1 ~~designate the chair of the council and the chief~~ executive [~~officer~~
2 ~~(CEO)~~] director of the developmental disabilities planning council.

3 2. Staffing. The governor shall designate the executive director of 4 the council. The [~~chair of the council~~] executive director, in consulta-5 tion with the commissioner of [~~the office of~~] children and family 6 services, shall designate staff [~~from the office of children and family~~ 7 ~~services to work full time in carrying out~~] to carry out the functions 8 of the council.

9 3. Meetings. The council [~~may conduct its meetings and, by and through~~ 10 ~~the chair,~~] shall meet as often as deemed necessary by the executive 11 director of the council or the commissioner or director of a member 12 agency but in no event less than annually to perform its powers and 13 duties [~~notwithstanding the absence of a quorum, provided, however that~~ 14 ~~no action may be taken by the council without the concurrence of the~~ 15 ~~chair~~].

16 § 2. Section 483-a of the social services law, as added by section 2
17 of part F2 of chapter 62 of the laws of 2003, is amended to read as 18 follows:

19 § 483-a. Utilization of other agency assistance. To effectuate the 20 purposes of this article, any department, division, board, bureau, 21 commission or agency of the state or of any political subdivision there-22 of shall, at the request of the [~~chair~~] executive director of the coun-23 cil, provide to the council such facilities, assistance and data as will 24 enable the council to properly [~~to~~] carry out its powers and duties [~~and~~ 25 ~~those of the chair~~].

26 § 3. Section 483-b of the social services law, as added by section 2
27 of part F2 of chapter 62 of the laws of 2003, is amended to read as 28 follows:

29 § 483-b. Powers and duties of council. 1. As used in this section, the 30 terms "care", "services", and "programs" [~~, and "services programs"~~] 31 shall mean and include care, maintenance, services and programs provided 32 to children and youth of the state and their families by or under the 33 jurisdiction of a member agency. The term "member agency" shall mean an 34 agency headed by a member of the council.

35 2. The council shall have the following powers:

36 (a) to identify problems and deficiencies in residential care and 37 community-based services and programs and, on a selective basis, to plan 38 and make recommendations to the governor for the remedy of such problems 39 and deficiencies and for the development of programs of care and 40 services for children and youth and their families;

41 (b) to make recommendations to improve coordination of program and 42 fiscal resources of state-local, public-voluntary care and services to 43 children and youth and their families;

44 (c) to [~~coordinate program~~] facilitate interagency cooperation and 45 coordination of programs and [~~management~~] research [~~of~~] by member agen-46 cies for the purpose of monitoring, evaluating or redirecting existing 47 care [~~and~~], services and programs or developing new services and 48 programs, and to conduct, sponsor, or direct member agencies to under-49 take such research or other activities;

50 (d) to review and resolve differences, if any, concerning rules and 51 regulations of each member agency insofar as such rules and regulations 52 impact on care, services or programs provided by other member agencies;

53 (e) to promulgate, amend and rescind rules and regulations relating to 54 the administration and performance of the powers and duties of the coun-55 cil pursuant to this article;

(f) to review [~~significant~~ existing] state and locally operated and supported [~~care and~~] services~~], and programs and~~ plans and proposals for new services and programs for children and youth and their families to determine whether such services and programs are planned, created and delivered in a coordinated, effective and comprehensive manner;

(g) to perform all other things necessary [~~and convenient~~] to carry out the functions, powers and duties of the council and to effectuate the purposes of this article; and

(h) to accept and expend any grants, awards, or other funds or appropriations as may be available to the council to effectuate the purposes of this article, subject to the approval of the director of the budget.

3. [~~The council shall review the budget requests of member agencies insofar as such budgets jointly affect services programs for children and their families and shall make comments and recommendations thereon to the relevant member agencies and the governor.~~]

4.] (a) The council shall meet on a regular basis to implement the purposes of this article and to discuss and resolve disputes, including but not limited to disputes between member agencies, relating to their functions, powers and duties over the provision of services to particular children and youth and their families or to categories of children [~~or child and family problems~~] and youth when all the internal statutory and administrative grievance or appeal procedures applicable to a member agency have failed to finally resolve such dispute. [~~The council shall direct each member agency to establish and maintain such grievance or appeal procedures.~~]

(b) The council shall direct member agencies to provide an evaluation, including a diagnostic study, of a particular child or youth and his or her family when there is a dispute as to the appropriate agency or program in which the child or youth should be placed or from which the child or youth and his or her family should receive services, and, following such study, the council shall order placement of a child or youth with a member agency, or with a social services official, or order a member agency to provide or require the provision of services to the child or youth and his or her family in a manner consistent with the legal authority of the member agency or social services official, as applicable.

(c) The council shall direct member agencies to take appropriate direct action or to exercise their supervisory powers over local officials and agencies, in the resolution of such disputes.

