- (a) A person is guilty of aggravated cruelty to animals when he or she, with no justifiable purpose, intentionally kills or intentionally causes serious physical injury to a companion animal with aggravated cruelty. For purposes of this section, "aggravated cruelty" shall mean conduct which:
- (i) is intended to cause extreme physical pain; or
- 19 (ii) is done or carried out in an especially depraved or sadistic 20 manner.
 - (b) Nothing contained in this section shall be construed to prohibit or interfere in any way with anyone lawfully engaged in hunting, trapping, or fishing, as provided in article eleven of the environmental conservation law; the dispatch of rabid or diseased animals, as provided in article twenty-one of the public health law; the dispatch of animals posing a threat to human safety or other animals, where such action is otherwise legally authorized; or any properly conducted scientific tests, experiments, or investigations involving the use of living animals, performed or conducted in laboratories or institutions approved for such purposes by the commissioner of health pursuant to subdivision (b) of section 280.10 of this article.

32 Aggravated cruelty to animals is a class D felony.

- (b) For purposes of this section, minimum standards for determining whether shelter is appropriate to the breed and physical condition, as defined in subdivision (h) of section 280.00 of this article, of such dog and the climate outdoors shall include:
 - (i) for dogs that are restrained in any manner outdoors, shade by natural or artificial means to protect such dog from direct sunlight at all times when exposure to sunlight is likely to threaten the health of such dog;
- 47 (ii) for all dogs left outdoors in inclement weather, a housing facil-48 ity, which must: (1) have a waterproof roof; (2) be structurally sound 49 with insulation appropriate to local climatic conditions and sufficient to protect such dog from inclement weather; (3) be constructed to allow 50 51 each dog adequate freedom of movement to make normal postural adjust-52 ments, including the ability to stand up, turn around and lie down with its limbs outstretched; and (4) allow for effective removal of excre-53 tions, other waste material including but not limited to, dirt and 54 trash. Such housing facility and the area immediately surrounding it 55

1 shall be regularly cleaned to maintain a healthy and sanitary environ-
2 ment and to minimize health hazards.

- (c) Inadequate shelter may be indicated by the appearance of the housing facility itself, including but not limited to, size, structural soundness, evidence of crowding within such housing facility, healthful environment in the area immediately surrounding such facility, or by the appearance or physical condition of the dog.
- 8 (d) Nothing in this section shall be construed to affect any 9 protections afforded to dogs or other animals under any other provisions
 10 of this article.
 - (e) Nothing in this section shall prevent the seizure of a dog for a violation of this section pursuant to the authority granted under this article. Upon a finding of any violation of this section, any dog or dogs seized pursuant to the provisions of this article that have not been voluntarily surrendered by the owner or custodian or forfeited pursuant to court order shall be returned to the owner or custodian only upon proof that appropriate shelter as required by this section is being provided.
 - (f) Beginning seventy-two hours after a charge of violating this section, each day that a defendant fails to correct the deficiencies in the dog shelter for a dog that he or she owns or that is in his or her custody or control and that is left outdoors, so as to bring such shelter into compliance with the provisions of this section, shall constitute a separate offense.

Failure to provide appropriate shelter for dogs left outdoors is a violation punishable by a fine of not less than fifty dollars nor more than one hundred dollars for a first offense, and a fine of not less than one hundred dollars nor more than two hundred fifty dollars for a second and subsequent offenses. The court may, in its discretion, reduce the amount of any fine imposed for a violation of this section by the amount which the defendant proves he or she has spent providing a dog shelter or repairing an existing dog shelter to comply with the requirements of this section.

34 § 280.25 Electrocution of fur-bearing animals.

A person is guilty of electrocution of fur-bearing animals when he or she, notwithstanding any other provision of law, intentionally kills or stuns a fur-bearing animal by means of an electrical current.

Electrocution of fur-bearing animals is a class A misdemeanor.

§ 280.30 Confinement of a companion animal in a vehicle; extreme temperatures.

