Introduced by Sen. REICHLIN-MELNICK -- read twice and ordered printed, and when printed to be committed to the Committee on Ethics and Internal Governance

AN ACT to amend the public officers law, in relation to prohibiting public officers and employees from using nonpublic information derived from their official positions for personal benefit

The People of the State of New York, represented in Senate and Assembly, do enact as follows:

1 Section 1. This act shall be known and may be cited as the "New York
2 Stock Act".

3 § 2. The public officers law is amended by adding a new article 7-A to 4 read as follows:

ARTICLE 7-A

USE OF NON-PUBLIC INFORMATION FOR

PERSONAL BENEFIT PROHIBITED

Section 112. Definitions.

5 112-a. Prohibition of the use of nonpublic information for 6 private profit.

7 112-b. Prohibition of insider trading.

8 112-c. Other state officials.

9 112-d. Participation in initial public offerings.

10 112-e. Rule of construction.

11 § 112. Definitions. For purposes of this article, the following terms 12 shall have the following meanings:

13 1. "member of the legislature" means a member of the New York state
14 senate or New York state assembly.

15 2. "employee of the legislature" means any officer or employee of the 16 legislature but it shall not include members of the legislature.

17 3. "executive branch employee" means:

18 a. any person employed in the civil service of this state;

19 b. the governor;

20 c. the lieutenant governor;

1 4. "judicial officer" means any judge or other judicial officer of 2 this state.

3 5. "judicial employee" means any officer or employee of the judiciary
4 but it shall not include judicial officers.

5 § 112-a. Prohibition of the use of nonpublic information for private 6 profit. The legislative ethics commission shall issue interpretive guid-
7 ance of the relevant rules of each chamber, including rules on conflicts 8 of interest and gifts, clarifying that a member of the legislature and 9 an employee of the legislature may not use nonpublic information derived 10 from such person's position as a member of the legislature or employee 11 of the legislature or gained from the performance of such person's offi-
12 cial responsibilities as a means for making a private profit.

13 § 112-b. Prohibition of insider trading. Subject to the rule of 14 construction under section one hundred twelve-e of this article and 15 solely for the purposes of insider trading prohibitions arising under 16 the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, each member of the legislature or 17 employee of the legislature owes a duty arising from a relationship of 18 trust and confidence to the legislature, the state, and the citizens of 19 this state with respect to material, nonpublic information derived from 20 such person's position as a member of the legislature or employee of the 21 legislature or gained from the performance of such person's official 22 responsibilities.

23 § 112-c. Other state officials. 1. a. The joint commission on public 24 ethics shall issue such interpretive guidance of the relevant state 25 ethics statutes and regulations, including the standards of ethical 26 conduct for executive branch employees, related to use of nonpublic
27 information, as necessary to clarify that no executive branch employee 28 may use nonpublic information derived from such person's position as an 29 executive branch employee or gained from the performance of such 30 person's official responsibilities as a means for making a private 31 profit.

32 b. The advisory committee on judicial ethics shall issue such inter-33 pretive guidance of the relevant ethics rules applicable to judicial 34 officers, as necessary to clarify that no judicial officer may use
35 nonpublic information derived from such person's position as a judicial 36 officer or gained from the performance of such person's official respon-37 sibilities as a means for making a private profit.

38 c. The advisory committee on judicial ethics shall issue such inter-
39 pretive guidance of the relevant ethics rules applicable to judicial 40 employees as necessary to clarify that no judicial employee may use
41 nonpublic information derived from such person's position as a judicial 42 employee or gained from the performance of such person's official 43 responsibilities as a means for making a private profit.

44 2. Subject to the rule of construction under section one hundred 45 twelve-e of this article and solely for the purposes insider trading
46 prohibitions arising under the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, each 47 executive branch employee, each judicial officer, and each judicial 48 employee owes a duty arising from a relationship of trust and confidence 49 to this state and the citizens of this state with respect to material,
50 nonpublic information derived from such person's position as an execu-51 tive branch employee, judicial officer, or judicial employee or gained 52 from the performance of such person's official responsibilities.

53 § 112-d. Participation in initial public offerings. No person set 54 forth in section one hundred twelve of this article may purchase securi-
55 ties that are the subject of an initial public offering in any manner 56 other than is available to members of the public generally.

1 § 112-e. Rule of construction. Nothing in this article or the inter-
2 pretive guidance to be issued pursuant to this article shall be 3 construed to:

4 1. impair or limit the construction of the antifraud provisions of the 5 securities laws or the Commodity Exchange Act or the authority of the 6 Securities and Exchange Commission or the Commodity Futures Trading
7 Commission under those provisions;

8 2. be in derogation of the obligations, duties, and functions of a 9 member of the legislature, an employee of the legislature, an executive 10 branch employee, a judicial officer, or a judicial employee, arising 11 from such person's official position; or

12 3. be in derogation of existing laws, regulations, or ethical obli-
13 gations governing members of the legislature, employees of the legisla-
14 ture, executive branch employees, judicial officers, or judicial employ-15 ees.

16 § 3. This act shall take effect immediately.
