1 Section 1. The opening paragraph of paragraph 1 of subdivision a of 2 section 12 of section 4 of chapter 576 of the laws of 1974, constituting 3 the emergency tenant protection act of nineteen seventy-four, as amended 4 by section 1 of part F chapter 36 of the laws of 2019, is amended to 5 read as follows:
6 Subject to the conditions and limitations of this paragraph, any owner 7 of housing accommodations in a city having a population of less than one 8 million or a town or village as to which an emergency has been declared 9 pursuant to section three, who, upon complaint of a tenant or of the 10 state division of housing and community renewal, is found by the state 11 division of housing and community renewal, after a reasonable opportunity 12 to be heard, to have collected an overcharge above the rent authorized 13 for a housing accommodation subject to this act shall be liable to 19 rate of interest payable on a judgment pursuant to section five thousand 20 four of the civil practice law and rules. After a complaint of rent

21 overcharge has been filed and served on an owner, the voluntary adjustment

1 renewal or a court of competent jurisdiction as evidence that the over-2 charge was not willful. (i) Except as to complaints filed pursuant to 3 clause (ii) of this paragraph, the legal regulated rent for purposes of 4 determining an overcharge, shall be deemed to be the rent indicated in 5 the most recent reliable annual registration statement for a rent stabi-6 lized tenant filed and served upon the tenant six or more years prior to 7 the most recent registration statement, (or, if more recently filed, the 8 initial registration statement) plus in each case any subsequent lawful 9 increases and adjustments. The division of housing and community
10 renewal or a court of competent jurisdiction, in investigating 11 complaints of overcharge and in determining legal regulated rent, shall 12 consider all available rent history which is reasonably necessary to 13 make such determinations. If there is an overcharge, the legal regulated 14 base date rent at the four-year lookback shall be determined by either 15 the survey sampling method or the default method if there is fraud. (ii) 16 As to complaints filed within ninety days of the initial registration of 17 a housing accommodation, the legal regulated rent for purposes of deter-

19 six years prior to the date of the initial registration of the housing 20 accommodation (or, if the housing accommodation was subject to this act 21 for less than six years, the initial legal regulated rent) plus in each 22 case, any lawful increases and adjustments. Where the rent charged on 23 the date six years prior to the date of the initial registration of the 24 accommodation cannot be established, such rent shall be established by 25 the division.
26 § 2. This act shall take effect immediately.