- (a) A person is guilty of confinement of a companion animal in a vehicle in extreme temperatures when he or she confines a companion animal in a motor vehicle in extreme heat or cold without proper ventilation or other protection from such extreme temperatures where such confinement places such companion animal in imminent danger of death or serious physical injury due to exposure to such extreme heat or cold.
- (b) If the operator of such vehicle cannot be promptly located, a police officer, peace officer, or peace officer acting as an agent of a duly incorporated humane society may take necessary steps to remove the animal or animals from such vehicle.
- (i) Police officers, peace officers or peace officers acting as agents of a duly incorporated humane society removing an animal or animals from a vehicle pursuant to this section shall place a written notice on or in the vehicle, bearing the name of the officer or agent, and the department or agency and address where the animal or animals will be taken.

 (ii) An animal or animals removed from a vehicle pursuant to this section shall, after receipt of any necessary emergency veterinary treatment, be delivered to the duly incorporated humane society or society for the prevention of cruelty to animals, or designated agent thereof, in the jurisdiction where the animal or animals were seized.

- (iii) Officers shall not be held criminally or civilly liable for actions taken reasonably and in good faith in carrying out the provisions of this section.
- 9 (c) Nothing contained in this section shall be construed to affect any 10 other protections afforded to companion animals under any other 11 provisions of this article.

12 Confinement of a companion animal in a vehicle in extreme temperatures
13 is a violation punishable by a fine of not less than fifty dollars nor 14 more than one hundred dollars for a first offense, and a fine of not
15 less than one hundred dollars nor more than two hundred fifty dollars
16 for a second and subsequent offenses.

- 17 § 280.35 Participation in a prohibited practice at a companion animal 18 grooming facility.
 - (a) A person is guilty of participating in a prohibited practice at a companion animal grooming facility, as defined in subdivision (m) of section 280.00 of this article, when he or she uses a cage or box dryer, as defined in subdivision (l) of section 280.00 of this section, which contains a heating element with the heating element turned on for the purpose of drying or aiding in the drying of a companion animal.
 - (b) Nothing contained in this section shall limit or abrogate any claim or cause of action any person may have under common law or by statute. The provisions of this section shall be in addition to any such common law and statutory remedies.

Participation in a prohibited practice at a companion animal grooming facility is a violation punishable by a civil penalty of not less than two hundred fifty dollars nor more than five hundred dollars for each violation

33 § 280.40 Piercing and tattooing of a companion animal.

A person is guilty of piercing or tattooing of a companion animal when he or she:

- (a) pierces or causes to have pierced a companion animal, unless such piercing provides a medical benefit to the companion animal whereas such piercing shall be performed by a licensed veterinarian or under the supervision of a licensed veterinarian; or
- (b) tattoos or causes to have tattooed a companion animal, unless such tattoo, as defined in subdivision (n) of section 280.00 of this article:
- (i) is done in conjunction with a medical procedure performed by a licensed veterinarian or under the supervision of a licensed veterinarian for the benefit of the companion animal and to indicate that such medical procedure has been done, provided that such tattoo is not for design purposes; or
- (ii) is done for the purpose of identification of the companion animal and not for design purposes, and such tattoo includes only such numbers and/or letters allotted by a corporation that, in the regular course of its business, maintains an animal tattoo identification registry.

Piercing and tattooing of a companion animal is a violation.

- § 280.45 Unlawful sale of baby chicks and baby rabbits.
- 53 (a) A person is guilty of unlawful sale of baby chicks or baby rabbits 54 when he or she:
- 55 (i) sells, offers for sale, barters or gives away living baby chicks,
 56 ducklings or other fowl or baby rabbits, as defined in subdivision (o)

of section 280.00 of this article, unless such person provides proper brooder facilities appropriate for the care of such baby chicks, ducklings or other fowl or baby rabbits during the time they are in the possession of such person;

- (ii) sells, offers for sale, barters or displays living baby chicks, ducklings or other fowl or baby rabbits which have been dyed, colored or otherwise treated so as to impart to them an artificial color; or
- 8 (iii) sells, offers for sale, barters or gives away living baby
 9 chicks, ducklings or other fowl or baby rabbits under two months of age
 10 in any quantity less than six.
 - (b) Nothing under this section shall be interpreted or applied to prevent or restrict teachers and qualified instructors of youth under the guidance and supervision of the New York state cooperative extension service from using eggs for non-profit educational purposes or from observing fowl hatched from such eggs for non-profit educational purposes.
- 17 Unlawful sale of baby chicks and baby rabbits is a class A misdemea-

