§ 2. Subdivision 6 of section 1.05 of the penal law, as amended by chapter 98 of the laws of 2006, is amended to read as follows:

6. To [~~insure the public~~] promote community safety by [~~preventing the commission of offenses through the deterrent influence of the sentences authorized,~~] supporting the rehabilitation of [~~these~~] individuals who have been convicted, [~~the promotion of~~] and their successful and productive reentry and reintegration into society[, ~~and their confinement when required in the interests of public protection~~] by imposing the minimum sentence necessary to achieve the goals of sentencing outlined above.

§ 3. Section 380.20 of the criminal procedure law is amended to read as follows:

§ 380.20 Sentence required.

1. The court must pronounce sentence in every case where a conviction is entered. If an accusatory instrument contains multiple counts and a conviction is entered on more than one count the court must pronounce sentence on each count.

2. When entering a sentence that includes a term of imprisonment, or within seven days thereafter, the court shall issue a written decision explaining its choice of sentence, based on individualized findings, sufficient to facilitate appellate review. A defendant may knowingly and voluntarily waive the right to a written decision.

§ 4. Paragraph (a) of subdivision 3 of section 390.30 of the criminal procedure law, as added by chapter 14 of the laws of 1985, is amended to read as follows:

(a) The report of the pre-sentence investigation must contain an analysis of as much of the information gathered in the investigation as the agency that conducted the investigation deems relevant to the question of sentence. The report must also include any other [~~information~~] information that the court directs to be included and the material required by paragraph (b) of this subdivision which shall be considered part of the report. The report shall include an analysis of the actual financial cost of incarceration to the state and/or localities of the potential sentences that may be imposed.

§ 5. Subdivision 1 and paragraph (a) of subdivision 2 of section 390.50 of the criminal procedure law, subdivision 1 as separately amended by chapters 224 and 369 of the laws of 1986 and paragraph (a) of subdivision 2 as amended by chapter 31 of the laws of 2019, are amended to read as follows:

1. In general. Any pre-sentence report or memorandum submitted to the court pursuant to this article and any medical, psychiatric or social agency report or other information gathered for the court by a probation department, or submitted directly to the court, in connection with the question of sentence is confidential and may not be made available by any state agency, including the state department of corrections and community supervision, to any person or public or private agency except where specifically required or permitted by statute or upon specific authorization of the court. Section one hundred forty-seven of the correction law shall not be deemed to permit such disclosure. For purposes of this section, any report, memorandum or other information forwarded to a probation department within this state from a probation agency outside this state is governed by the same rules of confidentiality. Any person, public or private agency receiving such material must retain it under the same conditions of confidentiality as apply to the probation department that made it available.

(a) Not less than one court day prior to sentencing, unless such time requirement is waived by the parties, the pre-sentence report or memo-random shall be made available by the court for examination and for copying and retention by the defendant's attorney, the defendant himself, [~~if he has no attorney,~~] and the prosecutor. The defendant shall be given an opportunity to challenge or correct any fact or conclusion in the pre-sentence report or memorandum prior to the court's pronouncement of sentence. In its discretion, the court may except from disclosure a part or parts of the report or memoranda which are not relevant to a proper sentence, or a diagnostic opinion which might seriously disrupt a program of rehabilitation, or sources of information which have been obtained on a promise of confidentiality, or any other portion thereof, disclosure of which would not be in the interest of justice. In all cases where a part or parts of the report or memoranda are not disclosed, the court shall state for the record that a part or parts of the report or memoranda have been excepted and the reasons for its action. The action of the court excepting information from disclosure shall be subject to appellate review. The pre-sentence report shall be made available by the court for examination and copying in connection with any appeal in the case, including an appeal under this subdivision. Upon written request, the court shall make a copy of the presentence report, other than a part or parts of the report redacted by the court pursuant to this paragraph, available to the defendant for use before the parole board for release consideration or an appeal of a parole board determination or an application for resentencing pursuant to section 440.46 or 440.47 of this chapter. [~~In his or her written request to the court the defendant shall affirm that he or she anticipates an appearance before the parole board or intends to file an administrative appeal of a parole board determination or meets the eligibility criteria for and intends to file a motion for resentencing pursuant to 440.46 of this chapter or has received notification from the court which received his or her request to apply for resentencing pursuant to section 440.47 of this chapter confirming that he or she is eligible to submit an application for resentencing pursuant to section 440.47 of this chapter.~~] The court shall respond to the defendant's written request within twenty days from receipt of the defendant's written request.

