~~required in the interests of public protection]~~ by imposing the minimum sentence necessary to achieve the goals of sentencing outlined above.

§ 2. Section 380.20 of the criminal procedure law is amended to read as follows:

§ 380.20 Sentence required.

1. The court must pronounce sentence in every case where a conviction is entered. If an accusatory instrument contains multiple counts and a conviction is entered on more than one count the court must pronounce sentence on each count.

2. When entering a sentence that includes a term of imprisonment, or within seven days thereafter, the court shall issue a written decision explaining its choice of sentence, based on individualized findings, sufficient to facilitate appellate review. A defendant may knowingly and voluntarily waive the right to a written decision.

§ 3. Paragraph (a) of subdivision 3 of section 390.30 of the criminal procedure law, as added by chapter 14 of the laws of 1985, is amended to read as follows:

(a) The report of the pre-sentence investigation must contain an analysis of as much of the information gathered in the investigation as the agency that conducted the investigation deems relevant to the question of sentence. The report must also include any other ~~[information]~~ information that the court directs to be included and the material required by paragraph (b) of this subdivision which shall be considered part of the report. The report shall include an analysis of the actual financial cost of incarceration to the state and/or localities of the potential sentences that may be imposed.

§ 4. Subdivision 1 and paragraph (a) of subdivision 2 of section 390.50 of the criminal procedure law, subdivision 1 as separately amended by chapters 224 and 369 of the laws of 1986 and paragraph (a) of subdivision 2 as amended by chapter 31 of the laws of 2019, are amended to read as follows:

1. In general. Any pre-sentence report or memorandum submitted to the court pursuant to this article and any medical, psychiatric or social agency report or other information gathered for the court by a probation department, or submitted directly to the court, in connection with the question of sentence is confidential and may not be made available by any state agency, including the state department of corrections and community supervision, to any person or public or private agency except where specifically required or permitted by statute or upon specific authorization of the court. Section one hundred forty-seven of the correction law shall not be deemed to permit such disclosure. For purposes of this section, any report, memorandum or other information forwarded to a probation department within this state from a probation agency outside this state is governed by the same rules of confidentiality. Any person, public or private agency receiving such material must retain it under the same conditions of confidentiality as apply to the probation department that made it available.

(a) Not less than one court day prior to sentencing, unless such time requirement is waived by the parties, the pre-sentence report or memorandum shall be made available by the court for examination and for copying and retention by the defendant's attorney, the defendant himself, ~~[if he has no attorney,~~ and the prosecutor. The defendant shall be given an opportunity to challenge or correct any fact or conclusion in the pre-sentence report or memorandum prior to the court's pronouncement of sentence. In its discretion, the court may except from disclosure a part or parts of the report or memoranda which are not relevant to a proper sentence, or a diagnostic opinion which might seriously disrupt a program of rehabilitation, or sources of information which have been obtained on a promise of confidentiality, or any other portion thereof, disclosure of which would not be in the interest of justice. In all cases where a part or parts of the report or memoranda are not disclosed, the court shall state for the record that a part or parts of the report or memoranda have been excepted and the reasons for its action. The action of the court excepting information from disclosure shall be subject to appellate review. The pre-sentence report shall be made available by the court for examination and copying in connection with any appeal in the case, including an appeal under this subdivision. Upon written request, the court shall make a copy of the presentence report, other than a part or parts of the report redacted by the court pursuant to this paragraph, available to the defendant for use before the parole board for release consideration or an appeal of a parole board determination or an application for resentencing pursuant to section 440.46 or 440.47 of this chapter. [~~In his or her written request to the court the defendant shall affirm that he or she anticipates an appearance before the parole board or intends to file an administrative appeal of a parole board determination or meets the eligibility criteria for and intends to file a motion for resentencing pursuant to 440.46 of this chapter or has received notification from the court which received his or her request to apply for resentencing pursuant to section 440.47 of this chapter confirming that he or she is eligible to submit an application for resentencing pursuant to section 440.47 of this chapter.~~] The court shall respond to the defendant's written request within twenty days from receipt of the defendant's written request.

§ 70.00 Sentence of imprisonment for felony.

1. Indeterminate sentence. Except as provided in subdivisions three and four[~~, five and six~~] of this section or section 70.80 of this article, [~~a~~] the term of sentence [~~of imprisonment~~] for a felony, other than a felony defined in article two hundred twenty [~~or two hundred twenty-one~~] of this chapter, shall be fixed by the court. If a court finds that sentence of imprisonment of more than one year is the minimum term of imprisonment necessary to achieve the goals of sentencing, the court shall impose an indeterminate sentence. When such a sentence is imposed, the court shall impose a maximum term in accordance with the provisions of subdivision two of this section [~~and the minimum period of imprisonment shall be as provided in subdivision three of this section~~]. The minimum period shall be fixed by the court and specified in the sentence and shall be not less than one year nor more than one-third of the maximum term imposed, or the court may impose a definite sentence of imprisonment and fix a term of less than one year.

