3 the emergency tenant protection act of nineteen seventy-four, as amended 4 by section 1 of part F chapter 36 of the laws of 2019, is amended to 5 read as follows:

6 Subject to the conditions and limitations of this paragraph, any owner 7 of housing accommodations in a city having a population of less than one

1 clause (ii) of this paragraph, the legal regulated rent for purposes of 2 determining an overcharge, shall be deemed to be the rent indicated in 3 the most recent reliable annual registration statement for a rent stabi-4 lized tenant filed and served upon the tenant six or more years prior to 5 the most recent registration statement, (or, if more recently filed, the 6 initial registration statement) plus in each case any subsequent lawful 7 increases and adjustments. The division of housing and community
8 renewal or a court of competent jurisdiction, in investigating 9 complaints of overcharge and in determining legal regulated rent, shall 10 consider all available rent history which is reasonably necessary to 11 make such determinations. If there is an overcharge, the legal regulated 12 base date rent at the four-year lookback shall be determined by either 13 the survey sampling method or the default method if there is fraud. (ii) 14 As to complaints filed within ninety days of the initial registration of 15 a housing accommodation, the legal regulated rent for purposes of deter-
16 mining an overcharge shall be deemed to be the rent charged on the date 17 six years prior to the date of the initial registration of the housing 18 accommodation (or, if the housing accommodation was subject to this act 19 for less than six years, the initial legal regulated rent) plus in each 20 case, any lawful increases and adjustments. Where the rent charged on 21 the date six years prior to the date of the initial registration of the 22 accommodation cannot be established, such rent shall be established by 23 the division.
24 § 2. This act shall take effect immediately.
