§ 2. The penal law is amended by adding a new section 120.80 to read as follows:

§ 120.80 Stalking a police officer or peace officer.

A person is guilty of stalking a police officer or peace officer when:

1. He or she intentionally, and for no legitimate purpose, engages in a course of conduct directed at a specific police officer, peace officer or a person who he or she knows or reasonably should know is a member of such officer's immediate family, and knows or reasonably should know that such conduct is likely to cause reasonable fear of material harm to the physical health, safety or property of such officer or member of such officer's immediate family;

2. He or she intentionally, and for no legitimate purpose, engages in a course of conduct directed at a specific police officer, peace officer or a person who he or she knows or reasonably should know is a member of such officer's immediate family, and knows or reasonably should know that such conduct causes material harm to the mental or emotional health of such officer or member of such officer's immediate family, where such conduct consists of the following, telephoning or initiating communication or contact with such officer or a member of such officer's immediate family, and the actor was previously clearly informed to cease that conduct; or

3. He or she intentionally, and for no legitimate purpose, approaches, within one hundred yards, the private residence or place of lodging of a police officer or peace officer, without the consent of such officer, for reasons related to the officer's status or service as a police officer or peace officer and such purposes are for the purpose of harming or intimidating the officer or the officer's immediate family.

For purposes of subdivision two of this section, "following" shall include the unauthorized tracking of a police officer, peace officer, or such officer's immediate family member movements or location through the use of a global positioning system or other device.

Stalking a police officer or peace officer is a class E felony.

§ 3. Paragraph (t) and (u) of subdivision 4 of section 510.10 of the criminal procedure law, paragraph (t) as amended and paragraph (u) as added by section 2 of subpart B of part UU of chapter 56 of the laws of 2022, are amended and a new paragraph (v) is added to read as follows:

(t) any felony or class A misdemeanor involving harm to an identifiable person or property, or any charge of criminal possession of a firearm as defined in section 265.01-b of the penal law, where such charge arose from conduct occurring while the defendant was released on his or her own recognizance, released under conditions, or had yet to be arraigned after the issuance of a desk appearance ticket for a separate felony or class A misdemeanor involving harm to an identifiable person or property, or any charge of criminal possession of a firearm as defined in section 265.01-b of the penal law, provided, however, that the prosecutor must show reasonable cause to believe that the defendant committed the instant crime and any underlying crime. For the purposes of this subparagraph, any of the underlying crimes need not be a qualifying offense as defined in this subdivision. For the purposes of this paragraph, "harm to an identifiable person or property" shall include but not be limited to theft of or damage to property. However, based upon a review of the facts alleged in the accusatory instrument, if the court determines that such theft is negligible and does not appear to be in furtherance of other criminal activity, the principal shall be released on his or her own recognizance or under appropriate non-monetary conditions; ~~[ex]~~

(u) criminal possession of a weapon in the third degree as defined in subdivision three of section 265.02 of the penal law or criminal sale of a firearm to a minor as defined in section 265.16 of the penal law~~[-];~~
or

(v) stalking a police officer or peace officer as defined under section 120.80 of the penal law.

§ 4. Paragraphs (xx) and (xxi) of paragraph (b) of subdivision 1 of section 530.20 of the criminal procedure law, paragraph (xx) as amended and paragraph (xxi) as added by section 4 of subpart C of part UU of chapter 56 of the laws of 2022, are amended and a new paragraph (xxii) is added to read as follows:

(xx) any felony or class A misdemeanor involving harm to an identifiable person or property, or any charge of criminal possession of a firearm as defined in section 265.01-b of the penal law where such charge arose from conduct occurring while the defendant was released on his or her own recognizance, released under conditions, or had yet to be arraigned after the issuance of a desk appearance ticket for a separate felony or class A misdemeanor involving harm to an identifiable person or property, provided, however, that the prosecutor must show reasonable cause to believe that the defendant committed the instant crime and any underlying crime. For the purposes of this subparagraph, any of the underlying crimes need not be a qualifying offense as defined in this subdivision. For the purposes of this paragraph, "harm to an identifiable person or property" shall include but not be limited to theft of or damage to property. However, based upon a review of the facts alleged in the accusatory instrument, if the court determines that such theft is negligible and does not appear to be in furtherance of other criminal activity, the principal shall be released on his or her own recognizance or under appropriate non-monetary conditions; ~~[ex]~~

(xxi) criminal possession of a weapon in the third degree as defined in subdivision three of section 265.02 of the penal law or criminal sale

1 of a firearm to a minor as defined in section 265.16 of the penal
2 law~~[-]~~; or

3 (xxii) stalking a police officer or peace officer as defined under
4 section 120.80 of the penal law.

5 § 5. Paragraphs (t) and (u) of subdivision 4 of section 530.40 of the 6 criminal procedure law, paragraph (t) as amended and paragraph (u) as 7 added by section 4 of subpart B of part UU of chapter 56 of the laws of 8 2022, are amended and a new paragraph (v) is added to read as follows:

9 (t) any felony or class A misdemeanor involving harm to an identifi-
10 able person or property, or any charge of criminal possession of a 11 firearm as defined in section 265.01-b of the penal law, where such 12 charge arose from conduct occurring while the defendant was released on 13 his or her own recognizance, released under conditions, or had yet to be 14 arraigned after the issuance of a desk appearance ticket for a separate
15 felony or class A misdemeanor involving harm to an identifiable person 16 or property, or any charge of criminal possession of a firearm as 17 defined in section 265.01-b of the penal law, provided, however, that 18 the prosecutor must show reasonable cause to believe that the defendant
19 committed the instant crime and any underlying crime. For the purposes
20 of this subparagraph, any of the underlying crimes need not be a quali-
21 fying offense as defined in this subdivision. For the purposes of this 22 paragraph, "harm to an identifiable person or property" shall include
23 but not be limited to theft of or damage to property. However, based 24 upon a review of the facts alleged in the accusatory instrument, if the 25 court determines that such theft is negligible and does not appear to be 26 in furtherance of other criminal activity, the principal shall be 27 released on his or her own recognizance or under appropriate non-mone-
28 tary conditions; ~~[ex]~~

29 (u) criminal possession of a weapon in the third degree as defined in 30 subdivision three of section 265.02 of the penal law or criminal sale of 31 a firearm to a minor as defined in section 265.16 of the penal law~~[-]~~; or

32 (v) stalking a police officer or peace officer as defined under 33 section 120.80 of the penal law.

34 § 6. This act shall take effect on the thirtieth day after it shall 35 have become a law.
