Introduced by M. of A. GOODELL -- read once and referred to the Committee on Labor

AN ACT providing requirements for sick leave when such employee is subject to a mandatory or precautionary order of quarantine or isolation due to COVID-19

The People of the State of New York, represented in Senate and Assembly, do enact as follows:

Section 1. Each employee who is subject to a mandatory or precautionary order of quarantine or isolation issued by the state of New York, the department of health, local board of health, or any governmental entity duly authorized to issue such order due to COVID-19 shall be entitled to take sick leave until the termination of any such mandatory or precautionary order of quarantine or isolation. During the sick leave related to such mandatory or precautionary quarantine or isolation, an employee shall be eligible for paid family leave benefits to the extent that such sick leave is not otherwise paid by an employer pursuant to the employer's personnel policies or collective bargaining agreement.

11 § 2. This act shall take effect immediately.
