AN ACT to amend the real property tax law, in relation to establishing a real property tax exemption for widows and widowers of police officers killed in the line of duty

The People of the State of New York, represented in Senate and Assembly, do enact as follows:

1 Section 1. The real property tax law is amended by adding a new 2 section 471 to read as follows:

3 § 471. Widows and widowers of police officers killed in the line of 4 duty. 1. After the local legislative body of a county, city, town, or 5 village passes a local law, or a school district passes a resolution, 6 notwithstanding any other provision of law, real property owned by a 7 widow or widower of a police officer killed in the line of duty, and 8 constituting the primary residence of such widow or widower shall be 9 exempt from taxation to the extent of fifty per centum of the assessed 10 valuation thereof. Within such local law or resolution, the local legis-11 lative body or school district may reduce the percentage of exemption 12 authorized pursuant to this section.

13 2. As used in this section, the term "police officer" shall have the 14 same meaning as defined in section 1.20 of the criminal procedure law.

15 3. Notwithstanding any other provision of law to the contrary, the 16 provisions of this section shall apply to any real property held in 17 trust solely for the benefit of a person or persons who would otherwise 18 be eligible for a real property tax exemption, pursuant to subdivision 19 one of this section, were such person or persons the owner or owners of 20 such real property.

21 4. (a) For the purposes of this section, title to that portion of real 22 property owned by a cooperative apartment corporation in which a 23 tenant-stockholder of such corporation resides and which is represented 24 by their share or shares of stock in such corporation as determined by

1 its or their proportional relationship to the total outstanding stock of 2 the corporation, including that owned by the corporation, shall be 3 deemed to be vested in such tenant-stockholder.

4 (b) Provided that all other eligibility criteria of this section are 5 met, that proportion of the assessment of such real property owned by a 6 cooperative apartment corporation determined by the relationship of such 7 real property vested in such tenant-stockholder to such real property
8 owned by such cooperative apartment corporation in which such tenant-9 stockholder resides shall be subject to exemption from taxation pursuant 10 to this section and any exemption so granted shall be credited by the 11 appropriate taxing authority against the assessed valuation of such real 12 property; the reduction in real property taxes realized thereby shall be 13 credited by the cooperative apartment corporation against the amount of 14 such taxes otherwise payable by or chargeable to such tenant-stockhold-15 er.

16 (c) Notwithstanding paragraph (b) of this subdivision, a tenant-stock-17 holder who resides in a dwelling that is subject to the provisions of 18 either article two, four, five or eleven of the private housing finance 19 law shall not be eligible for an exemption pursuant to this section.

20 (d) Notwithstanding paragraph (b) of this subdivision, real property
21 owned by a cooperative apartment corporation may be exempt from taxation
22 pursuant to this section by a municipality in which such real property
23 is located only if the governing body of such municipality, after public 24 hearing, adopts a local law, ordinance or resolution providing therefor.

25 5. The commissioner shall develop, in consultation with the commis-
26 sioner of the division of criminal justice services, a listing of docu-27 ments to be used to establish eligibility under this section. Such 28 information shall be made available to each city, village, town, part 29 town, special district and county assessor's office. The listing of 30 acceptable records shall be made available on the internet websites of 31 the division of criminal justice services and the office of real proper-32 ty tax services.

33 § 2. This act shall take effect on the first of January next succeed-34 ing the date on which it shall have become a law and shall apply to 35 taxable status dates occurring on or after such date.
