56 which shall be the actuarial equivalent of the accumulated deductions

1 from their pay during such period, (ii) a pension for increased-take-2 home-pay which shall be the actuarial equivalent of the reserve for 3 increased-take-home-pay to which such participant may be entitled, for 8 member, or fraction thereof, beyond such required minimum period of 30 under such retirement program, or the first anniversary of the starting 31 date of the twenty-two and one-half year improved benefit retirement 32 program. The additional contributions required by this section shall be 33 in lieu of additional member contributions required by section four 34 hundred forty-five-d of this article, as added by chapter ninety-six of 35 the laws of nineteen hundred ninety-five, and shall be in lieu of addi-36 tional member contributions required by section four hundred

46 specified in paragraph one of this subdivision shall be deducted, 47 subject to the applicable provisions of section 13-125.2 of the adminis-48 trative code, from the compensation of such participant on each and 49 every payroll of such participant for each and every payroll period for 50 which they are such a participant.

51 3. (i) Subject to the provisions of subparagraph (ii) of this para-52 graph, where any additional member contributions required by paragraph 53 one of this subdivision are not paid by deductions from a participant's 54 compensation pursuant to paragraph two of this subdivision:

1 (A) that participant shall be charged with a contribution deficiency 2 consisting of such unpaid amounts, together with interest thereon, 3 compounded annually; and

4 (B) such interest on each amount of undeducted contributions shall 5 accrue from the end of the payroll period for which such amount would 6 have been deducted from compensation if such participant had been a 7 participant at the beginning of that payroll period and such deductions 8 had been required for such payroll period until such amount is paid to 9 the retirement system; and

10 (C) (1) interest on each such amount included in such participant's 11 contribution deficiency pursuant to this subparagraph shall be calcu-12 lated as if such additional member contributions never had been paid by 13 such participant, and such interest shall accrue from the end of the 14 payroll period to which an amount of such additional member contribution 15 is attributable, compounded annually, until such amount is paid to the 16 retirement system;

17 (2) the rate of interest to be applied to each such amount during the 18 period for which interest accrues on that amount shall be equal to the 19 rate or rates of interest required by law to be used during that same 20 period to credit interest on the accumulated deductions of retirement 21 system members.

22 (ii) Except as provided in subparagraph (iii) of this paragraph, no 23 interest shall be due on any unpaid additional contributions which are 24 not attributable to the period prior to the first full payroll period 25 referred to in paragraph two of this subdivision.

26 (iii) Should any person who, pursuant to paragraph seven of this 27 subdivision, has withdrawn any additional member contributions and any 28 interest paid thereon, again become a participant in the twenty-two and 29 one-half year improved benefit retirement program pursuant to paragraph 30 five of subdivision b of this section, an appropriate amount shall be 31 included in such participant's contribution deficiency, including inter-32 est thereon as calculated pursuant to subparagraph (ii) of this para-33 graph, for any credited service with respect to which such person 34 received a refund of additional member contributions, including any 35 amount of an unpaid loan balance deemed to have been returned to such 36 person pursuant to paragraph seven of this subdivision, as if such addi-37 tional member contributions never had been paid.

38 4. The board of trustees of the retirement system may, consistent with 39 the provisions of this subdivision, promulgate regulations for the 40 payment of the additional member contributions required by this subdivi-41 sion, and any interest thereon, by a participant in the twenty-two and 42 one-half year improved benefit retirement program, including the 43 deduction of such contributions, and any interest thereon, from such 44 participant's compensation.