§ 70.00 Sentence of imprisonment for felony.

1. Indeterminate sentence. Except as provided in subdivisions three and four [~~, five and six~~] of this section or section 70.80 of this article, [~~a~~] the term of sentence [~~of imprisonment~~] for a felony, other than a felony defined in article two hundred twenty [~~or two hundred twenty-one~~] of this chapter, shall be fixed by the court. If a court finds that sentence of imprisonment of more than one year is the minimum term of imprisonment necessary to achieve the goals of sentencing, the court shall impose an indeterminate sentence. When such a sentence is imposed, the court shall impose a maximum term in accordance with the provisions of subdivision two of this section [~~and the minimum period of imprisonment shall be as provided in subdivision three of this section~~]. The minimum period shall be fixed by the court and specified in the sentence and shall be not less than one year nor more than one-third of the maxi-imum term imposed, or the court may impose a definite sentence of imprisonment and fix a term of less than one year.

2. Maximum term of sentence. The maximum term of an indeterminate sentence shall be at least three years and the term shall be fixed as follows:

(a) For a class A felony, the term shall be life imprisonment;

(b) For a class B felony, the term shall be fixed by the court, and shall not exceed twenty-five years;

(c) For a class C felony, the term shall be fixed by the court, and shall not exceed fifteen years;

(d) For a class D felony, the term shall be fixed by the court, and shall not exceed seven years; and

(e) For a class E felony, the term shall be fixed by the court, and shall not exceed four years.

~~3. [Minimum period of imprisonment. The minimum period of imprisonment under an indeterminate sentence shall be at least one year and shall be fixed as follows:~~

~~(a) In the case of a class A felony, the minimum period shall be fixed by the court and specified in the sentence.~~

~~(i) For a class A-I felony, such minimum period shall not be less than fifteen years nor more than twenty-five years, provided, however, that (A) where a sentence, other than a sentence of death or life imprisonment without parole, is imposed upon a defendant convicted of murder in the first degree as defined in section 125.27 of this chapter such minimum period shall be not less than twenty years nor more than twenty-five years, and, (B) where a sentence is imposed upon a defendant convicted of murder in the second degree as defined in subdivision five of section 125.25 of this chapter or convicted of aggravated murder as defined in section 125.26 of this chapter, the sentence shall be life imprisonment without parole, and, (C) where a sentence is imposed upon a defendant convicted of attempted murder in the first degree as defined in article one hundred ten of this chapter and subparagraph (i), (ii) or (iii) of paragraph (a) of subdivision one and paragraph (b) of subdivision one of section 125.27 of this chapter or attempted aggravated murder as defined in article one hundred ten of this chapter and section 125.26 of this chapter such minimum period shall be not less than twenty years nor more than forty years.~~

~~(ii) For a class A-II felony, such minimum period shall not be less than three years nor more than eight years four months, except that for the class A-II felony of predatory sexual assault as defined in section 130.95 of this chapter or the class A-II felony of predatory sexual assault against a child as defined in section 130.96 of this chapter, such minimum period shall be not less than ten years nor more than twenty-five years.~~

~~(b) For any other felony, the minimum period shall be fixed by the court and specified in the sentence and shall be not less than one year nor more than one-third of the maximum term imposed.~~

~~4. Alternative definite sentence for class D and E felonies. When a person, other than a second or persistent felony offender, is sentenced for a class D or class E felony, and the court, having regard to the nature and circumstances of the crime and to the history and character of the defendant, is of the opinion that a sentence of imprisonment is necessary but that it would be unduly harsh to impose an indeterminate or determinate sentence, the court may impose a definite sentence of imprisonment and fix a term of one year or less.~~

