2 state of New York;

3 (iii) be rented at a rate of no more than twenty dollars per square 4 foot per year and the base rent shall be adjusted at a rate not to 5 exceed three percent per year for the term of the arts space restriction 6 period;

7 (iv) the owner of an eligible building prior to entering into a lease 8 or rental agreement with an eligible arts organization shall ensure that 9 such affordable arts space meets the conditions necessary to receive a 10 temporary certificate of occupancy as defined in the administrative code
11 of the city of New York;

12 (v) if the term of the lease or rental agreement entered into by the 13 property owner and an eligible arts organization is less than the bene-
14 fit period, the base rent for the subsequent tenant shall be equivalent 15 to the base rent of the initial tenant as adjusted annually from the 16 start date of the initial lease at a rate of no more than three percent 17 per year; and

18 (vi) any lease or rental agreement entered into by the property owner 19 of an eligible building and an eligible arts organization in addition to 20 being subject to the requirements of this subdivision shall be subject
21 to any other laws, rules, and regulations of the city of New York.

22 c. An affordable arts space shall be entitled to the following bene-
23 fits:

24 (i) for eligible buildings with rental agreements entered into with 25 eligible arts organizations, for every one dollar per square foot per 26 year of rent less than the twenty dollar per square foot maximum per 27 year, the thirty-five year benefit as defined in this section shall be 28 increased by one percent for the first thirty years of the restriction 29 period and one and one-half percent for subsequent years of the 30 restriction period;

31 (ii) for eligible buildings with rental agreements for affordable arts 32 space, for every one dollar per square foot per year of rent less than 33 the twenty dollar per square foot maximum per year, the twenty-five year 34 benefit as defined in this section shall be increased by one percent for 35 the first twenty years of the restriction period and one and a half 36 percent for subsequent years of the restriction period;

38 arts space, for every one dollar per square foot per year of rent less 39 than the twenty dollar per square foot maximum per year, the thirty-five 40 year benefit, the thirty-year benefit, and the twenty-five year benefit 41 shall be extended by six months at the previous year's exemption amount 42 up to five additional years; and

43 (iv) for eligible buildings with rental agreements for affordable arts 44 space rented below ten dollars per square foot per year, the building 45 shall qualify for an exemption from real property taxes of one hundred 46 percent in years one through five of the restriction period if the owner 47 of the eligible building provides a tenant improvement allowance of 48 fifty dollars per square foot and an exemption from real property taxes 49 of one hundred percent in years one through ten if the owner of the 50 eligible building provides a tenant improvement allowance of one hundred 51 dollars per square foot.

52 d. A rental agreement for affordable arts space shall be entered into 53 within one year of an eligible building receiving a temporary certif-
54 icate of occupancy for the residential space of the building. Benefits 55 under this subdivision shall be retroactive to the completion date
56 provided all other requirements of this subdivision are met.

1 e. An eligible multiple dwelling shall comply with the requirements
2 for affordable arts space as defined by this section for the arts space
3 restriction period.

4 f. The arts space restriction period shall be the length of the bene-
5 fit as defined in this section, notwithstanding any earlier termination
6 or revocation of AHCC program benefits.

7 § 3. Subdivision 5 of section 467-m of the real property tax law, as 8 added by section 2 of part R of chapter 56 of the laws of 2024, is 9 amended to read as follows:

10 5. Application of benefit. Based on the certification of the agency 11 certifying eligibility for AHCC program benefits, the department of 12 finance shall determine the amount of the exemption pursuant to subdivi-13 sions two [~~and~~], four and four-a of this section and shall apply the 14 exemption to the assessed value of the eligible multiple dwelling.

15 § 4. This act shall take effect immediately.
