42 having custody and care of the animal from disposing of the animal 43 pursuant to section three hundred seventy-four of this article prior to 44 the expiration of the thirty day period covered by the security if the 45 court makes a determination of the charges against the person from whom 46 the animal was seized prior thereto. Upon receipt of a petition from the 47 impounding organization, the court may order the person from whom the 48 animal was seized or the owner of the animal to post an additional secu-
49 rity with the clerk of the court to secure payment of reasonable 50 expenses for an additional period of time pending a determination by the 51 court of the charges against the person from whom the animal was seized.
52 The person who posted the security shall be entitled to a refund of the 53 security in whole or part for any expenses not incurred by such impound-
54 ing organization upon adjudication of the charges. The person who posted 55 the security shall be entitled to a full refund of the security, includ-
56 ing reimbursement by the impounding organization of any amount allowed

1 by the court to be expended, and the return of the animal seized and 2 impounded upon acquittal or dismissal of the charges, except where the 3 dismissal is based upon an adjournment in contemplation of dismissal
4 pursuant to section 215.30 of the criminal procedure law. The court
5 order directing such refund and reimbursement shall provide for payment 6 to be made within a reasonable time from the acquittal or dismissal of 7 charges.

35 the basis of the conviction, or otherwise acting as an accomplice if 36 such charge has not yet been adjudicated. The court shall reimburse the 37 convicted person and any duly determined interested persons, pursuant to 38 subdivision six of this section, any money earned by the sale of the Written notice shall be served at least five days prior to the hearing upon all interested persons. In addition, notice shall be made by publication in a local newspaper at least seven days prior to the hearing. For the purposes of this subdivision, interested persons shall mean any individual, partnership, firm, joint stock company, corporation, association, trust, estate, or other legal entity who the court determines may have a pecuniary interest in the farm animals which are the subject of the forfeiture action.

(b) All interested persons shall be provided an opportunity at the hearing to redeem their interest as determined by the court in the subject farm animals and to purchase the interest of the convicted person. The convicted person shall be entitled to be reimbursed his or her interest in the farm animals, less any costs, fines or penalties imposed by the court, as specified under subdivision two of this section. In no case shall the court award custody or control of the animals to any interested person who conspired, aided or abetted in the unlawful act which was the basis of the conviction, or who knew or should have known of the unlawful act.

7. Nothing in this section shall be construed to limit or restrict in any way the rights of a secured party having a security interest in any farm animal described in this section.