(d) The duty of the council to resolve disputes involving particular children or youth may be performed on a selective basis within the discretion of the council. Exercise of jurisdiction over such disputes by the council or appeals to the council therefor shall not be required as a condition precedent to the initiation of a proceeding pursuant to article seventy-eight of the civil practice law and rules.

(e) A dispute relative to which member agency shall have the responsibility for determining and recommending adult services pursuant to sections 7.37 and 13.37 of the mental hygiene law, section three hundred ninety-eight-c of [~~the social services law~~] this chapter, or subdivision ten of section forty-four hundred three of the education law shall be resolved in accordance with this subdivision.

[~~5.~~] 4. (a) Notwithstanding any other provision of state law to the contrary, the council may request any member agency to submit to the council and such member agency shall submit, to the extent permitted by federal law, all information in the form and manner and at such times as

1 the council may require that it is appropriate to the purposes and oper-2 ation of the council.

3 (b) The council shall protect the confidentiality of individual iden-4 tifying information submitted to or provided by the council, and prevent 5 access thereto, by, or the distribution thereof to, persons not author-6 ized by law.

7 § 4. Section 483-c of the social services law is REPEALED and a new 8 section 483-c is added to read as follows:

9 § 483-c. Council committees. 1. The council shall have two standing 10 committees: (a) a cross-systems committee for children and youth with 11 complex needs; and (b) an early care and education committee. In accord-12 ance with the purposes of this article, other committees may be formed 13 by the executive director of the council or the request of the governor 14 or a commissioner or director of a member agency.

15 2. There shall be a cross-systems committee for children and youth 16 with complex needs to support the establishment of a coordinated system 17 of care for children and youth and their families who require assistance 18 from multiple systems and to facilitate coordination among member agen-19 cies to better serve such children and youth and their families.

20 (a) Such committee shall meet as often as deemed necessary by the 21 executive director of the council or a commissioner or director of a 22 member agency and shall be comprised of commissioners and directors or 23 their designees from the following member agencies: the office of chil-24 dren and family services, the office of mental health, the office for 25 people with developmental disabilities, the department of health, the 26 office of addiction services and supports, the developmental disabili-27 ties planning council, and the education department.

28 (b) Such committee shall provide for the effective collaboration among 29 state and local health, mental health, developmental disabilities, 30 education, child welfare, juvenile justice, and other human services 31 governmental entities and stakeholders by coordinating cross-systems 32 professional development training, recommending the use of funding mech-33 anisms to more flexibly support the unique needs of children and youth 34 and their families requiring services from multiple systems, and other 35 approaches to promoting interagency cooperation to best support the 36 needs of children and youth and their families.

37 (c) Such committee shall provide an annual progress report, by April 38 thirtieth of each year, which shall include an update on children and 39 youth placed in residential programs and schools outside of New York 40 state and other committee activities.

41 3. There shall be an early care and education committee to support the 42 alignment of programs and services for young children and their families 43 to promote healthy development and school readiness.

44 (a) Such committee shall meet as often as deemed necessary by the 45 executive director of the council or the commissioner or director of a 46 member agency and shall be comprised of commissioners and directors or 47 their designees from the following member agencies: the office of chil-48 dren and family services, the education department, the department of 49 health, the office of temporary and disability assistance, the office of 50 mental health, and the office for people with developmental disabili-51 ties. The committee shall be informed by the work and recommendations of 52 the early childhood advisory council established pursuant to section 53 four hundred eighty-three-g of this article.

54 (b) Committee members, to the extent practicable, shall notify the 55 executive director of the council when proposing new policies, rules, or 56 regulations that may impact other committee member agencies. The execu-

1 tive director of the council shall distribute such proposed policies, 2 rules, or regulations for review by committee members to solicit feed-3 back, within governing time periods, on the possible cross-system align-4 ment of such proposals.

5 (c) Such committee shall provide an annual progress report by May 6 thirtieth of each year.

7 § 5. Sections 483-d, 483-e and 483-f of the social services law are 8 REPEALED.

9 § 6. Section 7.43 of the mental hygiene law is REPEALED.

10 § 7. Subdivisions 2 and 6 of section 483-g of the social services law, 11 as amended by chapter 14 of the laws of 2017, are amended to read as 12 follows:

13 2. The governor shall also designate the two chairpersons to the early 14 childhood advisory council one of whom shall be the executive director 15 of the council or his or her designee.

16 6. The executive director of the council, on behalf of the early 17 childhood advisory council shall submit a statewide strategic report 18 addressing the activities described in subdivision three of this section 19 to the director of the head start collaboration office, the governor, 20 the speaker of the assembly and the temporary president of the senate.
21 After submission of a statewide strategic report, the early childhood 22 advisory council shall meet periodically to review any implementation of 23 the recommendations in such report and any changes in state and local 24 needs.

25 § 8. This act shall take effect on the one hundred eightieth day after 26 it shall have become a law.