- (a) A person is quilty of clipping or cutting the ears of a dog when he or she clips or cuts off or causes or procures another to clip or cut off the whole or any part of an ear of any dog unless an anaesthetic shall have been given to the dog and the operation is performed by a licensed veterinarian.
- (b) Each applicant for a dog license must state on such application 18 whether any ear of the dog for which he or she applies for such license 19 20 has been cut off wholly or in part.
- 21 (c) Nothing in this section shall be construed as preventing any dog 22 whose ear or ears have been clipped or cut off wholly or in part, not in violation of this section, from being imported into the state exclusive-23 ly for breeding purposes. 24

Clipping or cutting the ears of a dog is a class A misdemeanor.

§ 280.95 Stealing a companion animal. 26

A person is quilty of stealing a companion animal when he or she:

- (a) removes or causes to be removed the collar, identification tag or any other identification by which the owner may be ascertained from any 30 dog, cat or any other companion animal, as defined in subdivision (e) of section 280.00 of this article; 31
- 32 (b) entices any identified dog, cat or other such companion animal 33 into or out of any house or enclosure for the purpose of removing its 34 collar, tag or any other identification, except with the owner's permis-35
- 36 (c) entices, seizes or molests any companion animal, while it is being 37 held or led by any person or while it is properly muzzled or wearing a collar with an identification tag attached, except where such action is 38 39 incidental to the enforcement of some law or regulation; or
- (d) transports any companion animal, not lawfully in his or her possession, for the purpose of killing or selling such companion animal. 41 42 Stealing a companion animal is a class A misdemeanor.
- 43 § 280.100 Removing, seizing or transporting a dog for research purposes. 44 A person is quilty of removing, seizing or transporting a dog for research purposes when he or she removes, seizes or transports or causes 45 to remove, seize or transport any dog which belongs to or is licensed to 46 47 another for the purpose of sale, barter or to give away said dog to a 48 laboratory, hospital, research institute, medical school or any agency or organization engaged in research activity, without the express writ-49 ten permission of the owner or licensee. 50
- 51 Removing, seizing or transporting a dog for research purposes is a 52 class A misdemeanor.
- § 280.105 Unlawfully operating upon the tails of horses. 53
- 54 (a) A person is guilty of unlawfully operating upon the tails of hors-55 es when he or she:

(i) cuts the bone, tissues, muscles or tendons of the tail of any horse, mare or gelding, or otherwise operates upon it in any manner for the purpose or with the effect of docking, setting, or otherwise altering the natural carriage of the tail, or who knowingly permits the same to be done upon premises of which he or she is the owner, lessee, proprietor or user, or who assists in or is voluntarily present at such cutting; or

- (ii) shows or exhibits at any horse show or other like exhibition in this state a horse, mare or gelding, the tail of which has been cut or operated upon pursuant to this subdivision.
- (1) Provided that the provisions of this section shall not apply with respect to an animal the tail of which has been so cut or operated upon, if the owner thereof furnishes to the manager or other official having charge of the horse show or exhibition at which such animal is shown or exhibited, an affidavit by the owner, or a licensed veterinarian, in a form approved by the department of agriculture and markets, stating that the tail of such horse was so cut in a state wherein such cutting was not then specifically prohibited by the laws thereof.
- (2) Such affidavit shall, to the best of the affiant's knowledge, information and belief, identify the animal with respect to sex, age, markings, sire and dam, and state the time and place of such cutting and the name and address of the person by whom it was performed.
- (3) The affidavit shall be subject to inspection at all reasonable times by any peace officer, acting pursuant to his or her special duties, or police officer of this state, or by a designated representative of the commissioner of agriculture and markets.
- (4) In lieu of furnishing such affidavit to the manager or other official having charge of such horse show or exhibition, the owner of such horse may specify on the entry blank for the horse show or exhibition the name and address of a central registry office designated by the department of agriculture and markets where such an affidavit has already been filed and is available for inspection.
- (b) If a horse is found with the bone, tissues, muscles or tendons of its tail cut as described in subdivision (a) of this section, and with the wound resulting therefrom unhealed, upon the premises or in the charge and custody of any person, such fact shall be prima facie evidence of a violation of this section by the owner or user of such premises or the person having such charge or custody, respectively.
- Unlawfully operating upon the tails of horses is a class A misdemeanor.
- 41 § 280.110 Evidentiary and impoundment procedures by members of law
 42 enforcement.
 - Matters relating to the seizure, adoption, care, disposition and destruction of animals by members of law enforcement and members of a duly incorporated society for the prevention of cruelty to animals charged to enforce this article, ancillary to such enforcement of this article, shall be governed by article twenty-six of the agriculture and markets law and article six hundred ninety of the criminal procedure law.
- 50 § 280.115 Disposition of animals through forfeiture procedures after
 51 conviction.
- (a) In addition to any other penalty provided by law, upon conviction for any violation of section 280.05, 280.06, 280.07, 280.10, 280.15, 280.20, 280.50, 280.55, 280.60, 280.65, 280.66, 280.75, or 280.105 of this article, the convicted person may, after a duly held hearing pursuant to subdivision (f) of this section, be ordered by the court to forfeit, to a duly incorporated society for the prevention of cruelty to animals or a duly incorporated humane society or authorized agents thereof, the animal or animals which are the basis of such conviction. Upon such an order of forfeiture, the convicted person shall be deemed to have relinquished all rights to the animals which are the basis of such conviction, except those granted in subdivision (d) of this section.

