1 the basis of such design professional having received forgiveness on a
2 paycheck protection act loan. Any state agency or state authority that 3 pursuant to the application of any audit rule or requirement including 4 but not limited to the federal acquisition regulation collects, recoups, 5 or claws back any money from a design professional on the basis of their 6 having received a paycheck protection program shall credit such design 7 professional in an amount no less than the amount recovered no later 8 than one hundred eighty days from any such collection, recoupment or 9 claw back. Notwithstanding any other provision of law, such credit shall 10 be deemed loan forgiveness and shall not be used in any tax, overhead or 11 indirect labor cost calculation by any state agency or authority.

12 § 2. This act shall take effect immediately.
