55 of the laws of 2018 and subdivisions 7 and 9 as 52 53 amended by chapter 452 of the laws of 2021, is amended to read as 54 follows:

§ 1304. Duties of the board. In addition to the other duties and 1 responsibilities stated in this article, the board shall, itself or 2 through the use of appropriate financial organizations as managers: 3 1. Cause the program to be designed, established and operated in a 4 5 manner that: б (a) accords with best practices for retirement savings vehicles; 7 (b) maximizes participation, savings, and sound investment practices 8 including considering the use of automatic enrollment as allowed under 9 federal law; 10 (c) maximizes simplicity, including ease of administration for partic-11 ipating employers [and] enrollees, and participating individuals; (d) provides an efficient product to enrollees and participating indi-12 viduals by pooling investment funds; 13 14 (e) ensures the portability of benefits; and 15 (f) provides for the deaccumulation of enrollee and participating 16 individual assets in a manner that provides a financial benefit in 17 retirement. 2. Explore and establish or authorize investment options, subject to 18 this article, that offer enrollees and participating individual returns 19 on contributions and the conversion of individual retirement savings 20 21 account balances to secure retirement income without incurring debt or 22 liabilities to the state. 23 3. Establish or authorize the process by which interest, investment earnings, and investment losses are allocated to individual program 24 25 accounts on a pro rata basis and are computed at the interest rate on the balance of an individual's account. 26 27 4. Make and enter into contracts necessary for the administration of 28 the program and fund, including, but not limited to, retaining and contracting with investment managers, financial organizations, other 29 30 financial and service providers, consultants, actuaries, counsel, audi-31 tors, third-party administrators, and other professionals as necessary. 32 5. Conduct a periodic review of the performance of any financial 33 organizations, including, but not limited to, a review of returns, fees, 34 and customer service. A copy of reviews shall be posted to the program's 35 Internet website. 36 6. Cause moneys in the program to be held and invested as pooled 37 investments or otherwise, with a view to achieving cost savings through 38 efficiencies and economies of scale. 39 7. Evaluate and establish or authorize the process for: (a) an enrollee to contribute a portion of his or her wages to the 40 program via payroll deduction; and 41 42 (b) the enrollment of participating employers in the program. 43 8. The board may contract with financial organizations and third-party administrators with the capability to receive and process employee 44 information and contributions for payroll deduction IRA or similar 45 46 arrangements. 47 9. Evaluate and establish or authorize the process for enrollment 48 including the process by which an employee may opt not to participate in the program, select a contribution level, select an investment option, 49 50 and terminate participation in the program. 10. Evaluate and establish or authorize the process for the partic-51 ipation and enrollment of any participating individual who is at least 52 53 eighteen years of age and has New York taxable income within the calen-54 dar year. Such process may include the ability to make personal contrib-55 utions from a bank account. The board shall also consider the ability 56 for participating individuals to select their contribution level which

