AN ACT to amend the penal law, in relation to establishing the crime of voyeurism in the first and second degree

The People of the State of New York, represented in Senate and Assembly, do enact as follows:

Section 1. The penal law is amended by adding two new sections 250.51 and 250.52 to read as follows:

§ 250.51 Voyeurism in the second degree.

A person is guilty of voyeurism in the second degree when:

1. For his or her own amusement, entertainment, profit, sexual arousal or sexual gratification, or for the purpose of degrading or abusing a person, he or she trespasses, as defined in section 140.05 of this part, for the purpose of viewing a person dressing or undressing or the sexual or other intimate parts of such person at a place and time when such person has a reasonable expectation of privacy, as defined in subdivision one of section 250.40 of this article, without such person's knowledge or consent; or

2. For his or her own amusement, entertainment, profit, sexual arousal or sexual gratification, or for the purpose of degrading or abusing a person, the actor trespasses, as defined in section 140.05 of this part, for the purpose of viewing a person in an identifiable manner engaging in sexual conduct, as defined in subdivision ten of section 130.00 of this part, at a place and time when such person has a reasonable expectation of privacy, as defined in subdivision one of section 250.40 of this article, without such person's knowledge or consent.

Voyeurism in the second degree is a class B misdemeanor.

§ 250.52 Voyeurism in the first degree.

A person is guilty of voyeurism in the first degree when he or she commits the crime of voyeurism in the second degree and has been previ-