45 5. Where a participant who is otherwise eligible for service retire-46 ment pursuant to subdivision c of this section did not, prior to the 47 effective date of retirement, pay the entire amount of a contribution 48 deficiency chargeable to such participant pursuant to paragraph three of 49 this subdivision, or repay the entire amount of a loan of such partic-50 ipant's additional member contributions pursuant to paragraph eight of 51 this subdivision, including accrued interest on such loan, that partic-
52 ipant, nevertheless, shall be eligible to retire pursuant to subdivision 53 c of this section, provided, however, that where such participant is not 54 entitled to a refund of additional member contributions pursuant to 55 paragraph seven of this subdivision, such participant's service retire-56 ment benefit calculated pursuant to the applicable provisions of subdivi-

1 vision c of this section shall be reduced by a life annuity, calculated 2 in accordance with the method set forth in subdivision i of section six 3 hundred thirteen-b of this chapter, which is actuarially equivalent to:

4 (i) the amount of any unpaid contribution deficiency chargeable to 5 such member pursuant to paragraph three of this subdivision; plus

6 (ii) the amount of any unpaid balance of a loan of their additional 7 member contributions pursuant to paragraph eight of this subdivision,
8 including accrued interest on such loan.

9 6. Subject to the provisions of paragraph five of this subdivision, 10 where a participant has not paid in full any contribution deficiency 11 chargeable to such participant pursuant to paragraph three of this 12 subdivision, and a benefit, other than a refund of a member's accumu-13 lated deductions or a refund of additional member contributions pursuant 14 to paragraph seven of this subdivision, becomes payable by the retire-15 ment system to the participant or to their designated beneficiary or 16 estate, the actuarial equivalent of any such unpaid amount shall be 17 deducted from the benefit otherwise payable.

18 7. (i) All additional member contributions required by this subdivi-19 sion, and any interest thereon, which are received by the retirement 20 system shall be paid into its contingent reserve fund and shall be the 21 property of the retirement system. Such additional member contributions, 22 and any interest thereon, shall not for any purpose be deemed to be 23 member contributions or accumulated deductions of a member of the 24 retirement system under section 13-125 or section 13-162 of the adminis-25 trative code while they are a participant in the twenty-two and one-half 26 year improved benefit retirement program or otherwise.

27 (ii) Should a participant in the twenty-two and one-half year improved 28 benefit retirement program, who has rendered less than fifteen years of 29 credited service cease to hold a position as an EMT member for any 30 reason whatsoever, such participant's accumulated additional member 31 contributions made pursuant to this subdivision, together with any 32 interest thereon paid to the retirement system, which remain credited to 33 such participant's account may be withdrawn by such participant pursuant 34 to procedures promulgated in regulations of the board of trustees of the 35 retirement system, together with interest thereon at the rate of inter-36 est required by law to be used to credit interest on the accumulated 37 deductions of retirement system members compounded annually.

38 (iii) Notwithstanding any other provision of law to the contrary, (A) 39 no person shall be permitted to withdraw from the retirement system any 40 additional member contributions paid pursuant to this subdivision or any 41 interest paid thereon, except pursuant to and in accordance with the 42 preceding subparagraphs of this paragraph; and (B) no person, while they 43 are a participant in the twenty-two and one-half year improved benefit 44 retirement program, shall be permitted to withdraw any such additional 45 member contributions or any interest paid thereon pursuant to any of the 46 preceding subparagraphs of this paragraph or otherwise.

47 8. A participant in the twenty-two and one-half year improved benefit 48 retirement program shall be permitted to borrow from their additional 49 member contributions, including any interest paid thereon, which are 50 credited to the additional contributions account established for such 51 participant in the contingent reserve fund of the retirement system. The 52 borrowing from such additional member contributions pursuant to this 53 paragraph shall be governed by the same rights, privileges, obligations 54 and procedures set forth in section six hundred thirteen-b of this chap-55 ter which govern the borrowing by members subject to article fifteen of 56 this chapter of member contributions made pursuant to section six

1 hundred thirteen of this chapter. The board of trustees of the retire-2 ment system may, consistent with the provisions of this subdivision, 3 promulgate regulations governing the borrowing of such additional member 4 contributions.

5 9. Wherever a person has an unpaid balance of a loan of such person's 6 additional member contributions pursuant to paragraph eight of this 7 subdivision at the time such person becomes entitled to a refund of 8 their additional member contributions pursuant to subparagraph (ii) of 9 paragraph seven of this subdivision, the amount of such unpaid loan 10 balance, including accrued interest, shall be deemed to have been 11 returned to such member, and the refund of such additional contributions 12 shall be the net amount of such contributions, together with interest 13 thereon in accordance with the provisions of such subparagraph.

