Introduced by COMMITTEE ON RULES -- (at request of M. of A. Weprin) -- read once and referred to the Committee on Insurance

AN ACT to amend the insurance law, in relation to financial loss as a result of a failed in-vitro fertilization or intrauterine insemination

The People of the State of New York, represented in Senate and Assembly, do enact as follows:

1 Section 1. Subparagraph (D) of paragraph 17 of subsection (a) of 2 section 1113 of the insurance law, as amended by section 22 of part L of 3 chapter 56 of the laws of 2020, is amended to read as follows:

4 (D) (i) (I) Indemnifying an adoptive parent for verifiable expenses
5 not prohibited under the law paid to or on behalf of the birth mother 6 when either one or both of the birth parents of the child withdraw or 7 withhold their consent to adoption. Such expenses may include materni-
8 ty-connected medical or hospital expenses of the birth mother, necessary 9 living expenses of the birth mother preceding and during confinement, 10 travel expenses of the birth mother to arrange for the adoption of the 11 child, legal fees of the birth mother, and any other expenses that an 12 adoptive parent may lawfully pay to or on behalf of the birth mother; 13 [~~or~~]

14 (II) Indemnifying an intended parent for financial loss incurred as a 15 result of the failure by the person acting as surrogate to perform under 16 the surrogacy contract due to death, bodily injury, sickness, disappear-17 ance of the person acting as surrogate, late miscarriage, or stillbirth.
18 Such financial loss shall include medical and hospital expenses, insur-
19 ance co-payments, deductibles, and coinsurance, necessary living 20 expenses of the person acting as surrogate during the term of the surro-21 gacy contract, travel expenses to arrange for the surrogacy, legal fees 22 of the person acting as surrogate, and any other expenses that an 23 intended parent may lawfully pay to or on behalf of the person acting as 24 surrogate; or

25 (III) Indemnifying an intended parent for expenses disbursed when 26 either the intended parent or a person acting as surrogate receives 27 in-vitro fertilization or intrauterine insemination treatment that fails 28 and does not result in the birth of a child. Expenses may include

1 living expenses of the person acting as surrogate during the in-vitro
2 fertilization or intrauterine insemination treatment and expenses
3 incurred by the intended parent or person acting as surrogate to travel 4 for the in-vitro fertilization or intrauterine insemination treatment.
5 Expenses also may include medical and hospital expenses not covered 6 under the intended parent's or person acting as surrogate's comprehen-7 sive health insurance and insurance co-payments, deductibles, and coin-8 surance, but credit insurance as defined in this clause shall not solely 9 cover such medical and hospital expenses, co-payments, deductibles, or 10 coinsurance; and

11 (ii) For the purposes of this subparagraph "adoptive parent" means the 12 parent or [~~his or her~~] the parent's spouse seeking to adopt a child, 13 "birth mother" means the biological mother of the child, "birth parent" 14 means the biological mother or biological father of the child, and the 15 terms "donor", "intended parent", "person acting as surrogate", and 16 "surrogacy agreement" shall have the meaning set forth in section 17 581-102 of the family court act; or

18 § 2. The insurance law is amended by adding a new section 3437 to 19 read as follows:

20 § 3437. Credit insurance for in-vitro fertilization or intrauterine
21 insemination. (a) Except as provided in subsection (b) of this section, 22 an insurer that issues a credit insurance policy pursuant to clause 23 (III) of item (i) of subparagraph (D) of paragraph seventeen of 24 subsection (a) of section one thousand one hundred thirteen of this 25 chapter shall provide a statement in the application for the insurance 26 policy and in a prominent writing upon policy issuance that the credit 27 insurance policy is not a substitute for comprehensive health insurance.

28 (b) An excess line broker who procures such a credit insurance policy 29 pursuant to section two thousand one hundred five of this chapter shall 30 provide the statement required by subsection (a) of this section on 31 behalf of the insurer.

32 § 3. This act shall take effect on the thirtieth day after it shall 33 have become a law.
