2 child as defined in section 230.34-a of the penal law, or incest in the 3 first degree as defined in section 255.27 of the penal law may be 4 commenced at any time;

5 § 2. Paragraph (f) of subdivision 3 of section 30.10 of the criminal 6 procedure law, as amended by chapter 11 of the laws of 2019, is amended 7 to read as follows:

8 (f) For purposes of a prosecution involving a sexual offense as 9 defined in article one hundred thirty of the penal law[, ~~other than a~~ 10 ~~sexual offense delineated in paragraph (a) of subdivision two of this~~ 11 ~~section,~~] committed against a child less than eighteen years of age, the 12 period of limitation shall not begin to run until the child has reached 13 the age of twenty-three or the offense is reported to a law enforcement 14 agency or statewide central register of child abuse and maltreatment, 15 whichever occurs earlier. This paragraph shall not apply to sexual 16 offenses delineated in paragraph (a) of subdivision two of this section 17 committed against a child less than eighteen years of age, sex traffick-18 ing as defined in section 230.34 of the penal law committed against a 19 child less than eighteen years of age, sex trafficking of a child as 20 defined in section 230.34-a of the penal law, incest in the first, 21 second or third degree as defined in sections 255.27, 255.26 and 255.25 22 of the penal law committed against a child less than eighteen years of 23 age, or use of a child in a sexual performance as defined in section 24 263.05 of the penal law[, ~~the period of limitation shall not begin to~~ 25 ~~run until the child has reached the age of twenty-three or the offense~~ 26 ~~is reported to a law enforcement agency or statewide central register of~~ 27 ~~child abuse and maltreatment, whichever occurs earlier~~].

28 § 3. Subdivision (b) of section 208 of the civil practice law and 29 rules, as added by chapter 11 of the laws of 2019, is amended to read as 30 follows:

31 (b) Notwithstanding any provision of law which imposes a period of 32 limitation to the contrary and the provisions of any other law pertain-
33 ing to the filing of a notice of claim or a notice of intention to file
34 a claim as a condition precedent to commencement of an action or special 35 proceeding, with respect to all civil claims or causes of action brought 36 by any person for physical, psychological or other injury or condition 37 suffered by such person as a result of conduct which would constitute a 38 sexual offense as defined in article one hundred thirty of the penal law
39 committed against such person who was less than eighteen years of age, 40 sex trafficking as defined in section 230.34 of the penal law committed 41 against such person who was less than eighteen years of age, sex traf-42 ficking of a child as defined in section 230.34-a of the penal law,
43 incest as defined in section 255.27, 255.26 or 255.25 of the penal law
44 committed against such person who was less than eighteen years of age, 45 or the use of such person in a sexual performance as defined in section 46 263.05 of the penal law, or a predecessor statute that prohibited such 47 conduct at the time of the act, which conduct was committed against such 48 person who was less than eighteen years of age, such action may be 49 commenced, against any party whose intentional or negligent acts or 50 omissions are alleged to have resulted in the commission of said
51 conduct, on or before the plaintiff or infant plaintiff reaches the age 52 of fifty-five years. In any such claim or action, in addition to any 53 other defense and affirmative defense that may be available in accord-54 ance with law, rule or the common law, to the extent that the acts 55 alleged in such action are of the type described in subdivision one of 56 section 130.30 of the penal law or subdivision one of section 130.45 of

1 the penal law, the affirmative defenses set forth, respectively, in the 2 closing paragraph of such sections of the penal law shall apply.

3 § 4. Section 214-g of the civil practice law and rules, as amended by 4 chapter 130 of the laws of 2020, is amended to read as follows:

5 § 214-g. (a) Certain child sexual abuse cases. Notwithstanding any 6 provision of law which imposes a period of limitation to the contrary 7 and the provisions of any other law pertaining to the filing of a notice 8 of claim or a notice of intention to file a claim as a condition prece-9 dent to commencement of an action or special proceeding, every civil 10 claim or cause of action brought against any party alleging intentional 11 or negligent acts or omissions by a person for physical, psychological, 12 or other injury or condition suffered as a result of conduct which would 13 constitute a sexual offense as defined in article one hundred thirty of 14 the penal law committed against a child less than eighteen years of age,
15 incest as defined in section 255.27, 255.26 or 255.25 of the penal law
16 committed against a child less than eighteen years of age, or the use of 17 a child in a sexual performance as defined in section 263.05 of the 18 penal law, or a predecessor statute that prohibited such conduct at the 19 time of the act, which conduct was committed against a child less than 20 eighteen years of age, which is barred as of the effective date of this 21 section because the applicable period of limitation has expired, and/or 22 the plaintiff previously failed to file a notice of claim or a notice of 23 intention to file a claim, is hereby revived, and action thereon may be 24 commenced not earlier than six months after, and not later than two 25 years and six months after the effective date of this section. In any 26 such claim or action: (a) in addition to any other defense and affirma-27 tive defense that may be available in accordance with law, rule or the 28 common law, to the extent that the acts alleged in such action are of 29 the type described in subdivision one of section 130.30 of the penal law 30 or subdivision one of section 130.45 of the penal law, the affirmative 31 defenses set forth, respectively, in the closing paragraph of such 32 sections of the penal law shall apply; and (b) dismissal of a previous 33 action, ordered before the effective date of this section, on grounds 34 that such previous action was time barred, and/or for failure of a party 35 to file a notice of claim or a notice of intention to file a claim, 36 shall not be grounds for dismissal of a revival action pursuant to this 37 section.

