Introduced by M. of A. EPSTEIN, SEAWRIGHT, CLARK, SIMON, COLTON, JACOB-SON -- read once and referred to the Committee on Higher Education

AN ACT to amend the education law, in relation to expanding eligibility for the tuition assistance program

The People of the State of New York, represented in Senate and Assembly, do enact as follows:

1 Section 1. Subdivision 2 of section 667 of the education law, as 2 amended by chapter 376 of the laws of 2019, is amended to read as 3 follows:

3 4 2. Duration. No undergraduate student shall be eligible for more than four academic years of study, or five academic years if the program of study normally requires five years. Students enrolled in a program of remedial study, approved by the commissioner in an institution of higher education and intended to culminate in a degree in undergraduate study 9 shall, for purposes of this section, be considered as enrolled in a program of study normally requiring five years. An undergraduate student 10 11 enrolled in an eligible two year program of study approved by the 12 commissioner shall be eligible for no more than three academic years of 13 study. An undergraduate student enrolled in an approved two or four-year 14 program of study approved by the commissioner who must transfer to 15 another institution as a result of permanent college closure shall be 16 eligible for up to two additional semesters, or their equivalent, to the extent credits necessary to complete his or her program of study were 17 deemed non-transferable from the closed institution or were deemed not 18 applicable to such student's program of study by the new institution. No 19 20 graduate student shall be eligible for more than four academic years of study provided, however, that no graduate student shall be eligible for 22 more than one degree program at the master's, first professional or doctorate level. No student shall be eliqible for a total of more than the equivalent of eight years of combined undergraduate and graduate 25 study. Any semester, quarter, or term of attendance during which a
