AN ACT to amend the public housing law, in relation to enacting the "housing is a human right act"

The People of the State of New York, represented in Senate and Assembly, do enact as follows:

Section 1. Short title. This act shall be known and may be cited as the "housing is a human right act".

§ 2. Section 14 of the public housing law is amended by adding a new subdivision 8 to read as follows:

8. (a) The commissioner shall appoint an individual, otherwise known as the New York state affordable housing czar, who shall create a centralized office within the division of housing to advocate for and oversee all of the state's housing initiatives, work with key stakeholders, tenants, landlords, and developers to create an integrated state housing plan to generate affordable and subsidized housing, ensure that existing housing is utilized to prevent homelessness, and ensure state residents have access to the state's growing number of affordable apartments and homes. Responsibilities of the New York state affordable housing czar shall include, but not be limited to:

(i) making state residents aware of the range of affordable housing opportunities;

(ii) creating, maintaining, and publicizing a central website where state residents can apply for affordable housing units, or be directed to where to apply for such units;

(iii) serving as an ombudsman for individuals seeking public or subsidized housing;

(iv) monitoring developer's compliance with state housing mandates;

(v) ensuring compliance with all state affordable housing mandates and covenants;

(vi) overseeing the development and implementation of a five-year affordable housing compliance and management plan; and

(vii) ensuring state residents and community involvement in affordable housing policy development.

EXPLANATION--Matter in italics (underscored) is new; matter in brackets [-] is old law to be omitted.