38 (b) Notwithstanding any provision of law which imposes a period of 39 limitation to the contrary and the provisions of any other law pertain-
40 ing to the filing of a notice of claim or a notice of intention to file
41 a claim as a condition precedent to commencement of an action or special 42 proceeding, every civil claim or cause of action brought against any 43 party alleging intentional or negligent acts or omissions by a person 44 for physical, psychological, or other injury or condition suffered as a 45 result of conduct which would constitute sex trafficking as defined in 46 section 230.34 of the penal law committed against a child less than 47 eighteen years of age or sex trafficking of a child as defined in 48 section 230.34-a of the penal law, which is barred as of the effective 49 date of this subdivision because the applicable period of limitation has 50 expired, and/or the plaintiff previously failed to file a notice of 51 claim or a notice of intention to file a claim, is hereby revived, and 52 action thereon may be commenced not earlier than six months after, and 53 not later than one year and six months after the effective date of this 54 subdivision. In any such claim or action, dismissal of a previous 55 action, ordered before the effective date of this subdivision, on 56 grounds that such previous action was time barred, and/or for failure of a party to file a notice of claim or a notice of intention to file a claim, shall not be grounds for dismissal of a revival action pursuant to this subdivision.

§ 5. Section 213-c of the civil practice law and rules, as amended by chapter 315 of the laws of 2019, is amended to read as follows:

§ 213-c. Action by victim of conduct constituting certain sexual offenses. Notwithstanding any other limitation set forth in this article, except as provided in subdivision (b) of section two hundred eight of this article, all civil claims or causes of action brought by any person for physical, psychological or other injury or condition suffered by such person as a result of conduct which would constitute rape in the first degree as defined in section 130.35 of the penal law, or rape in the second degree as defined in subdivision two of section 130.30 of the penal law, or rape in the third degree as defined in subdivision one or three of section 130.25 of the penal law, or criminal sexual act in the first degree as defined in section 130.50 of the penal law, or criminal sexual act in the second degree as defined in subdivision two of section 130.45 of the penal law, or criminal sexual act in the third degree as defined in subdivision one or three of section 130.40 of the penal law, or incest in the first degree as defined in section 255.27 of the penal law, or incest in the second degree as defined in section 255.26 of the penal law (where the crime committed is rape in the second degree as defined in subdivision two of section 130.30 of the penal law or criminal sexual act in the second degree as defined in subdivision two of section 130.45), or aggravated sexual abuse in the first degree as defined in section 130.70 of the penal law, or course of sexual conduct against a child in the first degree as defined in section 130.75 of the penal law, or sex trafficking as defined in section 230.34 of the penal law, or sex trafficking of a child as defined in section 230.34-a of the penal law may be brought against any party whose intentional or negligent acts or omissions are alleged to have resulted in the commission of the said conduct, within twenty years. Nothing in this section shall be construed to require that a criminal charge be brought or a criminal conviction be obtained as a condition of bringing a civil cause of action or receiving a civil judgment pursuant to this section or be construed to require that any of the rules governing a criminal proceeding be applicable to any such civil action.

§ 6. The civil practice law and rules is amended by adding a new section 214-k to read as follows:

§ 214-k. Certain sexual offense actions. Notwithstanding any provision of law which imposes a period of limitation to the contrary and the provisions of any other law pertaining to the filing of a notice of claim or a notice of intention to file a claim as a condition precedent to commencement of an action or special proceeding, every civil claim or cause of action brought against any party alleging intentional or negligent acts or omissions by a person for physical, psychological, or other injury or condition suffered as a result of conduct which would constitute sex trafficking as defined in section 230.34 of the penal law committed against such person who was eighteen years of age or older, which is barred as of the effective date of this section because the applicable period of limitation has expired, and/or the plaintiff previously failed to file a notice of claim or a notice of intention to file a claim, is hereby revived, and action thereon may be commenced not earlier than six months after, and not later than one year and six months after the effective date of this section. In any such claim or action, dismissal of a previous action, ordered before the effective date of this section, on grounds that such previous action was time barred, and/or for failure of a party to file a notice of claim or a notice of intention to file a claim, shall not be grounds for dismissal of a revival action pursuant to this section.

§ 7. Paragraph 7 of subdivision (a) of rule 3403 of the civil practice law and rules, as amended by chapter 203 of the laws of 2022, is amended to read as follows:

7. any action which has been revived pursuant to subdivision (a) or (b) of section two hundred fourteen-g [~~ex~~], two hundred fourteen-j, or two hundred fourteen-k of this chapter.

