"421-a Standard Rider Fact Sheet

Any housing unit that receives tax benefits under section 421-a of the New York State Real Property Law may remain affordable for a period of time depending on a variety of factors, including the location of the unit, the commencement of construction and the affordability in the project. Failure to provide the initial standardized rider may result in the unit remaining rent stabilized for the duration of the tenancy. Specific details related to your unit are listed on the next sheet. While your unit receives 421-a tax benefits, it will be subject to rent stabilization. New York State's rent regulation laws provide tenants in rent-stabilized apartments with a variety of legal rights and protections. The owner of your building must provide you with a rent stabilized lease when you first move in and also each time you renew your lease for your choice of either a one or two year term, for as long as your apartment remains rent stabilized.

You are entitled to continuous lease renewals while your apartment is rent stabilized. When you renew your lease, your rent may only be increased by an amount determined by New York State's rent regulation laws, which may be found by visiting <https://rentguidelinesboard.cityofnewyork.us/resources/rent-regulationlaws/>, and permitted by applicable tax benefit laws.

Rent increases for rent-stabilized tenants are determined by the New York City Rent Guidelines Board, and may only increase by a specified amount within a one-year or two-year lease term. For more information, please visit <https://rentguidelinesboard.cityofnewyork.us/> or call 311. Rent-stabilized tenants are also entitled to petition the New York State Homes and Community Renewal by visiting <https://hcr.ny.gov/> or calling (833) 499-0343 or by contacting the appropriate rent administration borough office.

421-a Rider - Unit Number

As a rent-regulated tenant, your rights are determined by 421-a of the New York State Real Property Law. For more information, you may contact New York State Housing and Community Renewal by calling (833) 499-0343 or visiting <https://hcr.ny.gov/> or the New York City Department of Housing Preservation by calling 311 or visiting <https://www1.nyc.gov/site/hpd/index.page>.

The first rent as of date of initial lease commencement for unit apartment number _____ is amount _____.

Because unit number _____ receives a 421-a tax abatement, it will be rent regulated until at least MM/DD/YYYY.

Construction commenced on your building, located at address _____ on MM/DD/YYYY.

Construction was completed on MM/DD/YYYY.

On (MM/DD/YYYY specific to tenant), your landlord can begin to increase the rent for unit number by 2.2% each year.

The 421-a benefits for unit number expire on (MM/DD/YYYY). After the expiration of the 421-a tax abatement, your unit will _____ (either remain rent-stabilized for the duration of your tenancy or continue to be protected due to additional programs outlined below).

Unit number also receives (list any other city, state, federal affordability program) and (the impact that has on the unit's continuing affordability, the date on which those benefits expire and the impact of the expiration of those benefits on the unit).

If you believe that any of the information contained in this rider is incorrect, contact New York State Homes and Community Renewal by calling (833) 499-0343 or visiting <https://hcr.ny.gov/> or the New York City Department of Housing Preservation by calling 311 or visiting <https://www1.nyc.gov/site/hpd/index.page>."

§ 4. This act shall take effect immediately.