- (b) No animal in the custody of a duly incorporated society for the prevention of cruelty to animals, a duly incorporated humane society, duly incorporated animal protective association, pound or its authorized agents thereof, shall be sold, transferred or otherwise made available to any person for the purpose of research, experimentation or testing. No authorized agent of a duly incorporated society for the prevention of cruelty to animals, nor of a duly incorporated humane society, duly incorporated animal protective association or pound shall use any animal placed in its custody by the duly incorporated society for the prevention of cruelty to animals or duly incorporated humane society for the prevention of cruelty to animals or duly incorporated humane society for the purpose of research, experimentation or testing.
- (c) The court may additionally order that the convicted person or any person dwelling in the same household who conspired, aided or abetted in the unlawful act which was the basis of the conviction, or who knew or should have known of the unlawful act, shall not own, harbor, or have custody or control of any other animals, other than farm animals, for a period of time which the court deems reasonable.
- (d) In the case of farm animals, the court may, in addition to the forfeiture to a duly incorporated society for the prevention of cruelty to animals or a duly incorporated humane society or authorized agents thereof, and subject to the restrictions of section 280.45 of this arti-cle and section three hundred fifty-seven of the agriculture and markets law, order the farm animals which were the basis of such conviction to be sold. In no case shall farm animals which are the basis of the conviction be redeemed by the convicted person who is the subject of the order of forfeiture or by any person dwelling in the same household who conspired, aided or abetted in the unlawful act which was the basis of such conviction, or who knew or should have known of the unlawful act. The court shall reimburse the convicted person and any duly determined interested persons, pursuant to subdivision (f) of this section, any money earned by the sale of the farm animals less any costs including, but not limited to, veterinary and custodial care, and any fines or penalties imposed by the court. The court may order that the subject animals be provided with appropriate care and treatment pending the hearing and the disposition of the charges. Any farm animal ordered forfeited but not sold shall be remanded to the custody and charge of a duly incorporated society for the prevention of cruelty to animals or duly incorporated humane society or its authorized agent thereof and disposed of pursuant to subdivision (e) of this section.
 - (e) A duly incorporated society for the prevention of cruelty to animals or a duly incorporated humane society in charge of animals forfeited pursuant to subdivision (a) of this section may, in its discretion, lawfully and without liability, adopt them to individuals other than the convicted person or person dwelling in the same household who conspired, aided or abetted in the unlawful act which was the basis of such conviction, or who knew or should have known of the unlawful act, or humanely euthanize them according to the provisions of section three hundred seventy-four of the agriculture and markets law.
 - (f) (i) Prior to an order of forfeiture of farm animals, a hearing shall be held within thirty days of conviction, to determine the pecuniary interests of any other person in the farm animals which were the basis of the conviction. Written notice shall be served at least five days prior to the hearing upon all interested persons. In addition, notice shall be made by publication in a local newspaper at least seven days prior to the hearing. For the purposes of this subdivision, interested persons shall mean any individual, partnership, firm, joint stock company, corporation, association, trust, estate, or other legal entity who the court determines may have a pecuniary interest in such farm animals.

