IN ASSEMBLY

February 8, 2023

Introduced by M. of A. FAHY -- read once and referred to the Committee on Education -- committee discharged, bill amended, ordered reprinted as amended and recommitted to said committee

AN ACT directing a study on the feasibility of adjusting the compulsory attendance age of minors attending full time instruction; and providing for the repeal of such provisions upon the expiration thereof

The People of the State of New York, represented in Senate and Assembly, do enact as follows:

Section 1. The commissioner of education shall conduct a study on the feasibility of adjusting the compulsory attendance age for when minors shall attend full time instruction and deliver a report of the findings and recommendations based on such findings to the governor, the temporary president of the senate, and the speaker of the assembly on or before July first, two thousand twenty-five. The commissioner of education shall consult with educators, parents, and other stakeholders to conduct a study which shall include, but not be limited to:

(a) the social, emotional, and educational appropriateness of the state's compulsory attendance age for when minors shall attend full time instruction;

(b) the appropriateness and feasibility of adjusting the age of required attendance to start school in New York state to minors who become five years of age after the first of September in any school year; and

(c) the educational programs and services available to minors who would otherwise be enrolled in prekindergarten pursuant to an adjustment in the state's compulsory attendance age.

§ 2. This act shall take effect immediately and shall expire and be deemed repealed December 31, 2025.
