

STATE OF NEW YORK

2023-2024 Regular Sessions

IN ASSEMBLY

January 4, 2023

Introduced by M. of A. BRONSON -- read once and referred to the Committee on Labor

AN ACT directing the commissioner of labor to conduct a labor market study and establishing a temporary labor task force for home care and hospice services and occupations in New York State; and providing for the repeal of certain provisions upon the expiration thereof

The People of the State of New York, represented in Senate and Assembly, do enact as follows:

1 Section 1. The commissioner of labor and the commissioner of health
2 shall jointly undertake a market study to examine and make recommenda-
3 tions regarding competitive labor market factors, reimbursement,
4 programs and other state policy actions necessary to support recruitment 5 and retention of the home care and hospice workforce in the broader,
6 competitive health labor market.
7 Such study shall examine differentials in compensation, benefits and 8 other employment factors in home care and hospice in comparison to other 9 health care and employment markets which compete for the same workforce, 10 including but not limited to hospitals and nursing facilities, and for 11 comparable disciplines which include direct care aides, registered
12 professional nurses, licensed practical nurses, physical therapists,
13 occupational therapists, speech pathologists, social workers, respira-14 tory therapists, audiologists and other health care practitioners which 15 the commissioner of labor in consultation with the commissioner of 16 health shall determine.
17 In conducting such study and preparing recommendations, the commis-
18 sioners shall seek the input of representatives of the aforementioned
19 providers and health care personnel, managed care plans, statewide asso-20 ciations representative of providers and workforce, the center for 21 health workforce studies of the state university of New York, and the 22 New York state area health education centers program.

EXPLANATION--Matter in italics (underscored) is new; matter in brackets [-] is old law to be omitted.

1 On or before November 1, 2023, the commissioner of labor shall report
2 jointly with the commissioner of health to the governor and legislature 3 on the results of such study, together with recommendations for 4 reimbursement, programs and policy modifications to support home care
5 and hospice competitive positions for recruitment and retention of a
6 direct care health labor workforce in the broader health labor market
7 capable of meeting community need.

8 § 2. The commissioner of labor, in consultation with the director of 9 the office for aging and the commissioners of health, education and 10 mental health, or their agency designees, shall form a task force to 11 establish and implement a statewide home care and hospice workforce,
12 labor development and marketing program to encourage occupational inter-
13 est and participation in these essential fields to meet the community
14 need for these vital services.

15 The task force shall examine the spectrum of possible entry points 16 into the home care and hospice fields, including but not limited to 17 entry points in secondary schools, occupational schools and programs, 18 community colleges, four year colleges and universities, professional 19 schools of nursing, social work and other health care disciplines, and 20 retiree venues.

21 The task force shall develop and implement, with jurisdictional 22 contributions from each state agency member, a comprehensive plan that 23 provides information about entry, practice, career development, and 24 occupational need and value in home care and hospice. Such plan shall 25 also assist educational settings and providers with informational mate-26 rials and resources to further this goal, including but not limited to:
27 written and multimedia material, web based resources, public service
28 announcements, home care/hospice emphasis at local job fairs, billboard
29 and other community advertisement, engagement of area health education 30 centers, support for provider recruitment and training, state and 31 regional conferencing, and other means.

32 The task force shall be co-chaired by the commissioner of labor and 33 the director of the state office for aging, or their agency designees.
34 The task force shall convene not later than sixty days after this act
35 shall have become law, and shall meet no less frequently than bi-monthly 36 for the first year. The task force shall submit an interim report to the 37 governor and legislature on its activities and recommendations not later 38 than six months after it convenes. In conducting the task force, the 39 co-chairs shall seek the input of representatives of home care, hospice, 40 managed care plans, area health education centers, and direct care
41 disciplines.

42 § 3. This act shall take effect immediately, provided that section two 43 of this act shall expire and be deemed repealed on and after January 31, 44 2026.
