5	§ 254. Legislative intent. 1. The legislature finds that there are
6	significant public infrastructure, higher education, home loans, and
7	small business development needs, including those involving minor-
8	ity- and women-owned business enterprises, of the state that are unmet.
9	The legislature further finds that there are opportunities to use the
10	state's depository assets to generate additional benefit for the people
11	and the economy of the state. Therefore, the legislature intends to
12	create the state of New York public bank as a legacy institution that
13	amasses sufficient capital reserves to address opportunities now and in
14	the future.
15	2. The legislature intends that the public bank may:
16	(a) Facilitate investment in, and financing of, public infrastructure
17	systems and projects that will increase public health, safety, and qual-
18	ity of life, improve environmental conditions, including the retrofit-
19	ting of homes as green homes, and promote community vitality and econom-
20	ic growth;
21	(b) Assist students who are in need of additional low-cost student
22	loans in order to finance the cost of higher education;
23	(c) Acquire and contract to acquire existing mortgages owned by banks
24	and enter into advance commitments to banks for the purchase of such
25	mortgages, and to provide low-cost home loans to first time home buyers;
26	(d) Provide access to credit for small businesses, including minority-
27	and women-owned business enterprises and farmers; and
28	(e) Provide banking to underserved communities and economically disad-
29	vantaged communities of our state to provide access to low-interest
30	capital; and
31	(f) Leverage New York's financial capital and resources, and work in
32	partnership with financial institutions, including credit unions, commu-
33	nity development financial institutions, independent banks, community-
34	based organizations, economic development organizations, guaranty agen-
35	cies, and other similar organizations.
36	3. The mission of the bank is to use New York's depository assets in
37	ways that afford most efficient use of taxpayer revenues and public
38	resources for the benefit of the people and economy of the state. The
39	legislature intends for the bank to apply business strategies to manage
40	taxpayer revenues while concurrently meeting identified needs and stra-
41	tegic opportunities across the state. In achieving its purpose of
42	improving public infrastructure and increasing access to higher educa-
43	tion, creating a pathway to home ownership and strengthening the state's 44	economy by investing in small businesses, including minority- and
45	women-owned business enterprises, and farmers, the legislature intends
46	for the bank to adhere to the following priorities:
47	(a) Institutional safety and soundness;
48	(b) Long-term viability;
49	(c) Social return and monetary return on investments;
50	(d) Prudent and best banking and business practices;
51	(e) Highest ethical, accountability, and transparency standards; and
