IN ASSEMBLY

January 20, 2023

Introduced by M. of A. DINOWITZ, DAVILA, SIMON, GLICK -- read once and referred to the Committee on Consumer Affairs and Protection

AN ACT to amend the general business law, in relation to requiring certain businesses to offer identity theft prevention and mitigation services in the case of a security breach

The People of the State of New York, represented in Senate and Assembly, do enact as follows:

1 Section 1. Subdivision 10 of section 899-aa of the general business 2 law, as renumbered by chapter 117 of the laws of 2019, is renumbered to 3 be subdivision 11 and a new subdivision 10 is added to read as follows:

4 10. (a) Where a security breach from a person or business other than a 5 consumer credit reporting agency includes a social security number, and 6 that person or business is required to provide notice under subdivision 7 two of this section, that person or business shall offer each resident 8 of this state whose social security number was disclosed in the breach 9 of security or is reasonably believed to have been disclosed in the 10 breach of security, reasonable credit report monitoring, identity theft
11 prevention services and, if applicable, identity theft mitigation
12 services at no cost to said resident for a period of not less than twen-
13 ty-four months. The disclosure required by subdivision two of this 14 section shall include information for any resident of New York state 15 whose social security number was disclosed as a result of a data breach 16 to obtain free, reasonable credit report monitoring, identity theft
17 prevention services and, if applicable, identity theft mitigation
18 services as described in this section.

19 (b) The requirement to provide twenty-four months of identity theft
20 mitigation services shall not apply to any individual person or small 21 business as defined in section one hundred thirty-one of the economic 22 development law that can demonstrate a financial hardship directly owing 23 to such compliance. A request for a financial hardship waiver shall be