5.] Life imprisonment without parole. Notwithstanding any other provision of law, a defendant sentenced to life imprisonment without parole shall not be or become eligible for parole or conditional release. For purposes of commitment and custody, other than parole and conditional release, such sentence shall be deemed to be an indeterminate sentence. A defendant may be sentenced to life imprisonment without parole upon conviction for the crime of murder in the first degree as defined in section 125.27 of this chapter and in accordance with the procedures provided by law for imposing a sentence for such crime. A defendant who was eighteen years of age or older at the time of the commission of the crime must be sentenced to life imprisonment without parole upon conviction for the crime of terrorism as defined in section 490.25 of this chapter, where the specified offense the defendant committed is a class A-I felony; the crime of criminal possession of a chemical weapon or biological weapon in the first degree as defined in section 490.45 of this chapter; or the crime of criminal use of a chemical weapon or biological weapon in the first degree as defined in section 490.55 of this chapter; provided, however, that nothing in this subdivision shall preclude or prevent a sentence of death when the defendant is also convicted of the crime of murder in the first degree as defined in section 125.27 of this chapter. A defendant who was seventeen years of age or younger at the time of the commission of the crime may be sentenced, in accordance with law, to the applicable indeterminate sentence with a maximum term of life imprisonment. A defendant must be sentenced to life imprisonment without parole upon conviction for the crime of murder in the second degree as defined in subdivision five of section 125.25 of this chapter or for the crime of aggravated murder as defined in subdivision one of section 125.26 of this chapter. A defendant may be sentenced to life imprisonment without parole upon conviction for the crime of aggravated murder as defined in subdivision two of section 125.26 of this chapter.

[6.] 4. Determinate sentence. [~~Except as provided in subdivision four of this section and subdivisions two and four of section 70.02, when~~ When a person is sentenced as a violent felony offender pursuant to section 70.02 [~~or as a second violent felony offender pursuant to section 70.04 or as a second felony offender on a conviction for a violent felony offense pursuant to section 70.06~~] of this article, the sentence shall be fixed by the court. If a court finds that a sentence of imprisonment of more than one year is the minimum term of imprisonment necessary to achieve the goals of sentencing, the court must impose a determinate sentence of imprisonment in accordance with the provisions of such [~~sections and such sentence shall include, as a part thereof, a period of post-release supervision in accordance with section 70.45~~] section.

§ 7. Subdivision d of section 74 of chapter 3 of the laws of 1995, enacting the sentencing reform act of 1995, as amended by section 17 of part A of chapter 55 of the laws of 2023, is amended to read as follows:

2 violent felony offense must be fixed by the court. The court may impose
3 a definite sentence of imprisonment and fix a term of less than one
4 year. If a court finds that a sentence of imprisonment of more than one
5 year is the minimum term of imprisonment necessary to achieve the goals
6 of sentencing, the court shall impose a determinate sentence as follows:

7 (a) For a class B felony, the term must be at least ~~[five years]~~ one
8 year and must not exceed twenty-five years, provided, however, that the 9 term ~~[must be]~~: (i) ~~[at least ten years and]~~ must not exceed thirty

47 to read as follows:

47 § 14. Paragraphs (a) and (f) of subdivision 1 and the opening para-

49 of subdivision 1 as amended by chapter 3 of the laws of 1995, paragraph 50 (f) of subdivision 1 as added by chapter 481 of the laws of 1978 and as 51 relettered by chapter 3 of the laws of 1995, and the opening paragraph 52 of subdivision 3 as amended by chapter 1 of the laws of 1998, are

(c) ~~[For the purposes of this section, a "predicate felony sex offender" means a person who stands convicted of any felony sex offense as defined in paragraph (a) of this subdivision, other than a class A-I felony, after having previously been subjected to one or more predicate felony convictions as defined in subdivision one of section 70.06 or subdivision one of section 70.04 of this article.]~~

~~(d)~~ For purposes of this section, a "violent felony offense" is any felony defined in subdivision one of section 70.02 of this article, and a "non-violent felony offense" is any felony not defined therein.