(ii) All interested persons shall be provided an opportunity at the hearing to redeem their interest as determined by the court in such farm animals and to purchase the interest of the convicted person. The convicted person shall be entitled to be reimbursed his or her interest in the farm animals, less any costs, fines or penalties imposed by the court, as specified under subdivision (d) of this section. In no case shall the court award custody or control of the animals to any interested person who conspired, aided or abetted in the unlawful act which was the basis of such conviction, or who knew or should have known of such unlawful act.

(g) Nothing in this section shall be construed to limit or restrict in any way the rights of a secured party having a security interest in any farm animal described in this section. This section expressly does not impair or subordinate the rights of such a secured lender having a security interest in farm animals or in the proceeds from the sale of such farm animals.

§ 280.120 Officer may take possession of animals or implements used in fights among animals.

Any officer authorized by law to make arrests may lawfully take possession of any animals, or implements, or other property used or employed, or about to be used or employed, in the violation of any provision of law relating to fights among animals. He or she shall state to the person in charge thereof, at the time of such taking, his or her name and residence, and also, the time and place at which the application provided for by section 280.125 of this article will be made.

§ 280.125 Disposition of animals or implements used in fights among animals.

An officer, after taking possession of such animals, or implements, or other property, pursuant to section 280.120 of this article, shall apply to the magistrate before which the complaint was made against the offen-der violating such provision of law, for the order described herein, and shall make and file an affidavit with such magistrate, stating therein the name of the offender charged in such complaint, the time, place and description of the animals, implements or other property so taken, together with the name of the party who claims the same, if known, and that the affiant has reason to believe and does believe, stating the grounds of such belief, that the same were used or employed, or were about to be used or employed, in such violation, and will establish the truth thereof upon the trial of such offender. He or she shall then deliver such animals, implements, or other property, to such magistrate, who shall thereupon, by order in writing, place the same in the custody of an officer or other proper person named and designated in such order, to be kept until the trial or final discharge of the offender, and shall send a copy of such order, without delay, to the district attorney of the county. The officer or person named and designated in such order, shall immediately thereupon assume such custody, and shall retain such for the purpose of evidence upon such trial, subject to the order of the court before which such offender may be required to appear, until his or her final discharge or conviction. Upon the conviction of such offender, the animals, implements, or other property, shall be adjudged by the court to be forfeited. In the event of the acquittal or final discharge, without conviction, of such offender, such court shall, on demand, direct the delivery of the property held in custody to the owner thereof.

