A. 2510 2

A person is guilty of aggravated harassment of a sports official when, with intent to harass, annoy, threaten or alarm a sports official, which shall include umpires, referees, judges, linesmen, coaches, assistant coaches, and any other person participating in an official or substitute capacity at a sports contest, he or she:

- 1. Strikes, shoves, kicks or otherwise subjects such sports official to physical contact, or attempts to threaten to do the same;
- 2. Causes or attempts to cause such sports official to come into contact with saliva by expelling such fluid at a sports contest; or
- 3. Communicates a threat to cause physical harm to, or unlawful harm to the property of a sports official, and the person knows or reasonably should know that such communication will cause such sports official to reasonably fear harm to such official's physical safety or property.

Aggravated harassment of a sports official is a class B misdemeanor.

- § 3. The education department of the state of New York shall establish an information campaign to be distributed to all youth sports programs, school sports programs, amateur sports programs, and intercollegiate sports programs, requiring such programs to disseminate information to parents and other spectators of such programs on the protections afforded sports officials. In particular, the information campaign shall instruct spectators of such sports programs on the appropriate behavior to exhibit when observing such applicable sports events and that harassing or assaulting a sports official due to a decision made by such official may result in the filing of criminal charges against such spectator. Such sports programs must provide the information prepared by such department pursuant to this section to parents and other prospective spectators at the start of each sports season. Such information may be disseminated via a school's website or if available, a website dedicated to a youth or other sports program.
- 30 § 4. This act shall take effect on the one hundred twentieth day after 31 it shall have become a law.
