by the minority leader of the senate, and one member to be appointed by the minority leader of the assembly.

- 3. All members appointed to the board shall be individuals who identify as LGBTQ+. No individual shall be appointed as a board member who is a member of the New York state legislature, a statewide elected official, a commissioner of an executive agency appointed by the governor, or a state officer or employee or a legislative employee as defined in section seventy-three of the public officers law.
- 9 4. The initial appointment of board members pursuant to subdivision 10 two of this section shall be staggered as follows: three members for a 11 term of one year, three members for a term of two years, three members for a term of three years, and three members for a term of four years. 12 After the initial staggering of terms, such board members shall be 13 appointed for a term of four years. No such board member shall serve 14 15 more than two consecutive four-year terms. The remainder of any such term to which a board member is appointed to fill a vacancy shall not 16 17 constitute a term in determining such board member's eligibility for 18 reappointment.
- 5. Vacancies in the membership of the commission shall be filled in the same manner provided for original appointments. All board members may be reappointed.
  - 6. Board members shall receive no compensation for their services but shall be allowed their actual and necessary expenses incurred in the performance of their duties.
  - 7. To effectuate the purposes of this section, the board may request from any department, board, bureau, commission or other agency of the state, and the same are authorized to provide, such cooperation and assistance, services and data as will enable the board to properly carry out its functions pursuant to this section.
- § 959-b. Powers and duties. The board shall have the powers and duties to:
- 1. Advise the governor regarding the development of economic, professional, cultural, and educational links between New York state and the LGBTQ+ community in New York state and advise state agencies in developing policies designed to meet the needs of the LGBTQ+ community in New York state.
  - 2. Undertake studies, conduct research, and prepare factual reports to gather information to formulate and present recommendations to the governor relating to issues of concern and importance to the LGBTQ+community in New York state.
  - 3. Advise the governor as needed regarding any statutory, regulatory, or other issues of importance to the LGBTQ+ community in New York state.
- 43 4. Work with state agencies to develop potential legislation and
  44 regulatory changes relating to issues of concern and importance to the
  45 LGBTQ+ community in New York state.
  - 5. Submit an annual report to the governor, the temporary president of the senate, and the speaker of the assembly detailing the actions of the board, and any recommendations of the board to address issues of concern and importance to the LGBTQ+ community in New York state.
- 50 § 2. This act shall take effect on the one hundred eightieth day after 51 it shall have become a law.
