IN ASSEMBLY

February 2, 2023

Introduced by M. of A. WOERNER, BUTTENSCHON -- read once and referred to the Committee on Codes

AN ACT to amend the criminal procedure law, in relation to directing courts to consider a principal's primary residence location in relation to the location of the court they are required to return to for a future appearance as a factor in determining whether to fix bail

The People of the State of New York, represented in Senate and Assembly, do enact as follows:

1 Section 1. Subdivision 1 of section 510.30 of the criminal procedure
2 law, as amended by section 2 of subpart C of part UU of chapter 56 of 3 the laws of 2022, is amended to read as follows:

4 1. With respect to any principal, the court in all cases, unless 5 otherwise provided by law, must impose the least restrictive kind and 6 degree of control or restriction that is necessary to secure the princi-
7 pal's return to court when required. In determining that matter, the 8 court must, on the basis of available information, consider and take 9 into account information about the principal that is relevant to the 10 principal's return to court, including:

11 (a) The principal's activities and history;

12 (b) If the principal is a defendant, the charges facing the principal;

13 (c) The principal's criminal conviction record if any;

14 (d) The principal's record of previous adjudication as a juvenile 15 delinquent, as retained pursuant to section 354.2 of the family court
16 act, or, of pending cases where fingerprints are retained pursuant to 17 section 306.1 of such act, or a youthful offender, if any;

18 (e) The principal's previous record with respect to flight to avoid 19 criminal prosecution;

20 (f) If monetary bail is authorized, according to the restrictions set
21 forth in this title, the principal's individual financial circumstances,
22 and, in cases where bail is authorized, the principal's ability to post