14 10. Notwithstanding any other provision of law to the contrary, the 15 provisions of section one hundred thirty-eight-b of this chapter shall 16 not be applicable to the additional member contributions which are 17 required by this subdivision.

18 11. Notwithstanding any other provision of law to the contrary, the 19 additional member contributions which are required by this subdivision 20 shall not be reduced under any program for increased-take-home-pay.

21 e. The provisions of this section shall not be construed to provide 22 benefits to any participant in the twenty-two and one-half year improved 23 benefit retirement program which are greater than those which would be 24 received by a similarly situated member who is entitled to benefits 25 under the provisions of section 13-157.5 of the administrative code, but 26 who is not governed by the provisions of this article.

26 in subparagraph (i) of this paragraph shall accrue from the end of the 27 payroll period for which such amount would have been deducted from 28 compensation if such person had been a participant at the beginning of 29 that payroll period and such deduction had been required for such 30 payroll period, until such amount is paid to the retirement system.

31 (B) The rate of interest to be applied to each such amount during the 32 period for which interest accrues on that amount shall be equal to the

36 (iii) Except as otherwise provided in paragraph five of this subdivi-

47 subparagraph (ii) of this paragraph, for any credited service for which 48 such person received a refund of such additional member contributions, 49 including any amount of an unpaid loan balance deemed to have been 50 returned to such person pursuant to paragraph twelve of this subdivi-

52 (ii) (A) Interest on a participant's additional member contributions 53 included in such participant's contribution deficiency pursuant to 54 subparagraph (i) of this paragraph shall be calculated as if such addi-55 tional member contributions had never been paid by such participant, and 56 such interest shall accrue from the end of the payroll period to which

1 an amount of such additional member contributions is attributable, until 2 such amount is paid to the retirement system.

3 (B) The rate of interest to be applied to such amount during the peri-

10 and five of this subdivision, or repay the entire amount of a loan of 11 their additional member contributions pursuant to paragraph eleven of 12 this subdivision, including accrued interest on such loan, that partic-
13 ipant, nevertheless, shall be eligible to retire pursuant to subdivision 14 c of this section, provided, however, that such participant's service

17 the method set forth in subdivision i of section six hundred thirteen-b 18 of this article, which is actuarially equivalent to:

19 (i) the amount of any unpaid contribution deficiency chargeable to 20 such member pursuant to paragraphs four and five of this subdivision; 21 plus

22 (ii) the amount of any unpaid balance of a loan of such participant's 23 additional member contributions pursuant to paragraph eleven of this 24 subdivision, including accrued interest on such loan.

25 7. Where a participant who is otherwise eligible for a vested right to 26 a deferred benefit pursuant to subdivision d of this section did not,

29 paragraphs four and five of this subdivision, or repay the entire amount 30 of a loan of their additional member contributions pursuant to paragraph 31 eleven of this subdivision, including accrued interest on such loan, 32 that participant, nevertheless, shall have a vested right to a deferred 33 benefit pursuant to subdivision d of this section provided, however, 34 that the deferred vested benefit calculated pursuant to paragraph three 35 of subdivision d of this section shall be reduced by a life annuity, 36 calculated in accordance with the method set forth in subdivision i of 37 section six hundred thirteen-b of this article, which is actuarially 38 equivalent to:

39 (i) the amount of any unpaid contribution chargeable to such member 40 pursuant to paragraphs four and five of this subdivision; plus

41 (ii) the amount of any unpaid balance of a loan of their additional 42 member contributions pursuant to paragraph eleven of this subdivision,
43 including accrued interest on such loan.

44 8. The head of a retirement system which includes participants in the 45 twenty-two and one-half year retirement program in its membership may,

48 interest thereon, by such participants, including the deduction of such 49 contributions, and any interest thereon, from the participant's compen-50 sation.

