AN ACT to amend the public officers law, the penal law and the civil rights law, in relation to prohibiting the disclosure and publication of the home address or unpublished home telephone number of any active or retired judge or prosecutor

The People of the State of New York, represented in Senate and Assembly, do enact as follows:

Section 1. Section 89 of the public officers law is amended by adding a new subdivision 7-a to read as follows:

7-a. Nothing in this article shall permit the disclosure or publication of the home address or unpublished home telephone number of any active or retired judge or state or local prosecutor.

§ 2. The penal law is amended by adding two new sections 250.61 and 250.62 to read as follows:

§ 250.61 Unlawful disclosure of the address or telephone number of any active or retired judge or prosecutor in the second degree.

No person shall not knowingly, with reckless disregard for the probability of exposure of another to harassment or risk of harm to life or property, disclose or post or publish on the internet the home address or unpublished home telephone number of any active or retired judge of any court of law of this state, or state, county or municipal prosecutor, or the spouse or child thereof.

Unlawful disclosure of the address or telephone number of any active or retired judge or prosecutor in the second degree is a class A misdemeanor.

§ 250.62 Unlawful disclosure of the address or telephone number of any active or retired judge or prosecutor in the first degree.

A person shall not knowingly, with intent to expose another to harassment or risk of harm to life or property, disclose, post or publish on

2 any active or retired judge of any court of law of this state, or state,
3 county or municipal prosecutor, or the spouse or child thereof.

4 Unlawful disclosure of the address or telephone number of any active
5 or retired judge or prosecutor in the first degree is a class E felony.

6 § 3. The civil rights law is amended by adding a new section 50-g to 7 read as follows:

8 § 50-g. Disclosure of address or telephone number of any active or 9 retired judge or prosecutor prohibited. 1. No person, business, or asso-
10 ciation shall disclose or post or publish on the internet the home
11 address or unpublished home telephone number of an active or retired
12 judge of any court of law of this state, or any active or retired state,
13 county or municipal prosecutor, or spouse or child thereof under circum-
14 stances in which a reasonable person would believe that providing that 15 information would expose another to harassment or risk of harm to life
16 or property.

17 2. A person, business, or association that violates subdivision one of 18 this section shall be liable to the active or retired judge or prosecu-
19 tor, or any other person residing at the home address of such active or 20 retired judge or prosecutor, who may bring a civil action in the supreme 21 court.

22 3. The court may award:

23 (a) actual damages, but not less than liquidated damages computed at 24 the rate of one thousand dollars for each violation of this section;

25 (b) punitive damages upon proof of willful or reckless disregard of 26 the law;

27 (c) reasonable attorney's fees and other litigation costs reasonably 28 incurred; and

29 (d) any other preliminary and equitable relief as the court determines
30 to be appropriate.

31 4. For the purposes of this section, "disclose" shall mean to solicit,
32 sell, manufacture, give, provide, lend, trade, mail, deliver, transfer,
33 publish, distribute, circulate, disseminate, present, exhibit, advertise
34 or offer.

35 § 4. This act shall take effect immediately.