2. Maximum term of sentence. The maximum term of an indeterminate sentence shall be at least three years and the term shall be fixed as follows:

(a) For a class A felony, the term shall be life imprisonment;

1 (b) For a class B felony, the term shall be fixed by the court, and
2 shall not exceed twenty-five years;

3 (c) For a class C felony, the term shall be fixed by the court, and
4 shall not exceed fifteen years;

5 (d) For a class D felony, the term shall be fixed by the court, and
6 shall not exceed seven years; and

7 (e) For a class E felony, the term shall be fixed by the court, and 8 shall not exceed four years.

9 ~~3. [Minimum period of imprisonment. The minimum period of imprisonment~~
10 ~~under an indeterminate sentence shall be at least one year and shall be~~
11 ~~fixed as follows:~~

12 ~~(a) In the case of a class A felony, the minimum period shall be fixed~~
13 ~~by the court and specified in the sentence.~~

14 ~~(i) For a class A-I felony, such minimum period shall not be less than~~ 15 ~~fifteen years nor more than twenty-five years; provided, however, that~~
16 ~~(A) where a sentence, other than a sentence of death or life imprison-~~
17 ~~ment without parole, is imposed upon a defendant convicted of murder in~~
18 ~~the first degree as defined in section 125.27 of this chapter such mini-~~
19 ~~mum period shall be not less than twenty years nor more than twenty-five~~
20 ~~years, and, (B) where a sentence is imposed upon a defendant convicted~~
21 ~~of murder in the second degree as defined in subdivision five of section~~
22 ~~125.25 of this chapter or convicted of aggravated murder as defined in~~
23 ~~section 125.26 of this chapter, the sentence shall be life imprisonment~~
24 ~~without parole, and, (C) where a sentence is imposed upon a defendant~~
25 ~~convicted of attempted murder in the first degree as defined in article~~
26 ~~one hundred ten of this chapter and subparagraph (i), (ii) or (iii) of~~ 27 ~~paragraph (a) of subdivision one and paragraph (b) of subdivision one of~~
28 ~~section 125.27 of this chapter or attempted aggravated murder as defined~~
29 ~~in article one hundred ten of this chapter and section 125.26 of this~~
30 ~~chapter such minimum period shall be not less than twenty years nor more~~
31 ~~than forty years.~~

32 ~~(ii) For a class A-II felony, such minimum period shall not be less~~
33 ~~than three years nor more than eight years four months, except that for~~
34 ~~the class A-II felony of predatory sexual assault as defined in section~~
35 ~~130.95 of this chapter or the class A-II felony of predatory sexual~~
36 ~~assault against a child as defined in section 130.96 of this chapter,~~
37 ~~such minimum period shall be not less than ten years nor more than twenty-five years.~~

39 ~~(b) For any other felony, the minimum period shall be fixed by the~~
40 ~~court and specified in the sentence and shall be not less than one year~~
41 ~~nor more than one third of the maximum term imposed.~~

42 ~~4. Alternative definite sentence for class D and E felonies. When a~~
43 ~~person, other than a second or persistent felony offender, is sentenced~~
44 ~~for a class D or class E felony, and the court, having regard to the~~
45 ~~nature and circumstances of the crime and to the history and character~~
46 ~~of the defendant, is of the opinion that a sentence of imprisonment is~~
47 ~~necessary but that it would be unduly harsh to impose an indeterminate~~
48 ~~or determinate sentence, the court may impose a definite sentence of~~
49 ~~imprisonment and fix a term of one year or less.~~

50 ~~5.] Life imprisonment without parole. Notwithstanding any other~~
51 ~~provision of law, a defendant sentenced to life imprisonment without~~
52 ~~parole shall not be or become eligible for parole or conditional~~
53 ~~release. For purposes of commitment and custody, other than parole and~~
54 ~~conditional release, such sentence shall be deemed to be an indetermi-~~
55 ~~nate sentence. A defendant may be sentenced to life imprisonment without~~ 56 ~~parole upon conviction for the crime of murder in the first degree as~~ defined in section 125.27 of this chapter and in accordance with the procedures provided by law for imposing a sentence for such crime. A defendant who was eighteen years of age or older at the time of the commission of the crime must be sentenced to life imprisonment without parole upon conviction for the crime of terrorism as defined in section 490.25 of this chapter, where the specified offense the defendant committed is a class A-I felony; the crime of criminal possession of a chemical weapon or biological weapon in the first degree as defined in section 490.45 of this chapter; or the crime of criminal use of a chemical weapon or biological weapon in the first degree as defined in section 490.55 of this chapter; provided, however, that nothing in this subdivision shall preclude or prevent a sentence of death when the defendant is also convicted of the crime of murder in the first degree as defined in section 125.27 of this chapter. A defendant who was seventeen years of age or younger at the time of the commission of the crime may be sentenced, in accordance with law, to the applicable indeterminate sentence with a maximum term of life imprisonment. A defendant must be sentenced to life imprisonment without parole upon conviction for the crime of murder in the second degree as defined in subdivision five of section 125.25 of this chapter or for the crime of aggravated murder as defined in subdivision one of section 125.26 of this chapter. A defendant may be sentenced to life imprisonment without parole upon conviction for the crime of aggravated murder as defined in subdivision two of section 125.26 of this chapter.

