proceeding brought pursuant to this paragraph a prevailing tenant shall 1 be entitled to recovery of actual damages, and reasonable attorneys' 2 3 fees; or § 2. Paragraph (a) of subdivision 2 of section 5 of chapter 274 of the 4 5 laws of 1946, constituting the emergency housing rent control law, as б amended by section 16 of part Q of chapter 39 of the laws of 2019, is 7 amended to read as follows: (a) the landlord seeks in good faith to recover possession of a hous-8 9 ing accommodation [because of immediate and compelling necessity] for 10 his or her own personal use and occupancy as his or her primary resi-11 dence or for the use and occupancy of his or her immediate family as 12 their primary residence[; provided, however, this subdivision shall permit recovery of only one housing accommodation and shall not apply 13 14 where a member of the household lawfully occupying the housing accommo-15 dation is sixty-two years of age or older, has been a tenant in a housing accommodation in that building for fifteen years or more, or has an 16 17 impairment which results from anatomical, physiological or psychological conditions, other than addiction to alcohol, gambling, or any controlled 18 substance, which are demonstrable by medically acceptable clinical and 19 laboratory diagnostic techniques, and which are expected to be permanent 20 21 and which prevent the tenant from engaging in any substantial gainful 22 employment]; provided, however, that a tenant required to surrender a 23 housing accommodation under this paragraph shall have a cause of action in any court of competent jurisdiction for damages, declaratory, and 24 25 injunctive relief against a landlord or purchaser of the premises who 26 makes a fraudulent statement regarding a proposed use of the housing 27 accommodation. In any action or proceeding brought pursuant to this 28 paragraph a prevailing tenant shall be entitled to recovery of actual 29 damages, and reasonable attorneys' fees; or 30 § 3. Subdivision a of section 10 of section 4 of chapter 576 of the 31 laws of 1974, constituting the emergency tenant protection act of nine-32 teen seventy-four, as amended by section 15 of part Q of chapter 39 of 33 the laws of 2019, is amended to read as follows: 34 a. For cities having a population of less than one million and towns 35 and villages, the state division of housing and community renewal shall 36 be empowered to implement this act by appropriate regulations. Such 37 regulations may encompass such speculative or manipulative practices or renting or leasing practices as the state division of housing and commu-38 39 nity renewal determines constitute or are likely to cause circumvention 40 of this act. Such regulations shall prohibit practices which are likely 41 to prevent any person from asserting any right or remedy granted by this 42 act, including but not limited to retaliatory termination of periodic 43 tenancies and shall require owners to grant a new one or two year vacan-44 cy or renewal lease at the option of the tenant, except where a mortgage 45 or mortgage commitment existing as of the local effective date of this 46 act provides that the owner shall not grant a one-year lease; and shall 47 prescribe standards with respect to the terms and conditions of new and 48 renewal leases, additional rent and such related matters as security 49 deposits, advance rental payments, the use of escalator clauses in leas-50 es and provision for increase in rentals for garages and other ancillary 51 facilities, so as to ensure that the level of rent adjustments author-52 ized under this law will not be subverted and made ineffective. [Any provision of the regulations permitting an owner to refuse to renew a 53 54 lease on grounds that the owner seeks to recover possession of a housing 55 accommodation for his or her own use and occupancy or for the use and 56 occupancy of his or her immediate family shall permit recovery of only one housing accommodation, shall require that an owner demonstrate imme-1 2 diate and compelling need and that the housing accommodation will be the proposed occupants' primary residence and shall not apply where a member 3 of the housing accommodation is sixty-two years of age or older, has 4 5 been a tenant in a housing accommodation in that building for fifteen 6 years or more, or has an impairment which results from anatomical, phys-7 iological or psychological conditions, other than addiction to alcohol, gambling, or any controlled substance, which are demonstrable by 8 medically acceptable clinical and laboratory diagnostic techniques, and 9 10 which are expected to be permanent and which prevent the tenant from engaging in any substantial gainful employment; provided] Provided, 11 12 however, that a tenant required to surrender a housing accommodation under this subdivision shall have a cause of action in any court of 13 14 competent jurisdiction for damages, declaratory, and injunctive relief 15 against a landlord or purchaser of the premises who makes a fraudulent 16 statement regarding a proposed use of the housing accommodation. In any 17 action or proceeding brought pursuant to this subdivision a prevailing 18 tenant shall be entitled to recovery of actual damages, and reasonable 19 attorneys' fees. 20 § 4. This act shall take effect immediately; provided that the amend-21 ment to section 26-408 of the city rent and rehabilitation law, made by 22 section one of this act, shall remain in full force and effect only as 23 long as the public emergency requiring the regulation and control of 24 residential rents and evictions continues, as provided in subdivision 3 25 of section 1 of the local emergency housing rent control act.