2. In imposing a sentence within the authorized statutory range for any felony sex offense, the court may consider all relevant factors set forth in section 1.05 of this chapter, and in particular, may consider the defendant's criminal history, if any, including any history of sex offenses; any mental illness or mental abnormality from which the defendant may suffer; the defendant's ability or inability to control his sexual behavior; and, if the defendant has difficulty controlling such behavior, the extent to which that difficulty may pose a threat to society.

3. Except as provided by subdivision four, five, six~~[7]~~ or seven ~~[or eight]~~ of this section, or when a defendant is being sentenced for a conviction of the class A-II felonies of predatory sexual assault and predatory sexual assault against a child as defined in sections 130.95 and 130.96 of this chapter, or for any class A-I sexually motivated felony for which a life sentence or a life without parole sentence ~~[must]~~ may be imposed, a sentence imposed upon a defendant convicted of a felony sex offense shall be fixed by the court. The court may impose

3 term of imprisonment necessary to achieve the goals of sentencing, the 4 court shall impose a determinate sentence. The determinate sentence

6 as a part thereof a period of post-release supervision in accordance

27 ~~offenses. If the court, having regard to the nature and circumstances of~~ 28 ~~the crime and to the history and character of the defendant, is of the~~ 29 ~~opinion that a sentence of imprisonment is necessary but that it would~~
30 ~~be unduly harsh to impose a determinate sentence upon a person convicted~~
31 ~~of a class D or class E felony sex offense, the court may impose a defi-~~
32 ~~nite sentence of imprisonment and fix a term of one year or less.~~

33 5. Sentence of imprisonment for a predicate felony sex offender. (a)

41 ~~determinate sentence of imprisonment, the term of which must be fixed by~~
42 ~~the court as follows:~~

43 [~~(i) for a class B felony, the term must be at least eight years and~~
44 ~~must not exceed twenty-five years;~~

45 [~~(ii) for a class C felony, the term must be at least five years and~~
46 ~~must not exceed fifteen years;~~

55 ~~sentence of imprisonment, the term of which must be fixed by the court~~
56 ~~as follows:~~

16 ~~When a sentence of unconditional discharge is imposed for a felony,~~
17 ~~the court shall set forth in the record the reasons for its action.~~

18 ~~2. Sentence.]~~ When the court imposes a sentence of unconditional

~~(d) Where the indictment charges a class A felony, other than those defined in article two hundred twenty of the penal law, or charges a class B or class C violent felony offense as defined in subdivision one of section 70.02 of the penal law, then a plea of guilty entered pursuant to subdivision three or four must be as follows:~~

4 that the interests of justice would best be served by removal of the 5 action to the family court; and ~~[(2)]~~ (ii) if the indictment charges a
6 thirteen year old with the crime of murder in the second degree, or a
7 fourteen or fifteen year old with the crimes of rape in the first degree
8 as defined in subdivision one of section 130.35 of the penal law, or 9 criminal sexual act in the first degree as defined in subdivision one of 10 section 130.50 of the penal law, or an armed felony as defined in para-

22 commission of the act, that the criminal act was not part of a pattern
23 of criminal behavior and, in view of the history of the offender, is not
24 likely to be repeated.

25 If the court is of the opinion based on specific factors set forth in 26 the district attorney's memorandum that the interests of justice would 27 best be served by removal of the action to the family court, a plea of 28 guilty of a crime or act for which the defendant is not criminally
29 responsible may be entered pursuant to subdivision three or four of this 30 section, except that a thirteen year old charged with the crime of 31 murder in the second degree may only plead to a designated felony act,
32 as defined in subdivision eight of section 301.2 of the family court
33 act.

34 Upon accepting any such plea, the court must specify upon the record
35 the portion or portions of the district attorney's statement the court
36 is relying upon as the basis of its opinion and that it believes the 37 interests of justice would best be served by removal of the proceeding
38 to the family court. Such plea shall then be deemed to be a juvenile 39 delinquency fact determination and the court upon entry thereof must 40 direct that the action be removed to the family court in accordance with 41 the provisions of article seven hundred twenty-five of this chapter.
