AN ACT to amend the civil practice law and rules, in relation to the rights of parties involved in foreclosure actions

The People of the State of New York, represented in Senate and Assembly, do enact as follows:

Section 1. Section 203 of the civil practice law and rules is amended by adding a new subdivision (i) to read as follows:

(i) Clarification. Once a cause of action upon an instrument described under subdivision four of section two hundred thirteen of this article has accrued, no party may unilaterally waive, postpone, cancel, or reset the accrual thereof, or otherwise effectuate a unilateral extension of the limitations period prescribed by law to interpose the claim, unless expressly permitted by law.

§ 2. Section 206 of the civil practice law and rules is amended by adding a new subdivision (e) to read as follows:

(e) Based on standardized mortgage instruments. In an action to foreclose upon any uniform or model mortgage instrument securing real property or any interest therein, as adopted by the federal national mortgage association (Fannie Mae), federal home loan mortgage corporation (Freddie Mac), or U.S. Department of Housing and Urban Development (HUD), the time within which the action must be commenced and the claim interposed shall be computed from the time the right to demand immediate payment in full of all sums so secured thereby may be exercised. For purposes of this subdivision only, there shall be a rebuttable presumption that all substantive conditions precedent to accrual of a cause of action to foreclose upon any such mortgage instrument, if any, have been satisfied. The presumption may be rebutted by clear and convincing evidence. Nothing contained herein shall give rise to the presumption

EXPLANATION--Matter in italics (underscored) is new; matter in brackets [-] is old law to be omitted.

9 the applicable provisions of article seventeen of the general obli-
10 gations law, the discontinuance of an action upon an instrument
11 described under subdivision four of section two hundred thirteen of this
12 chapter, by any means, shall not, in form or effect:

13 1. act as a waiver, postponement, cancellation, resetting, or tolling
14 of accrual of the cause of action;

15 2. extend the limitations period prescribed by law to interpose the 16 claim; or

17 3. automatically revoke or nullify an election of remedies made in any 18 complaint.

33 be commenced and the claims interposed within one year after this act
34 shall have become a law.