51 9. Subject to the provisions of paragraphs six and seven of this 52 subdivision, where a participant has not paid in full any contribution 53 deficiency chargeable to such participant pursuant to paragraphs four 54 and five of this subdivision, and a benefit, other than a refund of 55 member contributions pursuant to section six hundred thirteen of this 56 article or a refund of additional member contributions pursuant to 1 subparagraph (ii) of paragraph ten of this subdivision, becomes payable 2 under this article to the participant or to their designated beneficiary 3 or estate, the actuarial equivalent of any such unpaid amount shall be 4 deducted from the benefit otherwise payable.

5 10. (i) Such additional member contributions, and any interest there-6 on, shall be paid into the contingent reserve fund of the retirement 7 system of which the participant is a member and shall not for any 8 purpose be deemed to be member contributions or accumulated contrib-9 utions of a member under section six hundred thirteen of this article or 10 otherwise while they are a participant in the twenty-two and one-half 11 year retirement program or otherwise.

12 (ii) Should a participant in the twenty-two and one-half year retire-13 ment program who has rendered less than fifteen years of credited 14 service cease to hold a position as an EMT member for any reason whatso-

16 made pursuant to this subdivision, together with any interest thereon 17 paid to the retirement system, may be withdrawn by such participant 18 pursuant to procedures promulgated in regulations of the board of trus-19 tees of the retirement system, together with interest thereon at the 20 rate of five percent per annum, compounded annually.

21 (iii) Notwithstanding any other provision of law to the contrary, (A)
22 no person shall be permitted to withdraw from the retirement system any 23 additional member contributions paid pursuant to this subdivision or any 24 interest paid thereon, except pursuant to and in accordance with the 25 preceding subparagraphs of this paragraph; and (B) no person, while they 26 are a participant in the twenty-two and one-half year retirement 27 program, shall be permitted to withdraw any such additional member 28 contributions or any interest paid thereon pursuant to any of the 29 preceding subparagraphs of this paragraph or otherwise.

30 11. A participant in the twenty-two and one-half year retirement 31 program shall be permitted to borrow from their additional member 32 contributions, including any interest paid thereon, which are credited 33 to the additional contributions account established for such participant

41 the provisions of section six hundred thirteen-b of this article as made 42 applicable to this subdivision, promulgate regulations governing the 43 borrowing of such additional member contributions.

44 12. Whenever a person has an unpaid balance of a loan or such person's 45 additional member contributions pursuant to paragraph eleven of this 46 subdivision at the time they become entitled to a refund of their addi-

13 retirement program (as defined in paragraph four of subdivision a of 14 such section six hundred four-k), and who is not rendered ineligible for 15 such pick ups by another provision of law, pick up and pay to the 16 retirement system of which such participant is a member all additional 19 subdivision e of [~~such~~] section six hundred four-e of this article, or 20 pursuant to paragraphs one and two of subdivision e of section six 21 hundred four-k of this article, (not including any additional member 22 contributions due for any period prior to the first full payroll period 23 referred to in such paragraph three of such subdivision e), and shall 24 effect such pick up on each and every payroll of such participant for 25 each and every payroll period with respect to which such paragraph three 26 would otherwise require such deductions.

27 (ii) An amount equal to the amount of additional contributions picked 28 up pursuant to this paragraph shall be deducted by such employer from 29 the compensation of such member (as such compensation would be in the 30 absence of a pick up program applicable to [~~him or her~~] such member 31 hereunder) and shall not be paid to such member.

32 (iii) The additional member contributions picked up pursuant to this 33 paragraph for any such member shall be paid by such employer in lieu of 36 of section six hundred four-e of this article, and shall be deemed to be 37 and treated as employer contributions pursuant to section 414(h) of the 43 such member's additional member contributions under the applicable 44 provisions of subdivision e of section six hundred four-e and subdivi-45 sion e of section six hundred four-k of this article.

46 (v) With the exception of federal income tax treatment, the additional 47 member contributions picked up pursuant to subparagraph (i) of this 48 paragraph shall for all other purposes, including computation of retire-49 ment benefits and contributions by employers and employees, be deemed 50 employee salary. Nothing contained in this subdivision shall be 51 construed as superseding the provisions of section four hundred thirty-52 one of this chapter, or any similar provision of law which limits the 53 salary base for computing retirement benefits payable by a public 54 retirement system.

