2023-2024 Regular Sessions

IN ASSEMBLY

January 25, 2023

Introduced by M. of A. SEPTIMO -- read once and referred to the Committee on Insurance

AN ACT to amend the insurance law, in relation to increasing certain monetary limits under the comprehensive motor vehicle insurance reparations act

The People of the State of New York, represented in Senate and Assembly, do enact as follows:

1 Section 1. Paragraphs 2 and 3 of subsection (a) of section 5102 of the 2 insurance law, paragraph 2 as amended by chapter 320 of the laws of 3 1991, are amended to read as follows:

4 (2) Loss of earnings from work which the person would have performed
5 had he not been injured, and reasonable and necessary expenses incurred 6 by such person in obtaining services in lieu of those that he would have 7 performed for income, up to [~~two~~] three thousand dollars per month for 8 not more than three years from the date of the accident causing the 9 injury. An employee who is entitled to receive monetary payments, pursuant 10 to statute or contract with the employer, or who receives voluntary 11 monetary benefits paid for by the employer, by reason of the employee's 12 inability to work because of personal injury arising out of the use or 13 operation of a motor vehicle, is not entitled to receive first party 14 benefits for "loss of earnings from work" to the extent that such monetary 15 payments or benefits from the employer do not result in the employee 16 suffering a reduction in income or a reduction in the employee's 17 level of future benefits arising from a subsequent illness or injury.

18 (3) [~~All~~] Any and all other reasonable and necessary expenses incurred 19 including, without limitation, medical transportation, non-medical 20 transportation, pet care services, house cleaning services, laundry 21 services, and food preparation and delivery services, up to [~~twenty-~~ 22 ~~five~~] fifty dollars per day for not more than one year from the date of 23 the accident causing the injury. In determining whether an "other 24 expense" is reasonable and necessary, the certification of a treating

1 physician that the claimant was disabled from work during the relevant 2 period constitutes prima facie proof that the expense was reasonable and 3 necessary.

4 § 2. Subsection (b) of section 5102 of the insurance law is amended to 5 read as follows:

6 (b) "First party benefits" means payments to reimburse a person for 7 basic economic loss on account of personal injury arising out of the use 8 or operation of a motor vehicle, less:

9 (1) Twenty percent of lost earnings computed pursuant to paragraph two 10 of subsection (a) of this section, provided, however, that such twenty 11 percent shall not count towards the fifty thousand dollar limit for 12 basic economic loss per person described in subsection (a) of this 13 section.

14 (2) Amounts recovered or recoverable on account of such injury under 15 state or federal laws providing social security disability benefits, or 16 workers' compensation benefits, or disability benefits under article 17 nine of the workers' compensation law, or medicare benefits, other than 18 lifetime reserve days and provided further that the medicare benefits 19 utilized herein do not result in a reduction of such person's medicare 20 benefits for a subsequent illness or injury.

21 (3) Amounts deductible under the applicable insurance policy.

22 § 3. This act shall take effect immediately.
