Introduced by COMMITTEE ON RULES -- (at request of M. of A. Solages) -- (at request of the State Comptroller) -- read once and referred to the Committee on Governmental Operations

AN ACT to amend the state finance law, in relation to the public posting of certain contracts otherwise subject to the approval of the comptroller

The People of the State of New York, represented in Senate and Assembly, do enact as follows:

Section 1. The state finance law is amended by adding a new section 149 to read as follows:

§ 149. Required public posting of certain contracts. 1. For purposes of this section, the following terms shall have the following meanings:

(a) "Emergency contract" shall mean:

(i) any contract otherwise subject to prior approval by the comptroller pursuant to section one hundred twelve of this chapter, which is executed or made effective in accordance with an executive order of the governor temporarily suspending such law, or any part thereof, pursuant to his or her authority under section twenty-nine-a of the executive law; and

(ii) any contract otherwise eligible for prior approval by the comptroller pursuant to any provision of law, including section twenty-eight hundred seventy-nine-a of the public authorities law, which is executed or made effective in accordance with an executive order of the governor temporarily suspending such law, or any part thereof, pursuant to his or her authority under section twenty-nine-a of the executive law.

(b) "Exempted contract" shall mean:

(i) any contract otherwise subject to prior approval by the comptroller pursuant to section one hundred twelve of this chapter, which is executed or made effective in accordance with any provision of law, and expressly and specifically suspends the provisions of, exempts, or is otherwise notwithstanding of section one hundred twelve of this chapter, or any part thereof; and

(ii) any contract otherwise eligible for prior approval by the comptroller pursuant to any provision of law, including section twenty-eight hundred seventy-nine-a of the public authorities law, which is executed or made effective in accordance with any provision of law suspending the provisions of, exempting, or otherwise notwithstanding such law, or any part thereof.

2. Within thirty days following the execution of an emergency contract or an exempted contract, such state agency, department, board, officer, commission, state authority, or institution shall post on the contracting entity's public website the following information regarding such emergency contract or exempted contract by contract number:

(i) if the contract is an emergency contract, the emergency declaration that such contract pertains to, and if the contract is an exempted contract, the provision of law suspended or exempted;

(ii) a brief description of the contract, including:

(A) the amount of the contract;

(B) the name of the vendor or vendors;

(C) the contract terms;

(D) what is being provided by the contract;

(E) if the contract is an emergency contract, a statement explaining how such contract relates to the declared state disaster emergency; and

(F) whether the contact was awarded based on a competitive process, and if it was not awarded pursuant to a competitive process, an explanation of why a competitive process was not undertaken.

3. The provisions of this section shall not be suspended, modified, or altered by the governor's authority to temporarily suspend provisions of law during a state disaster emergency pursuant to section twenty-nine-a of the executive law.

§ 2. This act shall take effect on the thirtieth day after it shall have become a law.
