Introduced by M. of A. HUNTER, SAYEGH -- read once and referred to the Committee on Banks

AN ACT to amend the banking law, in relation to requiring a written notification of overdraft fees charged to certain account holders

The People of the State of New York, represented in Senate and Assembly, do enact as follows:

1	Section 1. The banking law is amended by adding a new section 9-e to
2	read as follows:
3	§ 9-e. Fees based on overdraft of account; notification. 1. Notwith-
4	standing any other provision of law or rule or regulation to the contra-
5	ry, any financial institution subject to the provisions of this chapter,
б	including any bank, trust company, savings bank, savings and loan asso-
7	ciation, credit union, mortgage broker, mortgage banker, or other
8	investment entity, whether headquartered within or outside the state,
9	which provides an account to a customer shall provide written notice of
10	fees charged due to overdraft of an account every one hundred eighty
11	days. Such notice shall include:
12	(a) dates and amounts of overdraft fees;
13	(b) the total amount charged;
14	(c) information on the customer's ability to negotiate fees; and
15	(d) a telephone number and full contact information for a represen-
16	tative of the financial institution responsible for resolving any matter
17	relating to such fee.
18	2. A notification by electronic means shall satisfy the writing
19	requirement for the purposes of this section if such option is selected
20	by the account holder.

21 § 2. This act shall take effect January 1, 2024.

EXPLANATION--Matter in italics (underscored) is new; matter in brackets [-] is old law to be omitted.