1 § 8. Section 13-125.2 of the administrative code of the city of New 22 subdivision a, pick up and pay to the retirement system all additional 23 member contributions which otherwise would be required to be deducted 24 from such member's compensation pursuant to subdivision d of such 25 section four hundred forty-five-j, and shall effect such pick up on each 26 and every payroll of such participant for each and every payroll period

16 utions if they were made by such member in the absence of a pick up 17 program applicable to such member under the provisions of this section.

2 year retirement program, as defined in paragraph four of subdivision a 3 of such section six hundred four-k, pick up and pay to the retirement

CENSUS DATA: The estimates presented herein are based on preliminary census data collected as of June 30, 2023. The census data for the emergency medical technicians assumed to elect an EMT 22.5-Year Plan is summarized below.

	NYCERS
Active Members
- Number Count:	3,657
- Average Age:	35.6
- Average Service:	8.6
- Average Salary:	71,600

IMPACT ON MEMBER BENEFITS AND CONTRIBUTIONS: The proposed legislation would provide a service retirement benefit equal to

- o 50% of Final Average Salary (FAS) for the first 22.5 years of creditable service as an EMT member,
- o plus 2.0% of Final Salary for each additional year of creditable service as an EMT member exceeding 22.5 years to a maximum of 5 years.

Once a member in the EMT 22.5-Year Plan attains 22.5 years of creditable service as an EMT member, he or she would no longer be eligible to retire under his or her respective basic plan.

The vested benefit under the EMT 22.5-Year Plans is equal to 2.0% of FAS for each year of creditable service as an EMT member.

The retirement benefits provided by the EMT 22.5-Year Plan would not be subject to cost-of-living adjustments (COLA).

Plan participants would be required to pay Additional Member Contributions (AMC) equal to 6.5% of compensation for all service on and after the starting date of the Plan until the later of the one-year anniversary of the effective date of the Plan or 27.5 years of credited service as an EMT member.

ASSUMPTIONS AND METHODS: The estimates presented herein have been calculated based on the Revised 2021 Actuarial Assumptions and Methods of NYCERS. In addition:

- o The rates of retirement for the EMT 22.5-Year Plans were assigned based on the members' eligibility to elect or opt out of the plan. The EMT 22.5-Year Plan is optional for current emergency medical technicians. The EMT 22.5-Year Plan is mandatory for future emergency medical technicians.

o New entrants were assumed to replace exiting members so that total payroll for emergency medical technicians increases by 3% each year. New entrant demographics were developed based on data for recent new hires and actuarial judgement. Future members will be mandated into the EMT 22.5-Year plan.

o For purposes of this Fiscal Note, creditable service as an EMT member was assumed to include non-EMT service, due to insufficient data.

To determine the impact of the elective nature of the proposed legislation, a subgroup of EMT members was developed based on who is assumed to benefit actuarially by comparing the net present value of future employer costs of each member's benefit under their current plan and under the applicable EMT 22.5-Year Plan.

RISK AND UNCERTAINTY: The costs presented in this Fiscal Note depend highly on the data, actuarial assumptions, methods, and models used, demographics of the impacted population, and other factors such as investment, contribution, and other risks. If actual experience deviates from actuarial assumptions, the actual costs could differ from those presented herein. Quantifying these risks is beyond the scope of this Fiscal Note.

This Fiscal Note is intended to measure pension-related impacts and does not include other potential costs (e.g., administrative and Other Postemployment Benefits). This Fiscal Note does not reflect any chapter laws that may have been enacted during the current legislative session.

STATEMENT OF ACTUARIAL OPINION: Marek Tyszkiewicz and Gregory Zelikovsky are members of the Society of Actuaries and the American Academy of Actuaries. We are members of NYCERS but do not believe it impairs our objectivity and we meet the Qualification Standards of the American Academy of Actuaries to render the actuarial opinion contained herein. To the best of our knowledge, the results contained herein have been prepared in accordance with generally accepted actuarial principles and procedures and with the Actuarial Standards of Practice issued by the Actuarial Standards Board.
