1 experts as set forth in subdivision sixteen of this section by September 2 first, two thousand twenty-seven, the date for compliance with the 3 provisions of subpart E of part EE of chapter fifty-six of the laws of 4 two thousand fifteen, shall be suspended until such time that a new 5 evaluation system is enacted.

6 § 2. Section 3012-d of the education law is amended by adding a new 7 subdivision 18 to read as follows:

8 18. a. Notwithstanding the provisions of paragraph a of subdivision 9 four and subdivision five of this section, or of any other law, rule or 10 regulation to the contrary, until the two thousand twenty-seven--two 11 thousand twenty-eight school year, or until such time that a new evalu-12 ation system has been adopted in accordance with the provisions of 13 subdivision eleven of this section, whichever is later, school districts 14 and boards of cooperative educational services that have approved annual 15 professional performance review plans pursuant to this section shall 16 locally determine whether to utilize the student performance category as 17 part of its annual professional performance review evaluation system or 18 whether to base evaluations of classroom teachers and building princi-
19 pals solely upon the observation/school visit category ratings.

20 b. During the transition period, any student performance category
21 score and rating that is based upon grades three through eight English 22 language arts and mathematics state assessments and/or state-provided 23 growth scores on regents examinations shall be deemed advisory only. The 24 transition scores and ratings shall be used for the purposes of employ-25 ment decisions set forth in subdivision one of this section and to 26 determine whether a teacher or principal improvement plan is required.
27 Transition scores and ratings shall be calculated based upon either
28 solely the observation/school visit category, or with an alternate SLO 29 to replace such impermissible assessment measures at the sole option of 30 each school district or board of cooperative educational services, as 31 determined locally. The board of regents shall amend section 30-3.17 of 32 its rules in accordance with the terms contained herein.

33 c. During the transition period, school districts and boards of coop-
34 erative educational services shall choose whether to continue to imple-
35 ment their approved annual professional performance review plans pursu-36 ant to section three thousand twelve-c of this article or whether to 37 submit a compliant annual professional performance review plan pursuant 38 to this section and implement such plan upon its approval.

39 d. During this transition period when the state completes its transi-40 tion to higher learning standards and aligns its assessments to such 41 standards, a committee of experts shall be formed to propose a new eval-42 uation system for classroom teachers and building principals which shall 43 ultimately amend this section in accordance with the committee's recom-44 mendations, subject to legislative adoption of the same, after which the 45 board of regents shall also amend its rules in accordance with the terms 46 thereof. The committee shall be comprised of experts in the field of 47 education selected by the regents. Should the committee members be 48 selected and accept service on a voluntary basis, then there shall be no 49 remuneration for such service, provided that if volunteers cannot be 50 found, the committee members shall be remunerated in accordance with 51 legislative appropriations that shall be made to fairly compensate such 52 members.

53 e. The committee of experts shall develop a research-based evaluation
54 model that is grounded in student learning and teacher/principal effec-
55 tiveness research. The committee shall recommend an array of permissible
56 assessments for use within this new annual professional performance

1 review system. The committee shall further recommend how to measure
2 growth in a meaningful way that fairly and accurately captures teacher
3 or principal contribution to the student learning process over an appro-
4 priate interval of time. The committee shall carefully examine all
5 provisions of the current evaluation system, including current weights
6 attributable to various measures, to recommend what components thereof
7 should be continued and what should be discarded. The committee shall 8 provide a report of its recommendations by no later than September 9 first, two thousand twenty-seven.

10 § 3. Section 3012-c of the education law is amended by adding a new 11 subdivision 11 to read as follows:

12 11. Notwithstanding any other provision of law, rule, or regulation to 13 the contrary, for the two thousand twenty-two--two thousand twenty-three 14 through two thousand twenty-five--two thousand twenty-six school years, 15 or until such time that a new evaluation system has been adopted in 16 accordance with the provisions of subdivision eighteen of section three 17 thousand twelve-d of this article, whichever is later, school districts
18 and boards of cooperative educational services continuing to implement 19 their annual professional performance review plans pursuant to this 20 section shall provide transition scores and ratings that exclude any 21 student performance results based upon grades three through eight
22 English language arts and mathematics state assessments and/or state-
23 provided growth scores on regents examinations. Such transition scores 24 shall be a significant factor for employment decisions as set forth in 25 subdivision one of this section and to determine whether a teacher or 26 principal improvement plan shall be required pursuant to the provisions 27 of subdivision four of this section. The transition scores shall be 28 calculated in accordance with section 30-2.14 of the rules of the board
29 of regents, which shall be extended to remain effective during the tran-
30 sition period referenced hereinabove. The board of regents shall conform 31 section 30-2.14 to the provisions contained herein.

32 § 4. This act shall take effect immediately.
