vaccines, to a person under the age of eighteen years without the 1 consent or knowledge of the parents or guardians of such person, 2 3 provided that the person has capacity to consent to the care, without 4 regard to the person's age, and the person consents. 5 (c) Any release of patient information regarding vaccines provided under this section shall be consistent with sections seventeen and eighб 7 teen of this chapter and other applicable laws and regulations. 8 3. For the purposes of this section, [the term] 9 (a) "hospital" shall mean a hospital as defined in article twenty-10 eight of this chapter; and (b) "health care practitioner" shall mean a person licensed, certified 11 or otherwise authorized to practice under title eight of the education 12 13 law, acting within his or her lawful scope of practice. of the public 14 § 2. The first undesignated paragraph of section 17 15 health law, as amended by chapter 322 of the laws of 2017, is amended to 16 read ad follows: 17 Upon the written request of any competent patient, parent or guardian 18 of an infant, a guardian appointed pursuant to article eighty-one of the 19 mental hygiene law, or conservator of a conservatee, an examining, 20 consulting or treating physician or hospital must release and deliver, 21 exclusive of personal notes of the said physician or hospital, copies of all x-rays, medical records and test records including all laboratory 22 tests regarding that patient to any other designated physician or hospi-23 24 tal provided, however, that such records concerning the care and treat-25 ment of an infant patient for venereal disease or the performance of an 26 abortion operation upon such infant patient shall not be released or in 27 any manner be made available to the parent or guardian of such infant, and provided, further, that original mammograms, rather than copies thereof, shall be released and delivered. Either the physician or hospi-28 29 30 tal incurring the expense of providing copies of x-rays, medical records 31 and test records including all laboratory tests pursuant to the 32 provisions of this section may impose a reasonable charge to be paid by 33 the person requesting the release and deliverance of such records as reimbursement for such expenses, provided, however, that the physician 34 35 or hospital may not impose a charge for copying an original mammogram 36 when the original has been released or delivered to any competent 37 patient, parent or guardian of an infant, a guardian appointed pursuant 38 to article eighty-one of the mental hygiene law, or a conservator of a 39 conservatee and provided, further, that any charge for delivering an original mammogram pursuant to this section shall not exceed the docu-40 mented costs associated therewith. However, the reasonable charge for 41 42 paper copies shall not exceed seventy-five cents per page. A release of 43 records under this section shall not be denied solely because of inabil-44 ity to pay. No charge may be imposed under this section for providing, 45 releasing, or delivering medical records or copies of medical records 46 where requested for the purpose of supporting an application, claim or 47 appeal for any government benefit or program, provided that, where a provider maintains medical records in electronic form, it shall provide 48 49 the copy in either electronic or paper form, as required by the govern-50 ment benefit or program, or at the patient's request. 51 § 3. Paragraph (i) of subdivision 3 of section 18 of the public health 52 law, as added by chapter 634 of the laws of 2004, is amended to read as 53 follows:

(i) The release of patient information shall be subject to: (i) arti-55 cle twenty-seven-F of this chapter in the case of confidential HIV-re-56 lated information; (ii) section seventeen of this article and sections
