AN ACT to amend the social services law, in relation to improvements in the state central register of child abuse and maltreatment

The People of the State of New York, represented in Senate and Assembly, do enact as follows:

Section 1. Subdivisions 2 and 3 of section 422 of the social services law, subdivision 2 as amended by chapter 717 of the laws of 1986, paragraph (a) of subdivision 2 as amended by section 6 of subpart A of part 4 JJ of chapter 56 of the laws of 2021 and subdivision 3 as added by chapter 1039 of the laws of 1973, are amended to read as follows:

2. (a) The central register shall be capable of receiving telephone 7 calls and electronic reports alleging child abuse or maltreatment and of immediately identifying prior reports of child abuse or maltreatment and 9 capable of monitoring the provision of child protective service twenty-10 four hours a day, seven days a week. To effectuate this purpose, but subject to the provisions of the appropriate local plan for the 12 provision of child protective services, there shall be a single state-13 wide telephone number and internet address that all persons, whether 14 mandated by the law or not, may use to make telephone calls or send 15 electronic communications alleging child abuse or maltreatment and that 16 all persons so authorized by this title may use for determining the 17 existence of prior reports in order to evaluate the condition or circum-In addition to the single statewide telephone 18 stances of a child.  ${\tt number} \quad \underline{{\tt and} \quad internet \ address}, \ {\tt there} \ {\tt shall} \ {\tt be} \ {\tt a} \ {\tt special} \ {\tt unlisted} \ {\tt express}$ 19 20 telephone number and a telephone facsimile number and internet address 21 for use only by persons mandated by law to make telephone calls, or to 22 transmit telephone facsimile or electronic information on a form 23 provided by the commissioner of children and family services, alleging child abuse or maltreatment, and for use by all persons so authorized by 25 this title for determining the existence of prior reports in order to evaluate the condition or circumstances of a child. The webpage created to accept electronic reports shall be capable of receiving digital images and electronic documents in common file formats. When any allega-4 tions contained in such telephone calls or electronic report could 5 reasonably constitute a report of child abuse or maltreatment, after utilizing protocols that would reduce implicit bias from the decision-7 making process, such allegations and any previous reports to the central registry involving the subject of such report or children named in such report, including any previous report containing allegations of child 9 10 abuse and maltreatment alleged to have occurred in other counties and 11 districts in New York state shall be immediately transmitted orally or 12 electronically by the office of children and family services to the appropriate local child protective service for investigation. 13 14 inability of the person calling the register or making the allegation 15 online to identify the alleged perpetrator shall, in no circumstance, constitute the sole cause for the register to reject such allegation or 16 17 fail to transmit such allegation for investigation. If the records indicate a previous report concerning a subject of the report, the child 18 19 alleged to be abused or maltreated, a sibling, other children in the household, other persons named in the report or other pertinent informa-20 21 tion, the appropriate local child protective service shall be immediate-22 ly notified of the fact. If the report involves either (i) an allegation 23 of an abused child described in paragraph (i), (ii) or (iii) of subdivision (e) of section one thousand twelve of the family court act or sexu-24 25 abuse of a child or the death of a child or (ii) suspected maltreat-26 ment which alleges any physical harm when the report is made by a person 27 required to report pursuant to section four hundred thirteen of this 28 title within six months of any other two reports that were indicated, or 29 may still be pending, involving the same child, sibling, or other chil-30 dren in the household or the subject of the report, the office of chil-31 dren and family services shall identify the report as such and note any 32 prior reports when transmitting the report to the local child protective 33 services for investigation. 34

- (b) Any telephone call or electronic report made by a person required to report cases of suspected child abuse or maltreatment pursuant to section four hundred thirteen of this [chapter] title containing allegations, which if true would constitute child abuse or maltreatment shall constitute a report and shall be immediately transmitted orally or electronically by the [department] office of children and family services to the appropriate local child protective service for investigation.
- (c) Whenever a telephone call or electronic report to the statewide central register described in this section is received by the [department] office of children and family services, and the [department] office of children and family services finds that the person allegedly responsible for abuse or maltreatment of a child cannot be a subject of a report as defined in subdivision four of section four hundred twelve of this [chapter] title, but believes that the alleged acts or circumstances against a child described in the telephone call or electronic report may constitute a crime or an immediate threat to the child's health or safety, the [department] office of children and family services, shall convey by the most expedient means available the information contained in such telephone call or electronic report to the appropriate law enforcement agency, district attorney or other public official empowered to provide necessary aid or assistance.
- 3. The central register shall include but not be limited to the following information: all the information in the written and electronic