~~[6.] 4. Determinate sentence. [Except as provided in subdivision four of this section and subdivisions two and four of section 70.02, when]~~ When a person is sentenced as a violent felony offender pursuant to section 70.02 ~~[or as a second violent felony offender pursuant to section 70.04 or as a second felony offender on a conviction for a violent felony offense pursuant to section 70.06]~~ of this article, the sentence shall be fixed by the court. If a court finds that a sentence of imprisonment of more than one year is the minimum term of imprisonment necessary to achieve the goals of sentencing, the court must impose a determinate sentence of imprisonment in accordance with the provisions of such ~~[sections and such sentence shall include, as a part thereof, a period of post release supervision in accordance with section 70.45]~~ section.

~~[3.] 2. Term of sentence. The term [of a determinate sentence]~~ for a violent felony offense must be fixed by the court. The court may impose a definite sentence of imprisonment and fix a term of less than one year. If a court finds that a sentence of imprisonment of more than one year is the minimum term of imprisonment necessary to achieve the goals of sentencing, the court shall impose a determinate sentence as follows:

(a) For a class B felony, the term must be at least ~~[five years]~~ one year and must not exceed twenty-five years, provided, however, that the

If the court does not specify the manner in which a sentence imposed by it is to run, the sentence shall run as follows:

(a) An indeterminate or determinate sentence shall run concurrently with all other terms; and

(b) A definite sentence shall run concurrently with [~~any sentence imposed at the same time and shall be consecutive to any other term~~] all other terms.

2. When more than one sentence of imprisonment is imposed on a person for two or more offenses committed through a single act or omission, or through an act or omission which in itself constituted one of the offenses and also was a material element of the other, the sentences, except if one or more of such sentences is for a violation of section 270.20 of this chapter, must run concurrently.

~~2-a. When an indeterminate or determinate sentence of imprisonment is imposed pursuant to section 70.04, 70.06, 70.07, 70.08, 70.10, subdivision three or four of section 70.70, subdivision three or four of section 70.71 or subdivision five of section 70.80 of this article, or is imposed for a class A-I felony pursuant to section 70.00 of this article, and such person is subject to an undischarged indeterminate or determinate sentence of imprisonment imposed prior to the date on which the present crime was committed, the court must impose a sentence to run consecutively with respect to such undischarged sentence.~~

The defendant and the district attorney shall have an opportunity to present relevant information to assist the court in making this determination and the court may, in its discretion, conduct a hearing with respect to any issue bearing upon such determination. If the court determines that consecutive sentences should not be ordered, it shall make a statement on the record of the facts and circumstances upon which such determination is based.~~

The defendant and the district attorney shall have an opportunity to present relevant information to assist the court in making this determination and the court may, in its discretion, conduct a hearing with respect to any issue bearing upon such determination. If the court determines that consecutive sentences should not be ordered, it shall make a statement on the record of the facts and circumstances upon which such determination is based.~~

Provided, however, that the court may, in the interest of justice, order a sentence to run concurrently in a situation where consecutive sentences are required by this subdivision if it finds mitigating circumstances that bear directly upon the manner in which the crime was committed. The defendant and the district attorney shall have an opportunity to present relevant information to assist the court in making this determination and the court may, in its discretion, conduct a hearing with respect to any issue bearing upon such determination. If the court determines that consecutive sentences should not be ordered, it shall make a statement on the record of the facts and circumstances upon which such determination is based.~~

3. Where consecutive definite sentences of imprisonment are not prohibited by subdivision two of this section and are imposed on a person for offenses which were committed as parts of a single incident or transaction, the aggregate of the terms of such sentences shall not exceed one year.

4. When a person, who is subject to any undischarged term of imprisonment imposed at a previous time by a court of another jurisdiction, is sentenced to an additional term or terms of imprisonment by a court of this state, the sentence or sentences imposed by the court of this state, subject to the provisions of subdivisions one, two and three of this section, shall run either concurrently or consecutively with respect to such undischarged term in such manner as the court directs at the time of sentence. 42 certify such credit to the sentencing court. If the credit so certified 43 is sufficient to satisfy the conditional release date of the sentence or 44 sentences imposed by the court, the defendant shall not be further
45 committed to custody pursuant to such sentence or sentences, except as 46 otherwise expressly provided by law.

47 (b) Where the defendant is otherwise subject to probation, parole,
48 conditional release or post-release supervision under the terms of the 49 court's sentence, the court shall direct the defendant to appear forth-
