the commercial premises. The landlord shall notify the tenant of his or 1 her decision to reoccupy the commercial premises at least one year prior 2 to the termination of the lease. In the event that the lessor fraudu-3 4 lently invokes this justification for a refusal to renew a commercial 5 lease, the defrauded tenant may collect treble damages for any loss 6 suffered as a result of such action;

- (6) The current tenancy was created by the subletting of the property, whereby the prime tenant did not notify the landlord by certified mail of the subtenant's existence and did not obtain the written consent of the landlord. This ground is void if the landlord and tenant had agreed in the lease to allow subleasing rights without the consent of the landlord and all obligations of the prime tenant on the issue were in compliance;
- (7) It has been determined by an agency with jurisdiction or by a civil court of competent jurisdiction that the tenant is a gross and persistent violator of New York city tax laws, of any license obligations related to the use of the premises or of any laws of the city of New York;
- (8) Upon the termination of the current tenancy, the landlord intends to occupy the retail premises in order to carry out its own business, which cannot be the same type of business that the current tenant is operating, unless the landlord compensates the tenant at fair market value. The landlord shall notify the tenant of his or her decision to reoccupy the premises at least one hundred eighty days prior to the termination of the lease. In the event that the landlord fraudulently invokes this justification for a refusal to renew a commercial lease, the defrauded tenant may collect treble damages for any loss suffered as a result of such action.
- e. Where the landlord agrees to renew the lease of the current tenant, such landlord shall notify the tenant at least one hundred eighty days prior to the expiration of the lease of his or her willingness to negotiate the renewal of the commercial lease agreement. If the landlord and tenant agree, they may at any time renegotiate a new lease, with any agreed to terms and conditions, not inconsistent with the provisions of this chapter.
- § 22-1304 Rent guidelines board. a. The rent guidelines board, established pursuant to section 26-510 of this code, shall establish annual guidelines for legal regulated rent for vacancy and renewal leases, and in determining such amounts shall consider, among other things (1) the economic condition of the commercial real estate industry in the affected area including such factors as the prevailing and projected (i) real estate taxes and sewer and water rates, (ii) gross operating maintenance costs (including insurance rates, governmental fees, cost of fuel and labor costs), (iii) costs and availability of financing (including effective rates of interest), (iv) over-all supply of commercial premises and over-all vacancy rates, (2) relevant data from the current and projected cost of leasing for the affected area, (3) such other data as may be made available to it.
- b. Beginning July first, two thousand twenty-four, and annually thereafter, the rent quidelines board shall file with the city clerk its findings for the preceding calendar year, and shall accompany such findings with a statement of the maximum rate or rates of rent for commercial premises subject to this law, authorized for leases or commencing on the next succeeding October first or within the twelve months thereafter. Such findings and statement shall be published in the City 55 56 Record.

Notice of the date, time, location 6 and summary of subject matter for the public hearing or hearings shall 7 be published in the City Record daily for a period of not less than 8 eight days and at least once in one or more newspapers of general circu-9 lation at least eight days immediately preceding each hearing date, at 10 the expense of the city of New York, and the hearing shall be open for testimony from any individual, group, association or representative 11 12 thereof who wants to testify.

- § 22-1305 Security deposits. Security deposits shall not exceed an amount equal to two months rent. All security deposits shall be placed in escrow in an interest-bearing account at a federally insured bank located in New York state. The tenant shall be notified in writing of the location of such escrow account. Interest paid on the account shall be paid in full to the tenant upon termination of the lease. - § 22-1306 Retaliation. No landlord shall in any way retaliate against any tenant for the tenant's assertion or exercise of any rights under this chapter. Any such retaliation may subject the landlord to a suit for actual and punitive damages, injunctive relief, and attorney's fees.
- § 22-1307 Waiver. No provision in any lease, rental agreement, or agreement made in connection therewith which waives or diminishes any right of tenant under this chapter is valid.
- § 22-1308 Inconsistency with other laws. In the event of any incon-34 sistency with any other laws of the city of New York, this law shall take precedence.
 - § 2. Severability. If any clause, sentence, paragraph, section or part of this act shall be adjudged by any court of competent jurisdiction to be invalid and after exhaustion of all further judicial review, the judgment shall not affect, impair or invalidate the remainder thereof, but shall be confined in its operation to the clause, sentence, paragraph, section or part of this act directly involved in the controversy in which the judgment shall have been rendered.
- 43 3. This act shall take effect on the ninetieth day after it shall 44 have become a law. Effective immediately the addition, amendment and/or 45 repeal of any rule or regulation necessary for the implementation of this act on its effective date are authorized to be made and completed 46 47 on or before such effective date.