§ 8. Section 219-e of the judiciary law, as added by chapter 203 of the laws of 2022, is amended to read as follows:

§ 219-e. Rules reviving certain actions; sexual offenses. The chief administrator of the courts shall promulgate rules for the timely adjudication of revived actions brought pursuant to section two hundred fourteen-j and section two hundred fourteen-k of the civil practice law and rules.

§ 9. Paragraph (b) of subdivision 8 of section 50-e of the general municipal law, as added by chapter 11 of the laws of 2019, is amended to read as follows:

(b) This section shall not apply to any claim made for physical, psychological, or other injury or condition suffered as a result of conduct which would constitute a sexual offense as defined in article one hundred thirty of the penal law committed against a child less than eighteen years of age, sex trafficking as defined in section 230.34 of the penal law committed against a child less than eighteen years of age, sex trafficking of a child as defined in section 230.34-a of the penal law, incest as defined in section 255.27, 255.26 or 255.25 of the penal law committed against a child less than eighteen years of age, or the use of a child in a sexual performance as defined in section 263.05 of the penal law committed against a child less than eighteen years of age.

§ 10. Subdivision 5 of section 50-i of the general municipal law, as added by chapter 11 of the laws of 2019, is amended to read as follows:

5. Notwithstanding any provision of law to the contrary, this section shall not apply to any claim made against a city, county, town, village, fire district or school district for physical, psychological, or other injury or condition suffered as a result of conduct which would constitute a sexual offense as defined in article one hundred thirty of the penal law committed against a child less than eighteen years of age, sex trafficking as defined in section 230.34 of the penal law committed against a child less than eighteen years of age, sex trafficking of a child as defined in section 230.34-a of the penal law, incest as defined in section 255.27, 255.26 or 255.25 of the penal law committed against a child less than eighteen years of age, or the use of a child in a sexual performance as defined in section 263.05 of the penal law committed against a child less than eighteen years of age.

§ 11. Subdivision 10 of section 10 of the court of claims act, as added by chapter 11 of the laws of 2019, is amended to read as follows:

10. Notwithstanding any provision of law to the contrary, this section shall not apply to any claim to recover damages for physical, psychological, or other injury or condition suffered as a result of conduct which would constitute a sexual offense as defined in article one hundred thirty of the penal law committed against a child less than eighteen years of age, sex trafficking as defined in section 230.34 of the penal law committed against a child less than eighteen years of age, sex trafficking of a child as defined in section 230.34-a of the penal law,

1 incest as defined in section 255.27, 255.26 or 255.25 of the penal law
2 committed against a child less than eighteen years of age, or the use of 3 a child in a sexual performance as defined in section 263.05 of the 4 penal law committed against a child less than eighteen years of age.

5 § 12. Subdivision 2 of section 3813 of the education law, as amended 6 by chapter 11 of the laws of 2019, is amended to read as follows:

7 2. Notwithstanding anything to the contrary hereinbefore contained in 8 this section, no action or special proceeding founded upon tort shall be 9 prosecuted or maintained against any of the parties named in this 10 section or against any teacher or member of the supervisory or adminis-11 trative staff or employee where the alleged tort was committed by such 12 teacher or member or employee acting in the discharge of his duties 13 within the scope of his employment and/or under the direction of the 14 board of education, trustee or trustees, or governing body of the school 15 unless a notice of claim shall have been made and served in compliance
16 with section fifty-e of the general municipal law. Every such action 17 shall be commenced pursuant to the provisions of section fifty-i of the 18 general municipal law; provided, however, that this section shall not 19 apply to any claim to recover damages for physical, psychological, or 20 other injury or condition suffered as a result of conduct which would 21 constitute a sexual offense as defined in article one hundred thirty of 22 the penal law committed against a child less than eighteen years of age, 23 sex trafficking of a child as defined in section 230.34-a of the penal 24 law committed against a child less than eighteen years of age, incest as 25 defined in section 255.27, 255.26 or 255.25 of the penal law committed 26 against a child less than eighteen years of age, or the use of a child 27 in a sexual performance as defined in section 263.05 of the penal law 28 committed against a child less than eighteen years of age.

29 § 13. Severability. If any clause, sentence, paragraph, section or 30 part of this act shall be adjudged by any court of competent jurisdic-
31 tion to be invalid and after exhaustion of all further judicial review, 32 the judgment shall not affect, impair or invalidate the remainder there-33 of, but shall be confined in its operation to the clause, sentence, 34 paragraph, section or part of this act directly involved in the contro-35 versy in which the judgment shall have been rendered.

36 § 14. This act shall take effect immediately and shall apply to acts 37 or omissions occurring on or after such effective date and to acts or 38 omissions occurring prior to such effective date where the applicable 39 statute of limitations in effect on the date of such act or omission has 40 not yet expired.