- § 4. Paragraph (a) of subdivision 24 of section 108 of the agriculture and markets law, as amended by chapter 392 of the laws of 2004, is amended to read as follows:
- (a) "Dangerous dog" means any dog which (i) without justification attacks a person, companion animal as defined in subdivision [five] (e) of section [three hundred fifty of this chapter] 280.00 of the penal farm animal as defined in subdivision [four] (d) of section [three hundred fifty of this chapter] 280.00 of the penal law or domestic animal as defined in subdivision seven of this section and causes physical injury or death, or (ii) behaves in a manner which a reasonable person would believe poses a serious and unjustified imminent threat of serious physical injury or death to one or more persons, companion animals, farm animals or domestic animals or (iii) without justification attacks a service dog, guide dog or hearing dog and causes physical injury or death.
- § 5. Subdivision 1 and paragraph (b) of subdivision 2 of section 123 of the agriculture and markets law, as amended by section 18 of part T of chapter 59 of the laws of 2010, are amended to read as follows:
- 1. Any person who witnesses an attack or threatened attack, or in the case of a minor, an adult acting on behalf of such minor, may make a complaint of an attack or threatened attack upon a person, companion animal as defined in subdivision (e) of section [three hundred fifty of this chapter 280.00 of the penal law, farm animal as defined in [such] subdivision (d) of section [three hundred fifty] 280.00 of the penal law, or a domestic animal as defined in subdivision seven of section one hundred eight of this article to a dog control officer or police officer of the appropriate municipality. Such officer shall immediately inform the complainant of his or her right to commence a proceeding as provided in subdivision two of this section and, if there is reason to believe the dog is a dangerous dog, the officer shall forthwith commence such proceeding himself or herself.
- (b) secure, humane confinement of the dog for a period of time and in a manner deemed appropriate by the court but in all instances in a manner designed to: (1) prevent escape of the dog, (2) protect the public from unauthorized contact with the dog, and (3) to protect the dog from the elements pursuant to section [three hundred fifty-three-b of this chapter 280.00 of the penal law. Such confinement shall not include lengthy periods of tying or chaining;
- 6. Section 332 of the agriculture and markets law, as amended by chapter 449 of the laws of 2010, is amended to read as follows:
- § 332. Disposition. Any person having in his or her care, custody, or control any abandoned animal, as defined in section three hundred thirty-one of this article, may deliver such animal to any duly incorporated society for the prevention of cruelty to animals or any duly incorporated humane society having facilities for the care and eventual disposition of such animals, or, in the case of dogs, cats and other small animals, to any pound maintained by or under contract or agreement with any county, city, town, or village within which such animal was aban-56 doned. The person with whom the animal was abandoned shall, however, on the day of divesting himself or herself of possession thereof, notify the person who had placed such animal in his or her custody of the name and address of the animal society or pound to which the animal has been 4 delivered, such notice to be by registered letter mailed to the last 5 known address of the person intended to be so notified. If an animal is not claimed by its owner within five days after being so delivered to 7 such duly incorporated society for the prevention of cruelty to animals, duly incorporated humane society or pound, such animal may at any time thereafter be placed for adoption in a suitable home [or outhanized in 9 10 accordance with the provisions of section three hundred seventy-four of 11 this chapter]. In no event, however, shall the use of a decompression 12 chamber or decompression device of any kind be used for the purpose of 13 destroying or disposing of such animal.

- § 7. Paragraph a of subdivision 6 of section 373 of the agriculture and markets law, as amended by chapter 289 of the laws of 2018, is amended to read as follows:
- 17 a. If any animal is seized and impounded pursuant to the provisions of 18 this section, section [three hundred fifty-three-d of this article] 280.30 of the penal law or section three hundred seventy-five of this 19 20 article for any violation of this article, upon arraignment of charges, 21 or within a reasonable time thereafter, the duly incorporated society 22 for the prevention of cruelty to animals, humane society, pound, animal shelter or any authorized agents thereof, hereinafter referred to for 23 the purposes of this section as the "impounding organization", may file 24 25 a petition with the court in which criminal charges have been filed 26 requesting that the person from whom an animal is seized or the owner of 27 the animal be ordered to post a security. The district attorney prose-28 cuting the charges may file and obtain the requested relief on behalf of the impounding organization if requested to do so by the impounding 29 30 organization. The security shall be in an amount sufficient to secure 31 payment for all reasonable expenses expected to be incurred by the 32 impounding organization in caring and providing for the animal pending 33 disposition of the charges. Reasonable expenses shall include, but not 34 be limited to, estimated medical care and boarding of the animal for at 35 least thirty days. The amount of the security, if any, shall be deter-36 mined by the court after taking into consideration all of the facts and 37 circumstances of the case including, but not limited to the recommenda-38 tion of the impounding organization having custody and care of the 39 seized animal and the cost of caring for the animal. If a security has been posted in accordance with this section, the impounding organization 40 may draw from the security the actual reasonable costs to be incurred by 41 42 such organization in caring for the seized animal.
 - § 8. Subdivision 6 of section 399-aa of the general business law, as added by chapter 573 of the laws of 2002, is amended to read as follows:
 - 6. (a) No provision of this section shall be construed to prohibit or interfere with any properly conducted scientific tests, experiments or investigations involving the use of dog or cat fur or flesh, performed or conducted in laboratories or institutions, which are approved for these purposes by the state commissioner of health in accordance with section [three hundred fifty-three of the agriculture and markets] 280.10 of the penal law.
 - (b) No provision of this section shall be construed to prohibit any person, firm, partnership or corporation from importing, selling, offering for sale, manufacturing, distributing, transporting, or otherwise marketing or trading in the fur, hair, skin, or flesh of a domesticated dog or cat for the purposes of conducting scientific tests, experiments
