Introduced by M. of A. RAJKUMAR -- read once and referred to the Committee on Governmental Operations

AN ACT to amend the executive law, in relation to awards made to crime victims

The People of the State of New York, represented in Senate and Assembly, do enact as follows:

Section 1. Subdivision 8 of section 621 of the executive law, as added 2 by chapter 197 of the laws of 1983, is amended to read as follows:

- 8. "Essential personal property" shall mean articles of personal property necessary and essential to the health, welfare or safety of the victim.
- (a) Personal property necessary and essential to the welfare of the victim shall mean personal property of a victim that is lost, damaged, or stolen as a result of a crime and for which reimbursement or replacement is reasonably necessary for the victim to restore stability or maintain a reasonable and/or basic standard of living.
- 11 (b) The office shall promulgate rules and regulations for the determi-12 nation and approval of what constitutes property reasonably necessary to 13 restore or maintain a reasonable and/or basic standard of living 14 consistent with this article.
- 15 § 2. Subdivision 9 of section 631 of the executive law, as amended by 16 section 1 of part I of chapter 55 of the laws of 2022, is amended to 17 read as follows:
- 9. (a) Any award made for the cost of repair or replacement of essential personal property, including cash losses of essential personal property, shall be limited to an amount of twenty-five hundred dollars,
- 21 except that all cash losses of essential personal property shall be 22 limited to the amount of one hundred dollars. In the case of medically
- 23 necessary life-sustaining equipment which was lost or damaged as the
- 24 direct result of a crime, the award shall be limited to the amount of
- 25 ten thousand dollars.

A. 3257 2

- (b) For property necessary and essential to the welfare of the victim, the office may request that the claimant provide estimates or receipts for personal property lost, damaged or stolen as a result of the crime. A claimant's inability to produce a receipt for lost, stolen or damaged personal items shall not in itself disqualify a claimant from receiving reimbursement for such items. The office shall consider all the facts 7 and circumstances of each case before making a determination. (c) Personal property necessary and essential to the welfare of the 9 victim shall include, but not be limited to, the following items lost, 10 damaged, or stolen as a result of the crime: 11 (i) clothing; 12 (ii) shoes; (iii) furniture; 13 14 (iv) appliances; (v) electronics; and 15 16 (vi) bedding. (d) Property necessary and essential to the welfare of the victim 17 shall include, but not be limited to, the following: 18 (i) Sofa, couch, loveseat, or chair; 19 20 (ii) Dining table; 21 (iii) Bed/mattress; 22 (iv) Sheets, pillows, comforters and blankets; 23 (v) Lamp; 24 (vi) Refrigerator; 25 (vii) Microwave; (viii) Stove; 26 27 (ix) Dishes and eating utensils; 28 (x) Television; 29 (xi) Telephone or cell phone; 30 (xii) Toys for children under six years old; and
- 31 (xiii) Stroller.
- 32 (e) Eligible essential personal property as specified in paragraph (d) 33 of this subdivision, including any property not specifically enumerated 34 in paragraph (d) of this subdivision, may be reimbursed at a reasonable
- rate as determined by the office, provided that such rate does not 35 36
- exceed twenty-five hundred dollars.
- 37 § 3. This act shall take effect immediately.