1 (b) a growth fund; 2 (c) a secure return fund whose primary objective is the preservation of the safety of principal and the provision of a stable and low-risk 3 4 rate of return; if the board elects to establish a secure return fund, 5 the board may procure any insurance, annuity, or other product to insure 6 the value of enrollees' and participating individuals' accounts and 7 guarantee a rate of return; the cost of such funding mechanism shall be 8 paid out of the fund; under no circumstances shall the board, program, 9 fund, the state, or any participating employer assume any liability for 10 investment or actuarial risk; the board shall determine whether to 11 establish or authorize such investment options based upon an analysis of 12 their cost, risk profile, benefit level, feasibility, and ease of imple-13 mentation; 14 (d) an annuity fund; 15 (e) a growth and income fund; or (f) a life cycle fund with a target date based upon factors determined 16 17 by the board. Section 1308 of the general business law, as added by section 2 18 § 6. of part X of chapter 55 of the laws of 2018, is amended as follows: 19 § 1308. Benefits. Interest, investment earnings, and investment losses 20 21 shall be allocated to individual program accounts as authorized by the 22 board pursuant to this article. An individual's retirement savings beneunder the program shall be an amount equal to the balance in the 23 fit individual's program account on the date the retirement savings benefit 24 becomes payable. The state shall have no liability for the payment of 25 26 any benefit to any enrollee or participating individual in the program. 27 § 7. Section 1309 of the general business law, as added by section 2 28 of part X of chapter 55 of the laws of 2018 and subdivisions 3, 4 and 5 29 as amended by chapter 452 of the laws of 2021, is amended to read as 30 follows: 31 1309. Employer and employee and participating individual informa-8 32 tional materials and disclosure forms. 1. Prior to the opening of the 33 program for enrollment, the board shall design and disseminate, or cause 34 to be designed and disseminated, to all employers employer informational materials and employee informational materials, which shall include 35 36 background information on the program, and necessary disclosures as 37 required by law for employees. 38 Prior to the opening of the program for enrollment for participat-2. 39 ing individuals, the board shall design and make publicly available informational materials which shall include background information on 40 the program and how to participate as a participating individual, 41 including but not limited to, information on the benefits and risks 42 43 associated with making contributions to the program, the process for 44 making contributions, the contribution levels they may contribute, the process for withdrawal of retirement savings, and the process for 45 46 selecting beneficiaries. 47 3. The employee and participating individual informational materials 48 shall be made available in English, Spanish, Haitian Creole, Chinese, Korean, Russian, Arabic, and any other language the board deems neces-49 50 sary. [3.] 4. The employee and participating individual informational 51 mate-52 rials shall include a disclosure form. The disclosure form shall 53 explain, but not be limited to, all of the following: 54 (a) the benefits and risks associated with making contributions to the 55 program;

56 (b) the process for making contributions to the program;

б

1 (c) how to opt out of the program; (d) the process by which an employee and a participating individual 2 3 can participate in the program with a level of employee contributions 4 other than three percent; 5 (e) that they are not required to participate or contribute more than б three percent; 7 (f) the process for withdrawal of retirement savings; 8 (g) the process for selecting beneficiaries of their retirement 9 savings; 10 (h) how to obtain additional information about the program; 11 (i) that employees and participating individuals seeking financial 12 advice should contact financial advisors, that participating employers are not in a position to provide financial advice, and that participat-13 14 ing employers are not liable for decisions employees make pursuant to 15 this article; information on how to access any available financial literacy 16 (j) 17 programs; (k) that the program fund is not guaranteed by the state; and 18 19 (1) that they can opt out after they have been enrolled. 20 [4-] 5. The employee informational materials shall also include a form 21 for an employee to note his or her decision to opt out of participation 22 in the program or elect to participate with a level of employee contributions other than three percent. 23 24 [5-] 6. Participating employers shall supply the employee informational materials to existing employees at least one month prior to the 25 participating employers' facilitation of access to the program. Partic-26 27 ipating employers shall supply the employee informational materials to 28 new employees at the time of hiring and new employees may opt out of 29 participation in the program. 30 § 8. The general business law is amended by adding a new section 31 1310-a to read as follows: 32 § 1310-a. Program implementation and enrollment. Except as otherwise 33 provided in this article, the program shall be implemented, and enrollment of participating individuals shall begin no later than December 34 thirty-first, two thousand twenty-two. The provisions of this section 35 36 shall be in force after the board opens the program for enrollment. 37 1. Participating individuals shall have the ability to make contributions into the program by personal contributions from a bank account or 38 39 by other means as determined by the board. The participating individual 40 shall be able to select the frequency and the contribution level which may be expressed as a set dollar amount up to the deductible amount for 41 the participating individual's taxable year under section 219(b)(1)(A) 42 43 of the Internal Revenue Code subject to rules promulgated by the board. Participating individuals may change their contribution level at any 44 45 time, subject to rules promulgated by the board. 46 2. Participating individuals may select an investment option offered 47 under the program. Participating individuals may change their investment option at any time, subject to rules promulgated by the board. In the 48 event that a participating individual fails to select an investment 49 option, that participating individual shall be placed in the investment 50 option selected or authorized by the board as the default under this 51 52 article. 53 3. A participating individual may terminate his or her enrollment in 54 the program at any time in a manner prescribed by the board. 55 4. The board shall establish and maintain or authorize the establish-56 ment and maintenance of a secure website wherein participating individ-
